Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take wheat, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often inquired of in this way by letter from patrons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say yes. The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer us just as well as the cash. To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Breth, in Chest township, Horace Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas H. Forcey, in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw's, in Lawrence, or Brown & Seyler's, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may soon pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course. tf.

Next Monday, the 17th, is "St. Patrick's day in the mornin'."

According to the almanac, Spring begins on the 20th day of March.

The State Sunday School Convention will meet in Altoona in June.

First installment of Spring goods just received at Fleck & Co's. mar5-3t.

The next legal holiday of which we have any record will be Good Friday—April 11th.

The Reynoldsville Herald must be dead. We have not seen a copy for a month. Who knows what the matter is?

Buy your Motto Frames of A. J. Jackson, in the Mansion House, Market street. mar12-4t.

The only harbingers of Spring that have as yet appeared in this section, are the boys playing marbles on the pavements.

Fleck & Co. are adding largely to their already large stock of Dress and Dry Goods. mar5-3t.

The Curwensville Cornet Band visited this place last Tuesday evening, to attend the Festival given by the Orpheus Band.

The very finest assortment Hamburg Edgings, both in quality and variety, worked on Swiss muslin, at T. A. Fleck & Co's. mar5-3t.

A. J. Jackson has motto and picture frames enough to supply half the county, and will furnish the pictures too, if desired. Room in the Mansion House.

Remember that Lytle is County Agent for Lorrillard's Tobacco, and can sell them at factory prices. They are the best tobaccos in market. Try them.

Next Sunday closes the Conference year within the bounds of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the M. E. Church. This body meets at Bloomsburg on the 18th.

A new postoffice has been established in Morris township, to accomodate those living in the "Cooper Settlement." The office is named "Drain Lick," and Robert Hartel is the postmaster.

There is a good rafting flood in the river, and the water is still rising. Should the present warm weather continue, there is enough snow in the woods to keep up a big flood for weeks.

Judge Jenks of Brookville, has arrived in town and is the guest of Governor Bigler. He will deliver a lecture in the Court House this (Tuesday) evening, in accordance with previous announcement.

We hope that the Postmaster, Mr. Hartel, at the new office of Drain Lick, will send us the names of not less than a score of subscribers by the 4th of July. There are lots of Democrats down there, who should take the Republican.

The funeral of Mrs. Bloom and daughter occurred last Friday afternoon, and was largely attended. The interment took place at Curwensville. Mrs. Bloom was a sister-in-law to Prothonotary Bloom and Mrs. Elizabeth Irvin, of this place.

Those persons who have not received their plates and dishes, which were used at the Orpheus Band Festival last week, can call at the store of John F. Kramer, in the Opera House, and claim their property. Owners are wanted for twelve or fifteen plates.

Andrew Tracy, who murdered Miss Mary Reilly, at Smethport, McKean county, last September, was tried week before last and found guilty of murder in the first degree. The death sentence will not be rendered until April term. Tracy once resided in this community.

Mr. Clarence A. Johnston requests us to state that Shamokin, Pa., where he has leased a hotel, and taken possession on the 15th inst., is not at Shamokin Dam, on the Susquehanna river, as is supposed by many, but is twenty miles northeast from the dam.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending March 10, 1879:—
G. Comerford, George M. Fisher, Mrs. Jacob Gearhart, Esquire McAtear, Clarence Potter.
P. A. Gaulin, P. M.

Just listen to that naughty Hollidaysburg Standard: "A black stocking with a yellow snake coiled around the leg is the latest novelty. When the girls get to wearing these stockings thousand of men will be anxious to see snakes."—Huntingdon Monitor.
Is not the local in question a Sunday School Superintendent or teacher?

So We Go.—The Mifflintown Sentinel says that the Methodists of that place have prepared a petition that will be presented to the coming Conference of their church, praying that Rev. Mr. Wilson be reinstated to all church privileges of which he has recently been deprived.

