Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take wheat, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often inquired of in this way by letter from patrons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say yes. The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer us just as well as the cash. To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver us a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Breth, in Chest township, Harase Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas H. Forney, in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw's, in Lawrence, or Brown & Sayler's, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course. tf.

Don't forget to attend the Primary Election next Saturday.

S. J. Gates, Curwensville, is closing out his entire stock of clothing at cost.

Some miscreant stole about ten bushels of ripe peaches from Mr. John Shaw's orchard, in Lawrence township, a few nights ago.

John A. Stock, the tobacconist, received a Stock the other day, and got a new partner in the tobacco trade—a boy, "bedad!"

Mr. W. J. Hoffer is now receiving his new goods at Room No. 3, Opera House building, and he will soon be ready for business.

Oscar Mitchell, Esq., will open a law office in the room lately occupied by E. A. & W. D. Bigler, on the second floor of the Opera House.

All the store-rooms and offices in the Opera House building are now occupied, and this end of town presents a business-like appearance.

There were four weddings in Clearfield last Thursday, Rev. McMurray officiating at two of them and Rev. Butler at two. That is rather a brisk matrimonial trade for one day.

Lookout for new Goods at FLECK & CO.'S Store! Fleck is now in New York buying Fall Goods, a full line of which will be on hand in a few days. s11-2t

Another large stock of Shot, Powder and Caps received at Harder's Gun Store. A full nickel-plated seven-shot Revolver for $2 50. Next door to First Nat. Bank, Clearfield, Pa. s11-3.

The mission services at the Catholic Church, in this place, closed last Sunday evening. The services were well attended throughout, the Reverend Fathers who officiated being eloquent and earnest divines.

The evenings are getting longer and cooler, an unpleasant reminder of the fact that it is getting close on to the time of year when it becomes necessary to lay in a supply of anthracite for use during the Winter.

S. Guinzburg's new advertisement appears this week. The Fall stock of boots, shoes, hats, caps, and gents' furnishing goods, are now being received, and purchasers should govern themselves accordingly.

The peach crop is excellent in some some parts of this county. A gentleman who visited Grahamton recently says he saw a peach orchard along the road where the limbs had to be propped up, so heavy were they with fruit.

A. P. Moore, of West Clearfield, Harris Hoover, of Clearfield, James L. Cook, of New Washington, and John Norris, Sr., are seeking the one place which the Republicans are entitled to on the Board of County Commissioners.

The Leonard Literary Society was well attended last Friday evening, it being the occasion of its first meeting this Fall, and the exercises were interesting to those present. Meetings will be held hereafter every Friday evening. Everybody is invited.

The Chairman of Radical Co. Committee has published a notice for a Republican mass meeting, to be held in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th. The announcement says that "prominent speakers from a distance will be present," etc.

John P. Bard, Assignee of the estate of N. E. Arnold, Bankrupt, will sell the real estate belonging to said Bankrupt at public sale, at the Drancker House, in Curwensville, on Saturday, Sept. 28th, at 1 o'clock P. M. Some valuable real estate will be disposed of at this sale.

A gate was put in the iron fence last week on the South side of the Court House yard, immediately opposite the window where the borough election is held, which will make it much more convenient for voters than heretofore. The end gate at the front of the Court House has been closed permanently.

A log camp is now being constructed on the tract of land recently purchased from Mrs. W. W. Betts, by ex-Sheriff McPherson, Captain McGaughey, and others of this vicinity, and some twenty or thirty rafts will be taken off the land during the Winter. It is said that some of the finest timber in the county is now standing upon this piece of land. The tract embraces 1,100 acres, and is located in Bell township.

We notice in some of our exchanges an item to the effect that Michael D. Reidy, Esq., of Wallaceton, who was upon the track of some counterfeiters, has been arrested and held in $1,000 bail, for his appearance at the October term of the United States District Court, at Pittsburgh. He is charged with opening a letter addressed to "Mrs. Tillie Meyers, Phillipsburg, Pa.," which got into his possession, and which he supposed would give some information in regard to the whereabouts of a gentleman whom he wanted to arrest. As the matter will undergo a legal investigation, we refrain from any comments in regard to it at the present time.

Attend the Primary Election next Saturday.

S. J. Gates, Curwensville, is the largest stock of Boots and Shoes in the county.

NEW FALL GOODS.—New Fall goods cheap for cash at T. A. Fleck & Co.'s.

