Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take wheat, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often inquired of in this way by letter from patrons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say yes. The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer us just as well as the cash. To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver us a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Heath, in Chest township, Horace Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas H. Forcey, in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw's, in Lawrence, or Brown & Sepler's, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may soon pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course. tf.

Advertisers and others will bear in mind that all articles intended for publication in this paper must be handed in, not later than Tuesday, at 9 A. M. Don't forget it!

DuBois has organized a Hook and Ladder Fire Company.

Both bands are practicing dirges, to be played on Decoration Day.

Richard Arthurs, Esq., of Brookville, is in town this week, attending Court.

The fragrant and beautiful wild honeysuckles are in bloom on the mountains.

Thomas H. Murray, Esq., will deliver an oration on Decoration Day at Lock Haven.

A great many of the Clearfield youngsters are now wrestling with the measles.

An official list of the names of the Census Enumerators for our county, will be found in this issue.

The growing crops give promise at present time of an abundant yield. Everywhere the crops look well.

One of the bark mills at the new tannery was damaged last Friday, by an iron key falling into it.

The next meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held at Harrisburg in the Spring of 1881.

A horse belonging to Leavy's livery stable died at Curwensville on Wednesday morning of last week.

Steel S. Crissman, of Philipsburg, will be book-keeper at the new tannery. He has already reported for duty.

Don't forget "Blind Charley's" concert, to be given in Pie's Opera House next Wednesday evening, June 2d.

The Reynoldsville Paper has recently been enlarged. Several inches having been added to its length and breadth.

Ex-Sheriff Powell, of this place, is now in Pittsburgh, laying in a new stock of hardware for his store on Second street.

The forest fires that have prevailed in different parts of the county, the past two weeks, were all extinguished by last week's rain.

A new schedule went into effect on the Low Grade Railroad on the 16th inst., but there is no change in the time of passenger trains.

J. B. McFadden, of the Osceola Rosville, and Geo. E. Jones, of Osceola, were in town on Thursday, attending the funeral of Joe W.

The passengers aboard the Pentield stage, on Saturday last, on their way to Penfield, captured a large bird, supposed to be a young grey eagle.

A collection was taken up at the services in the Clearfield M. E. Church for the Milton sufferers last Sunday evening, which amounted to $25.38.

"Comical" Conly, the humorist, assisted by Phil. Heath, the ventriloquist, gave two entertainments in Pie's Opera House last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Relief, in the shape of money, provisions and clothing, is being sent to the Miltonian sufferers from all sections of the country in abundance and heartily.

Miss Mary Mossop, while engaged at cleaning house, on Saturday last, was so fortunate as to fall and injure herself severely. She is able again to be about.

Jacob D. Snoke has received the contract for putting up the new brick residence of Thos. H. Murray, Esq., on Second street, adjoining Dr. Boyer's property.

Carpenters have been at work for a week past, making extensive repairs and remodeling the residence of G. L. Reed, on the corner of Market and Front streets.

The Ice Cream Festival, under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian congregation of this place, will be held on Thursday evening of this week, May 27th, at the residence of Mrs. J. B. McEnally. Everybody is cordially invited.

We would call the attention of farmers, and others interested, to the advertisement of F. M. Cardon & Bro., Clearfield, in this paper. They deal in all kinds of farming implements. They are agents for the celebrated Turnbull wagon and Champion Mower and Reaper. Call and see their stock, if you want a grain drill, hay rake, or anything of the kind.

Call and see T. A. Fleck & Co.'s new Lawn and Bunting.

"Since taking 'Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher' that old sore of mine is entirely cured." Sold by all druggists.

Alexander B. Mayer, brother of Judge Charles A. Mayer, died at his home in Lock Haven, on Sunday, May 16th, of consumption, aged 34 years.

Ernest Bock is the champion greenhouse man in this county. He keeps all kinds of flowers, plants, etc. Call and see his establishment on Front street.

The New York Circus exhibits at Curwensville on Saturday next, May 29th, at Clearfield on Monday, May 31st, and from here it goes to Philipsburg on Tuesday, June 1st.

Altoona is making preparations for a grand Fireman's Parade on the 5th of July. Some twenty or thirty Fire Companies are expected to be present and participate in the parade.

Colonel Alexander, of Clarion, is making his annual Summer visit to friends and relatives in Clearfield. He seems to be as hale and hearty as his nephews, although he is nearing three score and ten.