Pocket-book Found.—Mr. Wilhelm picked up a pocket-book on the road, between the old bridge and McBride's, on the 7th inst. There was no money in the book, but there were some papers belonging to a Mr. or Mrs. Flegal. The owner can have the book by calling at this office.

The members of the Orpheus Cornet Band have reason to feel happy over the result of their Festival, given in Pie's Opera House last week. The receipts, during the five days, aggregated $545.21, and the expenses were $250, leaving a balance in favor of the boys of $295.21. We are glad that the Festival was a success.

I. O. O. F.—Special Meeting.—There will be a special meeting of Clearfield Lodge, No. 198, I. O. O. F., on the evening of Tuesday, March 18th, 1879. It is desired to have all the member of sister Lodges who may be in town at that time to meet with us. By order of Lodge. J. K. Botthorf, Sec'y.

Not a Wolf About.—There is no use in persons carrying seven-shooters and double-barrelled shot-guns when passing between Clearfield and Penfield. The Long hunters have tramped over all the territory between the two places, within the past two weeks, and are unable to produce one wolf scalp. "Jack" avers that it was the poorest hunting trip he ever engaged in.

Would Prefer to "Do Without It."—No man will endure pain if he can help it. The pain of neuralgia, rheumatism, lame back, sore-throat and kidney complaint can be quickly cured with Dr. Fenner's Golden Relief. His Cough Honey cures all cough. Price 25 cents. For sale by Hartswick & Irvin, druggists, Clearfield, Pa.

A Change.—The Altoona Evening Mirror was merged into "The Democratic Call," on the 2d instant, and now we have before us another regular Democratic organ in "Little Radical Blair." Mr. W. K. Buckingham assumes the editorial part, and Mr. W. S. Nicodemus the business management of the paper. We hope by their assistance Blair will be made solidly Democratic at the next election.

In about two weeks it will be lawful to catch trout. Have you examined your rod, reel, lines, flies, hooks, &c. We know of one man who threatens to make a raid on the "beauties" with the dawn of Tuesday, April 1st, 1879. But to the point. If not, go at once to Harder's Gun and Fishing Tackle store and get the first "pick" of his immense stock of Fishing Tackle that he has received. mar12-3t.

A Special Commission.—Joseph P. Taylor, of DuBois, is one of the new Justices elected for Sandy township at the recent election. There being no Justice within eight miles of DuBois, and no commissions taking effect until the 1st of May the friends of 'Squire Taylor prevailed on Gov. Hoyt to issue a special Commission to him, which he received from Recorder Morgan on Monday evening last, and is now ready to dispense justice in DuBois. We are not personally acquainted with 'Squire Taylor, but we notice by the returns in the Prothonotary's office, that he received a very large vote, and if he does not do "the fair thing" he will disappoint his many friends.

Lumber City Academy.—The Board of Directors of Lumber City Academy, met in Dyre & Coolbroth's office, on the 8th inst., and proceeded to re-organize, by electing the Rev. J. C. Greer temporary chairman. Members present: Rev. J. C. Greer, D. A. Fetzer, Jas. Hile, D. L. Ferguson and E. L. Coolbroth. Absent: F. C. Bell, J. C. Ferguson and D. W. Hoyt. F. C. Bell was elected President, D. L. Ferguson, Secretary, and E. L. Coolbroth, Treasurer. After arranging for advertising the school and other preliminaries the Board adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening, March 11th, 1879. D. L. Ferguson, Sec'y.
[The terms and rates of the institution will be found at length in our advertising columns.—Ed. Rep.]

Ho, for the West!—The season is here when the annual Western fever strikes some of our citizens. We advise those who contemplate a trip to the Southwest or the Northwest, to consult the advertisement of the Pan Handle route found in our "Special" local column, headed "Kansas and Texas." Read that advertisement, and if there is anything else the traveler wants to know, let him address either, or both, Mr. Storey or Mr. O'Brien. So many travelers are swindled by "dickering" with outside parties about the route they want to take and their tickets. These decoys are found at every prominent railroad depot, and the traveler should shun them as he would a robber; because that is just what will happen if he moves around with them. Always go to the ticket office for your ticket.

