Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

Immortal "Jeems!"

Spring bonnets may be aptly termed floricultural extravaganzas.

The oil well at Brookville is now down 420 feet, and drilling is still going on.

The oil fever in this vicinity has not yet died out. Keep it up until a test is made.

Persons perusing our "special" locals will notice that Mr Leavy proposes to have a settlement.

There will be services in St. Andrew's (Episcopal) Church next Sunday, March 11th, morning and evening.

Mr. T. Blair Patton, who was recently appointed postmaster at Altoona, entered upon the duties of the office last Friday.

Lorillard's celebrated brands of Navy Tobacco, "Delmonico" and "Our Choice," at Lytle's, sole agent for Clearfield county.

"Two thousand Republicans in this half-doubtful county" didn't go to Washington to see the inauguration. Neither did "Jeems."

Our lumbermen are taking advantage of the pleasant weather, and have commenced to roll in their timber. It was quite lively along the banks of the river at this place last week.

To prevent tobacco chewers from being imposed upon, Lorillards have put a tin stamp in every plug of their tobacco. Take none unless it is stamped. Lytle is sole agent for Clearfield county.

Mr. O. B. Merrill is putting up an addition to the building recently occupied by T. M. Robinson, as a barber shop, on the "Old Western" lot. Mr Merrill proposes starting a tin shop in the building.

There are about one hundred worthless dogs in this borough—from the mongrel cur to the sleek-looking hound—that might very well be disposed of in some way. They are not only a great nuisance to the community in general, but are a pest even to their owners.

Two or three men, and about twelve or more boys, gathered in a very large crowd on Cemetery hill last Friday evening, and fired off the cannon in honor of His Fraudulency, Retiring Board Hayes, to the Presidential chair.

The Columbia Herald informs its readers that about two hundred yards of the lower part of the Columbia dam, on the York county side of the river has been torn away by the ice, and there is good prospect of making a clear passage for shad and other kinds of fish.

The Pittsburgh lumber market has very materially improved within the past fort night. The Post states that barge lumber has advanced from $18 to $25 per thousand, owing to the great destruction of barges by the ice floods in the Monongahela and Ohio rivers some four or five weeks ago.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending March 5, 1877:

Lucy Cuyler, John McCousin,
J. T. Coboon, Abraham Smith,
Miss Sarah J. Johnson, Blair Welsh.

P. A. GAVLIN, P. M.

Harry Snyder requests ladies who desire to have any kind of hair work done to give his advertisement in this paper a perusal. Harry is an experienced workman, and makes curls and switches, as well as all kinds of ornamental hair-work, in a very superior manner. Having served a regular apprenticeship at the business, he feels confident of pleasing all who favor him with their patronage.

The postmaster and a number of the Rimersburg citizens of Osceola, taking the cue from the immortal patriot at this place, telegraphed their congratulations to Senator Morton, one day last week. If any persons in this country have reason to be glad over the fraudulent action of the Electoral Commission thieves, it is the army of postmasters and office-holders who do not want to be turned out of their positions.

Temperance meetings are the rage now in many of the towns and cities in Pennsylvania. At Altoona, on Thursday evening last, ninety-two persons signed the pledge; at Butler, 300 persons have signed it; at Parker City, 500; and at Pittsburgh, during the meetings that were conducted by Mr. Francis Murphy, and since, it is said that 45,000 persons have signed the pledge of total abstinence. If this thing keeps on, there will be no special need of a Local Option Law.

At a temperance meeting in Altoona, one evening last week, an old gentleman in the audience gave his experience. He said he had put in 55 years of his existence as a drinking man; that when he was 19 years old, he drank five quarts of liquor a day; that he had spent $6,000 a year for rum, and drank 110 inches a day, and that after he did quit drinking it was nearly six months before the smell were off him. Now, that is pretty rough on the old fellow, and if Altoona has any more of the same kind, they had better keep up the temperance movement until they are all reformed.

Another season of buds and blossoms and balmy breezes, freighted with the odor of a thousa nd flowers is silently creeping upon us. We will soon tread the velvety and verdant lawn, and indulge in moonlight rambles among the shrubbery, sparkling with thousands of brilliant dew-drops; the merry warble of the birds and the chorus of insects will soon greet our ears; the compact ground, which has been covered with a blanket of snow during the long months of winter, will again be alive with the scarcelees chattering of the youth, middle-aged and old folks; the flower-beds and borders will bear traces of former loveliness; the hanging-baskets that have been dismantled, or removed from the balcony to the cellar, will again make their appearance; the gravelled walks will echo with the pleasant footfall, and spring will again be here in all her glory.

Mr. Gaulin's commission, as postmaster at this place, does not expire for two years yet. "Jeems" dispatch to Morton won't get him the office!

TRIAL LIST.—The following causes have been set down for trial on the second week of the March term of Court, 1877:—

W. U. & L. Association vs. James Haley
W. W. Wilson, to use, vs. J. C. Wright & Co.
G. B. Logan vs. Tyrone & Clearfield R. R.
B. & C. Hartshorn vs. T. & Clearfield R. R.

LEG BROKEN.—A lad named Eddie Carron, whose parents reside in the rear of the [illegible] House, one day last week, where he was pushed off the fence, and, falling on the brick pavement, fractured his right leg.

GO AHEAD.—It is with pleasure that we are able to announce the fact, according to the Times, that Curwensville is to have a large steam tannery, to be erected between the depot in that place and Anderson's creek—a splendid location. We have the room, and the BANK too, for a half-a-dozen of these establishments in this county. Who will furnish the capital? No other enterprise pays so well.

