Talk of the Town.

Two large show windows literally packed with loose diamonds and also mounted in ear drops, lace pins, hair pins, bracelets, pendants, necklaces, rings and studs.

The elegant display and sale will continue all this week, and I cordially invite the public to examine these fine diamonds on which I pride myself of being the first direct importer in this city. My thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me.

I still continue to superintend the sale personally and assist purchasers in their selection.

Persons so desiring can call now and make their selection for the holidays and have the goods laid away free of charge.