The delightful rains that visited our county, last week didn't arrive any too soon. The growing crops, and all nature generally, manifest the needed blessing by their refreshed and improved appearance.

The Harrisburg Patriot has commenced the issue of a Sunday edition. The Sunday Patriot will be sent by mail one year on receipt of $1.50. The daily edition, including the Sunday Patriot, $8 per annum.

The remains of Joseph F. Pie, son of ex-Sheriff, J. J. Pie, of Osceola, who died in Philadelphia, on the 17th inst., were brought to this place on the mail train and interred in the Catholic cemetery on last Thursday noon.

Rev. N. H. Miller, of Osceola, and Elder Lucien Bird, of Penfield, are attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, now in session at Madison, Wisconsin. They are delegates from the Huntingdon Presbytery.

A. D. McKinstry, Superintendent of the new tannery at this place, on Thursday last, moved his family into the residence owned and until recently occupied by D. W. Moore, on Second street, near the Presbyterian Church.

The DuBois Courier says that DuBois' new mill is already well under way. The foundation is nearly all prepared and a portion of the framing is done. It will be 60x150 feet in size. The box factory will be separate.

Court.—A three-weeks term of Court commenced on Monday last, with Judge Mayer presiding, assisted by Messrs. Ogden and Holt. As this is a week set apart for the trial of civil causes, the attendance is rather slim.

A fire broke out in Clinger & Co.'s planing mill at Milton, last Thursday, and caused the greatest excitement. It was extinguished before much damage was done. They were, no doubt, afraid that the town would be destroyed.

Mrs. Aaron Lower will make an ascension on the slack wire next Monday, May 31st, from the ground to the dome of the canvass of the New York Circus. The performances will take place at 1 o'clock P. M., and will be free to all.

A large eagle was seen in the vicinity of Nevling's and Lawhead's farm, in Lawrence township, on Saturday last. Efforts were made to capture it, but whether successful or not we did not learn. It would make a valuable addition to Dan Doherty's museum.

Rattlesnake Killed.—We learn that a rattlesnake, measuring three feet four inches in length, was killed by Mr. Francis Shirey on John L. Wilson's farm, in Bradford township, on last Friday, May 21st. Rather early in the season for such venomous reptiles, is it not?

County Commissioner Kyler has been laid up for several weeks at his residence, in Graham township, with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. He is in town this week attending to business as usual, although not entirely free from the painful and annoying disease.

The Summer schedule on the Pennsylvania Railroad went into effect on Monday morning last. There are important changes in the government of employes, but no material changes of interest to the patrons of the road. There is no change whatever in the local accommodation trains.

Heads of families and hotel keepers can aid the labors of the Enumerator of the Census, by making a list of all persons whose "usual place of abode" is in their house on the first day of June, that being the day fixed by law for the enumeration. Persons dying after that day are counted as alive, and children born after are not counted.

Prof. John P. Rowbotham, formerly instructor of the Clearfield Orpheus Cornet Band, arrived in town on the Monday noon train, and was met at the depot by the members of the band, in uniform, and escorted to the hotel. The Professor will remain with the boys until after the Band Festival, which commences next Monday a week, June 7th, and continue all week.

Brandy, Wine and Bitters.—Speer's P. J. Brandy, Port Grape Wine and Wine Bitters have an extensive and reliable demand. Physicians recommend them in preference to any other goods of the kind. Speer's Vineyards are at Passaic, New Jersey, and his wine was awarded the highest premium at the Centennial. For sale by E. W. Graham, druggist, Clearfield, Pa.

Why is Barosma the best known remedy for kidney and liver difficulty? Because it has cured chronic cases of twenty-five years standing, thought to be incurable.
Prepared at E. K. Thompson's laboratory, Titusville, Pa. For sale by all druggists in Clearfield, and Joseph Seyler & Son, Lutherburg, Pa. 21

Prof. Hamilton, proprietor of the New York Circus and Gold Band, is the same gentleman who traveled through this section of country, a few years ago with the celebrated and wonderfully trained bay horse, "Sir Henry." The horse in question is dead, and Prof Hamilton has had erected a neat and appropriate monument over the remains. "Sir Henry" was the instrumentality of amassing a considerable fortune for his owner.

The Borough Tax.—We learn that the Duplicate of Borough Taxes for 1880 amounts to the sum of $1,887.03, and that there is a balance of over $460 unpaid for 1879. Two thousand three hundred dollars should improve the streets very materially, or pay off some of our "blessing"—debt. We hope our "Borough Dads" will adopt the views of Oakes Ames, and other Congressmen, when they were purchasing Credit Mobilier stock: "Put our money where it will do the most good."

