PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 16, 1868.

There is really nothing that is new or important to be said about the markets in a general way. Stagnation still seems to be the order of the day, but we are in hopes that an improvement is near at hand, though it must be confessed that the indications at present are by no means encouraging. There is no speculative feeling manifested, and besides, money is tight, and those who speculate on borrowed capital have but little show at present, as there is a general antipathy against doing business of that character.

LARD OIL—No. 1 Winter strained is in steady demand, at $1,50.

GRAIN—There is no improvement to note in the Grain market, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. Wheat cannot be quoted accurately; there has been no sales for some days, and there seems to be no demand. Oats quiet; we continue to quote at 64 to 65, on wharf and track, and the usual advance for small lots in store. New Corn is dull with sales at 70 to 75. Old Corn is also dull but nominally unchanged. Rye is dull and nominal at $1,35 to $1,38. Barley is dull and irregular; prime Spring could be sold at $1,75 to $1,80, but there are no sellers, as yet, at these figures.

The Pearl Mill prices are for Extra Family in bbls, $9,00 and in sacks $9,60 per bbl; Double Extra Family in barrels $10,40, and in sacks $10,10 per barrel. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily with five feet seven inches in the channel, by the Monongahela marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant in the forenoon, but in the afternoon it clouded up, and in the evening, it was close and sultry with strong indications of rain.

The Julia No. 2 from Zanesville, and Mary Davage from St. Louis are the only arrivals we have to report.

The Messenger, for St. Louis, with about all she could take, and barge in tow, departed. The New State for Wheeling, and the Bayard for Parkersburg, cleared as usual.

The Arkansas, Capt. A. H. Shaw, with Mr. A. C. McConnell, in the office, is filling up steadily, and will soon take her departure for New Orleans.

The Leonidas, Capt. Ed. Evans, is now in turn for St. Louis, and will be the first boat out.

The Glasgow, Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr., is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, is announced to take her departure for New Orleans on Wednesday without fair.

The Tom Farrow, Barges, will commence loading for St. Louis on Wednesday. She lies down near the foot of Market street, where Capt. Chas. Mathews will give all necessary information.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular Wednesday packet for Parkersburg, leaving at noon.

The Messenger will leave Wheeling today, upon the arrival of the trains from Pittsburgh, for Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis.

—The Lorena, en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Cairo on Friday.

—The Antelope, with a tow of coal for St. Louis, passed Evansville on Friday.

—It is expected that Capt. Stockdale's mountain steamer Sallie will load at St. Louis for Pittsburgh.

—The Muscatine Journal, of the 9th, says: It is said that movements have been inaugurated for extending the White Collar line to New Orleans, the entire navigable length of the Mississippi. Three new boats, to be modeled after the Phil. Sheridan, have been ordered.

—A Louisville telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial, says: Advices have been received of another coalboat run from Pittsburgh. The last run was disastrous—33 barges and boats stranded and sunk, including 9 at Buffington. The work on the railroad bridge, at the falls, is still progressing on all the piers but one on the back bone, where they have, thus far, been unable to keep out the water, to lay the foundation. Boatmen are about to protest against the narrow span and low arch across the Indian Chute, contending that, if the present plans are carried out, the navigation of the falls will be effectually suspended.

—We clip the following from the Memphis Avalanche: The Lizzie Gill arrived here on Monday evening. Her negro crew, shipped at St. Louis for the trip to New Orleans, and back, "jumped her" as soon as she landed, after having been exceedingly abusive and offensive to the officers of the boat. Upon jumping ashore they scattered in all directions, some making their way up the landing, others down, while a third party ran up Madison street. They were pursued and headed, and with the energetic aid and through the instrumentality of Mr. Morrison, assistant wharfmaster, they were captured and taken in a body to the station house and presented on two charges "mutiny on board the Lizzie Gill" and "abusive language, calculated to provoke a breach of the peace." Capt. Simons, in the face of the riotous conduct of the mutineers, decided that he could not hold them, and they were according discharged.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, November 16.—The river is stationary with five and a half in the channel. The weather is cloudy and warm; thermometer falling.
