Arrangements for their unwearied exertions to make the Convention comfortable during its session, and to the citizens of Baltimore for their courtesy and kindness to the members individually.

Mr. Wigging, of Georgia offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the unanimous thanks of this Convention be extended to Hon John W. Davis, the presiding officer, and his able assistant, Hon. Mr. Irwin, and all other officers, for the able, dignified and efficient manner in which they have discharged their duties.

The Committee appointed to inform Mr. Pierce and Mr King of their nomination was announced as follows: Erastus Corning, of New York; J. S. Barbour, of Virginia; Jacob Thompson, of Mississippi; Governor McClellan, of Michigan; and Pierre Soule, of Louisiana.

A motion was made, but the question was not taken, that the thanks of the Convention be presented to the clergy who have offered up prayers for their success.

Mr. Hallet gave notice to the Democratic National Committee to meet in Washington, at the National Hotel, on Monday next at 12 o'clock

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

Mr. Hallet gave notice that he had printed copies of the Democratic platform, which he would now distribute; and immediately there was a tremendous rush to the table for them—one of the legs of the table being knocked off in the scramble.

A few huzzas were sent up, by way of a farewell, and then the crowd dispensed. So ended the Baltimore Convention.

[The resolutions of the Convention will appear in our next]

FRIGHTFUL SUICIDE.—Miss Laura Lull, a respectable American girl, of West Brookfield, Mass., committed suicide a day or two since under the following circumstances:—Having been the victim of a cruel and heartless desertion, and laboring under a sensitiveness of disappointment and wrong inflicted upon her, she visited Worcester on the morning of the fatal day, but only to find her last hope crushed. Returning to the East Brookfield station, she left the cars, and inquired at what time the train passed up towards Springfield, (which would be in a short time,) she started on foot towards West Brookfield, and disappeared beyond an adjacent curve. Very soon the train came up, and when the whistle was sounded, she snatched her purse, and taking a ring from her finger, gave them to a little girl who was walking by her side, telling her to hurry up a bank out of the way of the cars. This, done, she immediately laid down upon the track, and almost in an instant was a mangled and shapeless form!

☞ Gov. Ramsay issued his proclamation, giving official notice that the Maine Liquor Law has been ratified by the people of Minnesota, and went into effect on the 3d instant. The majority for it was 191.

H. C. BAIRD
Towanda May 1, 1852. Mercantile Appraiser.

Farmers, look to your own interests!

THE undersigned respectfully announce that they still continue the manufacturing business at their old stand in Monroe, one mile above Monroeton on the Canton road, where they are prepared to accommodate all who may favor them with a call, with anything in their line, from the carding of a pound of wool, to the manufacturing of any quality into on short notice. Having understood that wool buyers—travelling the county—have often sold their cloth as of our make, we wish it distinctly understood that we have no one peddling our cloth for stool; neither shall we allow any one to do so, believing that this is only a tax upon the Farmer, and a practice of which unprincipled dealers take advantage to cheat the inexperienced buyers; therefore any persons wishing to exchange their Wool for our Cloth, can only do so by calling at our factory where we will give them as good bargains as they can get this side of New York.

We will warrant our cloth to be made of good wool and not composed of filth—in short made for service, and not merely for sale. Call and try us, and we flatter ourselves that we shall be able to satisfy you of the correctness of the above statements.

N. B.—Those having unsettled accounts with us will confer a favor by calling and settling the same immediately either by note or otherwise.

Monroe, May 19, 1852. J. INGHAM & SON.

For Sale.

SEVEN THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND in Wyoming County; heavy timbered with White and Yellow Pine, Hemlock, Chestnut and other kinds of timber suitable for lumbering. The land is well adapted for grazing, after the timber is cut off. A good title given. None of the above land is more than ten miles from the Susquehanna River and North Branch Canal, and will be sold in large or small quantities to suit purchasers. Terms easy. For further particulars address ELISHA FORREST, Attorney at Law, Allentown Pa.