Decoration Day.—Let everybody resolve themselves into a committee to procure and deliver flowers to the Chairman of the Floral Committee, John I. Patterson, on Friday afternoon next, at the residence of Mrs. S. S. Liddell and S. J. Row, where evergreen will be furnished, and where the members of the Committee are requested to meet to prepare wreaths. Everybody should turn out in person on Saturday. Wm. M. McCullough, Esq., will deliver the Oration, and Smith V. Wilson, Esq., will read the beautiful poem of Will Carleton, "Over Them Over."

Sudden Death.—We regret to learn that John Potter, a resident of Brady township, for over forty-five years, and one of its best citizens, was found dead in his orchard on Wednesday last, in his 74th year. During the day he seemed as well as usual, and in the afternoon took a walk over his farm, and not seeing home in his usual time in the evening, a search of the neighborhood was instituted when he was found dead about 8 o'clock P. M. Justice Hamilton, of Lutherburg was informed of what had happened and at once summoned a Jury and held an Inquest on the body, and found that the deceased came to his death by appoplexy.

A Sad Accident.—The Reynoldsville Paper of Thursday says: "A sad and serious accident occurred to a lad named Beams, brother of Daniel Beams, at Stump Creek last Tuesday. He was hauling timber down the Kramer hill with four horses when the truck upset, breaking the pole of the truck and frightening the teams, which ran down the hill, dragging young Beams with them. At the foot both the boy and horses were precipitated into a gully, and Beams was wounded most frightfully in the abdomen, the intestines protruding through a laceration of the abdominal casing. The boy is about sixteen years of age. It was thought on the day of the accident that the wound would prove fatal, but it hasn't come to that yet."

A second large invoice of Millinery, just opened, at T. A. Fleck & Co.'s.

The best remedy for liver complaint is "Sellers' Liver Pills." Only 25 cents per box. Sold by all druggists.

Ladies call and look through our Millinery Department before buying elsewhere. Our prices are low. Respectfully,
T. A. Fleck & Co.

"What can I do to keep cool this warm weather?" You can get a linen duster, an alpaca coat, a white vest, straw hat, or an umbrella, at Hirlinger & Rook's. 21

See a woman on horseback in another column, riding near Speer's Vineyards, with a bunch of Grapes from which Speer's Port Grape Wine is made, that is so highly esteemed by the medical profession for the use of invalids, weakly, persons and the aged. Sold by E. W. Graham, Druggist, Clearfield, Pa. ly-16-'79-tf.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice, in Clearfield, for the week ending May 24th, 1880:
Charles Davenport, Mrs. Mary Dewitt, Morgan Lane, William Lose, John Merryman, Miss Ida Maron, Robert McCormick, Pride of the East Churn Manufacturing Company, Joseph Piechota, Mattie Stephens, Miss Sarah A. Wiser, Mrs. Anna Walk.

T. A. Fleck, of the firm of T. A. Fleck & Co., has just returned from New York, and Philadelphia, after purchasing a large stock of Summer goods, embracing the latest styles in Lawns, Buntings, Parasols, Sun Umbrellas, Fans, and a large new lot of Millinery. Among the latter, are some choice new styles. We invite our lady patrons to call and see for themselves. No trouble to show goods. Respectfully,
T. A. Fleck & Co.

J. K. Hancock, a farmer, of Lawrence township, was driving a team of spirited horses along Second street, last Thursday forenoon, and in the vicinity of Isaac Johnson's shop, he hit one of them slightly with the whip, when they gave a sudden jerk, causing the tongue to drop and the horses to run. They were caught, however, in the vicinity of the First National Bank, the only damage being done to the spring wagon was the breaking tongue. Mr. Hancock was thrown out, and received injuries about the head and hip.

Borough Collector.—We learn that the Town Council has appointed John I. Patterson, Collector of the Borough taxes for 1880. And have also assigned him the balance of the taxes still unpaid, for 1879. He will, in a few days, furnish each taxable with a card which will explain itself on the face thereof. Those who pay their taxes for 1880, within thirty days after such notice, will get a discount of five per cent. All neglecting this will be compelled to pay the face of the assessment. The delinquents for 1879 are requested to make immediate payment, in accordance with a resolution of the Council in this case.

