SEE BLAINE

Before You Buy a Lot.

Employment here for workers, business for merchants and tradesmen and large profits for investors. Do not be carried away by large advertisements and glowing promises. Blaine is on the navigable river, in the valley of great factories and successful towns, and her immense safe works, now nearing completion, will give employment to more men than 20 establishments such as are claimed by competing "manufacturing" towns. Blaine extends an invitation to everyone to visit and investigate her site and resources.