Persons in need of Clothing should go to S. J. Gates, in Curwensville, where you can buy at cost.

Lookout for McCauley's new Segar Factory, in the old "Western Hotel" building, Second street.

SNUG.—Barnum's splendid advertising car, now moving over the Pennsylvania Railroad, carrying his bill posters, cost $20,000.

Read Bunnell & Miller's Piano and Organ advertisement in this paper. They offer bargains to cash-buyers of musical instruments.

Hon. A. H. Dill and Hon. George A. Jenks addressed the citizens of Jefferson county on the issues of the campaign, at Brookville, on last (Tuesday) evening.

Our "devil" has the "rheumatics" in his lower limbs, no doubt, caused by sparking his girl over the front gate. Go in the house these cool, damp evening, young man!

Ex-Sheriff Pie, of Osceola, circulated around among his many friends here last Monday. The Sheriff feels happy over the fact that the Opera House is now chock full of business.

We have now on hand several thousand first-class envelopes, which we will print for business men, or anybody else, at prices that cannot be rivalled. Call and see them. tf.

RELIEF.—We have a little bread left, which we will trade for some work. If some one will shoulder a double-bitted axe some morning, and repair to our woodshed, he can get a job of splitting some kindling wood.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending Sept. 9, 1878:—
Charles Allaze, John Books, Edw'd McCready, Miss S. M. Miller, John Waring, Joe Weaver.
P. A. Gaulin, P. M.

The "Educational" column is unavoidably crowded out this week, to make room for Judge Sharswood's views on the financial question. Next week the eclipse will have passed off and the educational run will appear as usual to give light to those interested.

The final examination of applicants for schools will be held by County Sup't. McQuown in the Leonard Graded School building, in this borough, on Saturday, Sept. 21st. None need apply, unless they satisfy the law regulating special examinations. See School Laws, page 153, decision 301.

We have just received from the Fashion and Pattern House, of Philadelphia, a copy of the Metropolitan. Any of our lady readers desirous of having the latest fashions will receive the Metropolitan gratis by sending her address to J. G. Ramsdell, 1113 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PRIMARY ELECTION.—Parties attending the Primary Election on Saturday next, and at the County Convention on the Tuesday following, are requested to call at John A. Stock's Cigar Factory, in this place, for their tobacco and cigars. He claims to have the best five-cent and two-for-five-cents cigars in the county.

Last Saturday evening our citizens had the pleasure of listening to some excellent music by the Orphens Cornet Band and the Citizens' Cornet Band, being their first appearance on the street. Both organizations are making rapid progress in their musical efforts, and Clearfield will soon be able to boast of its two first-class bands.

OUT OF THE WOODS AGAIN.—We learn that, after a protracted effort, the rope and tools which have been wedged in the test oil well at Osceola for some time past were finally drawn last Saturday night, at about 9 o'clock, and the parties are on hand to proceed with the drilling. We presume the managers will take every precaution to see that nothing similar will occur in the future.

The borough School Board has appointed William Dorritt to officiate as Janitor of the Leonard Graded School building for the ap-

You can buy a pair of Men's Calf Boots for $2.50, at S. J. Gates', Curwensville.

Women's heavy shoes for $1, at S. J. Gates', Curwensville, Pa. s4-4t.

Remember that Lytle is County Agent for Lorillard's Tobacco, and can sell them at factory prices. They are the best tobaccos in market. Try them.

CRUSADE.—An offensive war on weeds at this season of the year is five times less expensive than a defensive one. Farmers and gardeners will please make a note of this.

At the REPUBLICAN office is the place to get your job work done. We are fully prepared to do anything in the printing line, will do it well, and at the right kind of prices. tf.

TO LANDLORDS AND STOREKEEPERS.—Lytle has an arrangement with an Eastern Cigar Factory so that he can sell cigars by the box or thousand at bottom figures. Give their cigars one trial. tf.

A JOKE ON THE PREACHER.—The Altoona Mirror, of the 2d inst., says: "Rev. Geo. Guyer, an enthusiastic sportsman, pastor of the M. E. Church at Bell's Mills, was fined on Saturday, for shooting squirrels out of season."

KEEP HIM AT A DISTANCE.—Grim Death now claiming to many victims by disease of the stomach, bowels and kidneys does not visit those families who keep and use Dr. Fenner's Golden Relief. Price 25, 50c, and $1. Hartswick & Irwin agents, Clearfield, Pa.