Clearfield Coal Trade.—Statement of Coal and other freights sent over the Tyrone & Clearfield Division, Pennsylvania Railroad, for the week ending May 15th, 1880, and the same time last year:—

Blind Charley's Concert.—"Blind Charley" (Professor Johnson) the wonderful musical prodigy, will appear in a concert to be given in Pie's Opera House, on Wednesday evening, June 2d. He is a graduate of the Maryland Institute in Baltimore, and is a genius who surpasses the celebrated "Blind Tom." He not only performs on two instruments at one time, but plays two separate and distinct tunes with one hand, and also executes three melodies at one and the same time with perfect ease. He plays the "Fisher's Horn-pipe" and "Yankee Doodle" with one hand. Charley has a peculiar instrument that he calls an "organ" of his own invention, which is a rack with eight or nine horseshoes ranged thereon, on which he plays difficult pieces in good style. The prices of admission will be 25, 35 and 50 cents, and the entertainment is worthy the patronage of all.

Relief for Milton.—A meeting was held in this borough on Thursday evening last, to take steps to aid those who suffered in consequence of the recent disastrous conflagration at Milton, in Northumberland county. The meeting was organized by electing Jona. Boynton President, and A. W. Walters Secretary. On motion, a Committee, consisting of Geo. W. Rheem, Chairman, Capt. David McGaughey, Harry F. Bigler, Rev. Wm. H. Dill, Mrs. Letta, Mrs. Israel Test, Mrs. Walter Barrett, and Mrs. James Cooper, was appointed to canvass for money. The meeting adjourned.

On Monday evening last, the President called a meeting to hear the report and result of the effort of the Committee. Through the Chairman, they announced they had received $280, including the collection taken up at the M. E. Church. The amount will be forwarded to Milton, for general relief, and will not be confined to any sect or class. It was deemed advisable at first to divide the amount raised between Coudersport and Milton; but it is reported the latter place does not need assistance, and that there is no suffering.

Our Heroes.—Below is a list of deceased soldiers buried in Clearfield and vicinity:

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Curwensville, Pa., May 20th, 1880.

One of the pleasant occasions of this season was the wedding which took place to-day in our midst of Miss Cora Arnold, second daughter of Samuel Arnold, Esq., to R. D. Swoope, Esq., eldest son of the late U. S. District Attorney, H. Buehler Swoope. The parties are all of this place. Rev. George Leidy, of Clearfield, assisted by Rev. James Curns of our town, performed the ceremony. The ushers were Smith V. Wilson and A. Bowman Weaver. It was a large wedding—each of the parties having an extended connection. The presents were costly, many and beautiful. The bride was dressed elegantly and in exquisite taste. The present presented by the bridegroom was a handsome gold snore, set with pearl and diamonds. The happy couple left for the East on the afternoon train. They were beset at the train with old shoes filled with rice.

It was, take it all in all, an occasion which will be remembered with feelings of pleasure by all who participated in it. We wish the parties unclouded happiness, attended with all the joys of married life. Reporter.

WHAT PHYSICIANS THINK.

New York, December 21, 1871.

Dr. M. M. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y.,

Dear Sir:—I have no hesitation in saying that the efficacy of your Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic in relieving and curing the various chronic diseases you mention in connection with it, far surpasses anything I have ever met with or known, during a twenty years' extensive practice of medicine. It is successfully administered in so large a number of diseases because it operates by way of removing the causes of disease, hence they yield of necessity.

Yours truly, A. F. JENNINGS, M. D.
may-26-2t

Dr. Fenner's Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic may well be called "The conquering hero" of the times. It is the medical triumph of the age. Whoever has "the blues" should take it, for it regulates and restores the disordered system that gives rise to them. It always cures Biliousness and Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headaches, Fever and Ague, Spleen Enlargements, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Pimples, Blotches and all skin Eruptions and Blood Disorders; Swelled Limbs and Dropsy; Sleeplessness, Impaired Nerves and Nervous Debility; Restores flesh and strength when the system is running down or going into decline; cures Female Weakness and Chronic Rheumatism, and relieves Chronic Bronchitis, and all Lung and Throat difficulties. It does these things by striking at the root of disease and removing its causes.

Dr. Fenner's Improved Cough Honey will relieve any cough in one hour. Try a sample bottle at ten cents.

Dr. Fenner's Golden Relief cures any pain, as Tooth-ache, Neuralgia, Colic or Headache in five to thirty minutes, and readily relieves Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Diarrhœa, etc.

Dr. Fenner's St. Vitus Dance Specific. One bottle always cures.
