Messrs. Test, Buck and A. A. Graham were to address a Temperance meeting at Glen Hope, this county, last Friday evening, but owing to some misunderstanding, there was no conveyance at Houtzdale to take them to the place of the meeting, about nine miles distant, and they were obliged to return home. They desire us to say that they went to Houtzdale, according to an arrangement made with parties at Glen Hope, and, no one meeting them there, they came back home. Father Test rightly remarks that "the citizens of Glen Hope are just about as wild as."

THE BOSS TURKEY.—The Everett Press is responsible for saying that a Mr. Gough, senior, of Snake Spring township, Bedford county, can lay in the claim to having killed the "boss" wild turkey of the season. One day recently, while roaming over the mountains in that region in quest of game, he came across the turkey gobbler that has made those mountains his home for five years—so the old hunters there say, and they ought to know—and being in good position to make a crack-shot, he made the American bird bite the dust. On weighing it, he found that it pulled thirty-two pounds.

CLEARFIELD N. C. T. U.—The meeting of the Temperance Union held in the Court House last Friday evening was not so well attended as usual. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to select officers to serve for the coming six months reported the following:

President—A. B. Shaw.
Vice Presidents—Al. M. Row and W. D. Bigler.
Secretary—Wm. A. Baer.
Treasurer—Wm. A. Hagerty.
Executive Committee—W. B. McPherson, Dr. J. M. Stewart, C. L. Barrett, Dr. H. B. VanValzah, George W. Rheem.

The above named officers were unanimously elected. Frank G. Harris, Esq., was introduced to the audience by the President-elect, and delivered a very appropriate address in favor of total abstinence.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Christian Temperance Union of Clearfield does hereby express its grate at appreciation of the faithful services of those who have held its offices for the past six months.

The next meeting of the Union will be held on Friday evening, December 21st.

At the REPUBLICAN office is the place to get your job work done. We are fully prepared to do anything in the printing line, will do it well, and at the right kind of prices. tf.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—The Bellefonte Watchman relates the following: "A little child of John Spitler at Bald Eagle Furnace, was burned so badly on Thursday last that death relieved it of its sufferings in about an hour after the accident. Its the old story over again. Mother out to see a neighbor for a moment. Child left alone with opportunity to play with fire. The charred remains of a loved one. Sorrowful funeral and desolate home.

A GOOD JOB.—The Williamsport Sun says that Hon. H. W. Earley, lumber merchant of that city, during the past season, has furnished the material, ready for the putting up of one hundred and fifty-eight dwelling houses for Mr. John W. Ohlebach, at No. 42 Lancaster Avenue, in West Philadelphia, and they are all finished. This is a large sale and a fine business for Messrs. Earley and Ohlebach. We delight to record such evidences of enterprise and prosperity.

DEPARTURE.—The Johnstown Tribune says that Judge Hall has taken a new departure in the matter of sentencing criminals convicted of larceny or not. While holding court in Somerset recently, a young man named James H. Johnson was brought up for trial on a charge at this kind and convicted. The penalty imposed was a fine of five dollars, and he is also to pay her seventy five cents a week for seven years, besides undergoing imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of one year. That may be called falling him down with a vengeance.

CUMBERLAND COAL TRADE.—The Cumberland Daily News says that the product of the mines of the Cumberland coal region for the week ending December 1st, was 7,781 tons; for the year to that date 1,144,859½ tons, a decrease of 136,300 tons as compared with a corresponding period of last year. The shipments to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad were, for the year 797,498 tons; a decrease of 155,040 tons as compared with 1876. There were no shipments to the Chesapeake and Ohio canal last week; for the year there were 245,532 tons, a decrease of 19,502 tons as compared with 1876.

A WITNESS FAINTS.—The Huntingdon Monitor says: "Quite a sensation was caused in the Court-room last week. The case of Henry Whitsel against David Whitsel (being a suit brought by a son against his father) was on trial, and while the plaintiff was being cross examined, suddenly fell from the witness stand prostrate on the floor. In an instant persons rushed in to raise him up, when it was discovered that he had fainted. He was immediately taken out of the Court room, in order that he might breathe fresh air, but after being revivified, he was so weak that Judge Orvis continued the case until next term. The suit was brought by the son to recover wages for services rendered the father. The parties reside in Barree township."

ALMOST SUFFOCATED.—The Altoona Sun says: "On Saturday last Miss Maggie Mulligan, a domestic in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Merriott, of Harrisburg, was left in charge of the house, and Mr. Merriott and wife took a trip to Altoona. On Saturday night Miss Mulligan, with a lady friend from Lingletown, who was stopping with her, retired about 9 o'clock, but by some mistake in putting out the light the gas was left turned on. In this condition they remained, in a state of stupefaction, until Monday morning, when the neighbors, finding something was wrong, called the matter to the attention of the police. They entered and found the house full of gas and the two girls almost suffocated. In a few hours more they would have been corpses."

Extract from an interesting letter from a gentleman well known here. It will be read with interest:

MISSION HOUSE, ONEIDA,
HIGHGATE, Aug. 21, 1871.

To E. K. Thompson, Wholesale Druggist, Titusville, Pa., U. S. A.:

The medicines you so kindly gave me, to wit: E. K. Thompson's Sweet Worm Powders, and Dandelion and Mandrake Pills, I have used and find them very valuable. Just the medicines we need here. It is but a simple statement of a fact, when I say that the powder, i. e., Dr. Thompson's Sweet Worm Powder, has saved, humanly speaking, several lives, one of which was that of a valuable native preacher.

REV. J. E. CLOUGH.

Prepared by E. K. Thompson, Titusville, Pa. Price $1 00 per bottle. Sold in Clearfield by C. D. Watson, druggist.

BOROUGH RESPONSIBILITY.—A bad pavement not only jeopardizes the limbs and lives of the citizens, but subjects the tax-payer sometimes to great damages. A limb broken often costs as much in cash, if not in a moral point of view, as a small riot. The Huntingdon Monitor, of last week, says: "The most interesting case tried in Court this week was that of John Davis and Mary, his wife against the borough of Mount Union. On the night of the 10th of January last, Mrs. Davis, when returning home from church, in Mount Union, stepped into a hole in the boardwalk and fell, thereby sustaining bodily injury. This suit was brought to recover damages, which the husband and wife alleged they were entitled to recover, for the injury to the wife. The damages claimed in Plaintiffs' Narr were $5,000. Defendant alleged that Mrs. Davis had been guilty of negligence, and that hence Plaintiffs were not entitled to recover anything. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of Plaintiffs for the sum of $45."

A DEER STORY.—The Huntingdon Local News relates the following: "We learn that a hunter named Long, residing in Trough Creek Valley, this county, did some remarkable shooting one night last week. He discovered that several deer were devastating one of his fields, and on finding out where the animals entered, he loaded his gun in the evening, and took a position, as he thought, where he could shoot, in a tree, and awaited the coming of the deer. He continued in his position until two o'clock the next morning, when four deer entered the field, which he could distinguish by the bright moonlight. Awaiting his opportunity, he took deliberate aim, and killed one of the larger. The other ones bounded upon their fallen comrade, and stood still until the marksman fired another shot, which killed deer No. 2. Again the same thing happened, the deer being too much astounded to run, when the hunter fired the third time and only wounded one of the remaining two which dashed them to speed away. Had he killed the third deer, he might have probably had a shot at the fourth."