Unhappy Williamsport.—It seems as though our down-river friends were determined to always be unhappy. They are either overstocked with saw logs, or before the Courts for not paying the interest on their bonds. Now they seem to have a new difficulty on hand. They wanted the new Penitentiary down there, but they were fishered-ed out of it by the Huntingdonites. They now show symptoms of rebellion! The Bulletin says: "Thursday a petition headed by Judge Cummin and signed by two hundred residents of Williamsport, was presented in the Senate by Mr. Jackson, asking that Lycoming county be stricken from the Middle Penitentiary district and attached to the old district. It would be more convenient, as well as cheaper, for Lycoming county to send her convicts to Philadelphia, than to convey them by a long and circuitous route to Huntingdon; and the same may be said of Tioga, Bradford, Sullivan, Wyoming and several other counties, and we hope to hear of them asking that they may be stricken off also. We believe that the petition could not be entrusted to a better man than Senator Jackson, and that he will labor zealously to accomplish what his constituents ask. Let petitions roll in from every township, borough and hamlet in the district."

Daring and Partially Successful Attempt at Housebreaking.—On last Saturday night (March 1st,) or rather early on Sunday morning, some person unknown climbed upon the porch roof of Mr. T. Henderson's residence, in Woodward township, and after removing a pane of glass from one of the windows of the room occupied by Miss Mary Root, the school teacher of that district, drew away the fastenings from the inside, removed the sash and entered. Fortunately the lady was absent at the time. The miscreant, whoever he was, after upsetting the bed clothes, and ransacking things generally got possession of two valuable dresses, and after an unsuccessful attempt to open the lady's trunk, started down stairs, no doubt after more plunder. Falling over a chair, and fearing lest the noise might awaken the other occupants, he rushed for his entrance hole, and succeeded in making his escape with naught but the two dresses. Miss Root is an estimable young lady and universally esteemed by all who know her, and who join in congratulating her, for being fortunately absent during this dastardly and cowardly entrance into her private apartments. We are informed that at this writing no clue has been obtained to the guilty party, but we trust the matter will be thoroughly sifted.—Houtzdale News.

The voter has since made an affidavit that his ballot was intended for J. K. Turner. If there is any contest over the matter, it will be for the Court to decide who is Constable.

BENNET'S BRANCH ITEMS.

The great event of the week was the marriage, at Winterburn, of Mr. R. Weir Gibson, of Williamsport, to Miss Bell Baker, of the former place. During Mr. Gibson's stay with C. H. Coryell & Co., he gained many warm friends in this vicinity, and all will wish him the greatest amount of future happiness.

County Superintendent McQuown frightened the teachers of Huston this week, with his regular visit to the schools of the township. Judging from Mr. McQ.'s generally comfortable and happy appearance, his new official and domestic relations agree with him.

In consequence of the Curtin-Yocum contest, a number of legal gentlemen have honored the town with their presence lately, and poor fellows who happened (?) to vote before they were quite twenty-one, thinking a few days would make no difference, are considerably exercised over their peculiar situation. It is to the interest of persons going to Kansas or Texas to select one of the direct routes by which quick time is made, through cars run, and comfortable accommodations provided. Among these the "Pan-Handle Route" stands pre-eminent.

Following is time of Daily Express trains via Pan Handle Route: Leave Pittsburg 8:42 a. m., 1:47 p. m.; arrive at St. Louis 7:30 a. m., 9:00 p. m.; arrive at Kansas City 10:15 p. m., 10:12 a. m. Connections are made in Union Depots at Indianapolis, St. Louis and Kansas City for all points West and Southwest.

To accommodate families emigrating, arrangements have been perfected to run a Through Coach Tuesday of each week from Pittsburg to Kansas City, via "Pan Handle Route," with but one change, in Union Depot, St. Louis.
