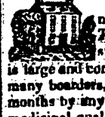
Towanda, November 19th, 1850.

Tavern to Rent.—Rome Springs.



THE well known and celebrated stand near the village of Rome, in Bradford co. The house and out buildings, barns and stabling are in good repair. The House is large and commodious, and will accommodate a great many boarders, which can be had during the summer months by any one who will keep a good house, as the medicinal qualities of the water are so well known that more people have always been desirous of visiting them than could find comfortable entertainment.

The house has recently been fitted up, and is about 9 miles from Towanda, one from the village of Rome, and about 7 from the "Waverly Depot." It is on the main post road from Rome to Athens, and if well kept would be found a pleasant resort from the cities during the warm weather.

Reference for terms, (which will be liberal to the right kind of man) can be made to Edward Overton, Esq., of Towanda, who is authorized by the undersigned, the owner, to lease the same.

March 1, 1851. DANIEL KEIFFE.