NOTICE TO OUR MILLINERY TRADE.—Hats and Bonnets trimmed in the latest style at T. A. FLECK & CO'S., any time after the 10th of September, they having secured the services of a No. 1 Milliner and Trimmer from one of the very best and most Fashionable establishments in Philadelphia. aug.28'78-3t.

A FACT.—An advertisement inserted in the REPUBLICAN will reach more readers than if published in all the other papers in the county, and cost the advertiser less than one-half. In other words, an advertisement published in our journal is worth double the price of that charged by any other publisher in the county. "It is a fact." tf.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Dr. A. M. Hills would say to his friends and former patients that he has not retired from practice as has been so industriously circulated by some persons, but will continue to give his personal attention to all who may desire it, or to assist Dr. Heichhold whenever required. Nitrous Oxide Gas given for the painless extraction of teeth. April 24-tf.

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF CALDWELL'S ATLAS.—We learn that Mr. Caldwell's agents will be in our county in about sixty days (Nov. 10th) for the purpose of delivering the new Atlas of Clearfield county. Those who have not subscribed will have an opportunity to do so, and receive it at once, and those who have subscribed had better gather up about ten "trade" or some other dollars, and receive their copies, and thereby make their word as good as their note.

TURNPIKE STOCK.—It will be observed, by an advertisement in this issue, that Auditor General Schell will sell a number of shares of turnpike stock, at Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the 8th day of October next. Those of our readers who wish to invest in Bellefonte and Philipsburg, or Philipsburg and Susquehanna, as well as other turnpike stocks in this section of the State, will have a rare opportunity to place some trade dollars, or any other kind of dollars, where they will do the State some service.

THE FIRE FIENDS.—We learn that the school building adjacent to the Catholic Church at Frenchville, in Covington township, and the barn of Peter Garmier, near by, were burned to the ground last Saturday night. It is generally understood that it was the work of incendiaries, but up to the present time no arrests have been made. From what has transpired lately in that vicinity, it is very evident that there is room down there for some missionary work. This Communistic freak is, indeed, shocking to record, and it makes all those who favor civilization blow their heads in shame.

The Clearfield Gas Company offers, at par, Coupon Bonds in denominations of $300 and $500 each, bearing interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the First National Bank. The Company has issued bonds to the amount of $10,000, and $6,000 of this was taken but a few days ago by one of the Clearfield banks, leaving $4,000 to be disposed of. Capitalists who are seeking a safe investment for their money, would consult their interest by investing in these bonds. They can be purchased at either of the Clearfield banks. Any information respecting the Gas Company, will be cheerfully given by A. F. Boynton, President, or W. W. Betts, Secretary. je19-tf.

Bárosma has been the means of doing a great deal of good in healing the sick, and benefiting the afflicted, many of whom had almost despaired of health, or of even being free from pain. Six years ago a man troubled with kidney difficulty came to my drug store, leaning heavily on his cane, nearly half doubled, hand across his back—an object of pity; said he had been troubled in this way for years, and whenever he took cold it settled across his kidneys, often confining him to his bed for days and weeks with excruciating pain. He took a bottle of the Barosma, and in three days returned, saying it was worth $50 to him, and was willing to pay that if he could not get it without. He continued using it, buying the six bottles for $5, which cured him entirely. Prepared by E. K. Thompson, Titusville, Pa. Price, $1 per bottle. For sale by all druggists in Clearfield, and by Jos. Seyler & Son, Lothersburg.

THAT OLD LAND MARK.—Every Susquehanna raftman, old and young, will regret to learn that violent hands have been laid upon an old land mark—the old Ferry House, or hotel, on the West side of the Shamokin dam, opposite Sunbury. It was torn down recently to make room for a new hotel of a modern style. The Selinsgrove Times alludes to it as follows: "This old hotel was a rare old land mark and was erected a hundred years or more ago. It was a noted place among raftmen from the headwaters of the North and West Branches, and there are probably men and women in every State of the Union who have have at some day lived or been about Shamokin dam. Till within the last ten or twelve years this old house had the best ball-room in the county, and the place was the scene of many a pleasure party, as well as of drunken brawls and fights. The present owner intends to put up a more commodious building and fit it up in connection with his park, as a place of resort for pleasure parties as well as a hotel."