The lumbermen in this region have about finished their contracts for cutting and putting in logs, and are now patiently waiting for water, with which to drive them to market. We incidentally learn that about 23,100,000 feet have been put in Laurel run during the past winter, being more logs than have been put in that stream at any one time for several years. But altogether there will not be as many logs started from the Clearfield pineries this spring, as in former years.

THE DIFFERENCE.—A score of our exchanges contain this paragraph:

"Ex-Gov Wm Bigler has been elected President of the Sportsmen's Association of Clearfield county."

This is a mistake. He is the President of the Clearfield Fire Brick Company, and can be seen almost any day in the yard connected with the works of the company, at this place, piling up and shifting rubbish, so as to give the employes plenty of room. His son, William D., is the sporting President.

P. S.—No Returning Boards were used to secure the election of either.

THE NEW 'SQUIRES.—Those parties who were elected Justices of the Peace at the recent election should bear the fact in mind that the Act of Assembly requires them to notify Prothonotary Bloom in writing, within thirty days after the election, whether they will accept the office or not. Those neglecting to give this notice will, of course, lose their commission. The State Department will not forward any commissions until after receiving the Prothonotary's certificate, giving the names of such persons who desire to qualify and lift them.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER.—Rev. B. F. Stevens preached an excellent temperance sermon in the Clearfield M. E. Church last Sunday evening. He portrayed the evils of intemperance in their true light, and incidentally countered by saying that where there was so much visible wrong, it was best "to go behind the returns" and see what was the matter. The reverend gentleman was not alluding to the Louisiana election; but to the crimes of the liquor-seller. Some evil-disposed persons may think that he was throwing a brick at Judge Bradley's head; but in that they are mistaken.

FATAL SCALDING ACCIDENT.—The Osceola Recorder, in its issue of last Saturday, the 3d inst., says: "On Saturday last, at Powelton, a little boy about 18 months old, son of Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, was fatally scalded. The child's mother was engaged in scrubbing, and had put a boiler containing hot water on the floor, intending to fill it with a bucket of cold water. In the meantime the unfortunate child, who was playing in the room, accidentally ran against the bucket and fell backward into it, sustaining such injuries that death ensued in a short time. The funeral took place on Monday, at Osceola."

HOTEL BURNED—Six Lives Lost!—The Bateman House at Karns City, in Butler county, was destroyed by fire last Monday morning. The fire originated in the office and cut off all escape by the stairway from the rooms above. Mr. Bateman rushed through the flames with his son. The father was badly and the son fatally burned in reaching the debris, the bodies of Mrs. Bateman and her four daughters—Xanthe, Lou, Belle and Winnie—were found burned beyond recognition. A. Brown, of the firm of Sprouglo & Co., of New York, was found almost consumed. Thirty guests were in the hotel at the time, six of whom were injured by jumping from windows. The loss is estimated at $10,000; insurance, $9,000.

MT. UNION COLLEGE—A Thorough Education Accessible to All—We stop the following from the Cleveland Herald: "Another super-building will be erected the coming year. Museum, worth $400,000. Departments, modern and ancient Classics, Scientific, Philosophical, Ladies, Normal, Music, Commercial, Fine Arts, Preparatory. Good Board, $2 50—co-operative. Tuition not a cent; no incidental charges. Attendance last year, 847. Students enter any time, choose any studies, earn by teaching winters their expenses for spring, summer and fall terms. STATISTICAL STATEMENT OF ODD-FELLOWSHIP.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the United States, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, has just issued the proceedings of its thirty-second annual convention. The number of Grand Lodges are 48; Subordinate Lodges, 9,369; Grand Encampments, 36; Subordinate Encampments, 1,760; Lodge initiations, 50,943; Lodge members, 444,669; Encampment members, 27,660. Total relief fund during the year, $1,698,485·92; amounts of revenue, $4,174,211·70.

A special session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., will be held at Easton, Pa., on Monday, April 16, 1877, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the special purpose of admitting P. G.'s to membership in the Grand Lodge, and imparting instruction in the work of the Order. In the evening a Lodge meeting will be opened in the initiatory degree for instruction, at which every member of the Order in good standing will be admitted.

DIVIDED IN LIFE, UNITED IN DEATH.—The Tyrone Herald tells this story: "Many of our readers will remember that Lewis Gonyer was sent to the penitentiary about eighteen months since, for a term of seven years, for an outrage upon the person of a little girl, near Philipsburg. Two or three weeks ago Gonyer died in prison, and when the news reached his wife she remarked: 'I believe I'll go up stairs and die too.' She went up stairs, and some time afterward was discovered in bed, cold and lifeless. She had been suffering from a cold, but no one considered her case serious. No one can tell what was the real cause of her sudden death, as she had vowed that she would never again live with her husband, and considered herself as free as though she had never been married."

Gonyer was tried in the Centre County Court and sentenced by Judge Orvis. It was shown that the prisoner was intoxicated when he committed the act.

OUR FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.—On our first page will be found a full copy of the new Assessment and Tax bill, now before the State Legislature. With a few amendments, it will be a decided improvement on the old law. We will indicate the amendments on some future occasion. We want our readers to study this bill, and if any objections are found, name the sections and indicate what the objections are. "Take Care of the Girls," which we slip from the Philadelphia Times, is a specialty for parents; and, although the scene is located on Chestnut street, in Philadelphia, it will suit in many other localities just as well. The girls need not peruse it.

Sheriff Pentz has taken the liberty to appropriate a large portion of our fourth page; but then, he is in the habit of taking privileges of this kind, and we can't help but comply with his request. Those of our citizens who are interested in the Lloyd bankruptcy case, may find some comfort by reading something over a column on that subject. It will be observed that this prodigal firm spent $4290,843.96. Nearly a million of dollars! How much the creditors will get back out of this sum, no one seems to know. The loss is enough to make two counties poor for five years.
