HOME AFFAIRS.

CABINET MAKING.—Mr. Owen Lautbach, whose extensive Cabinet and Chair Warerooms, will be found in Market street, a few doors north of the Railroad is now manufacturing on hand the largest assortment of Parlor and general House-keeping Furniture, and Chairs of all kinds, that probably ever was presented to the people of this county. He informs us that he is determined to sell CHEAP, and will not be outdone either in price, quality or beauty of his work.—Step in and examine it. See his advertisement.

Mr. John Brooks has put up a fine Billiard Table in his Restaurant under Funck's building. The lovers of the game are invited in. Also, all kinds of delicacies and refreshments always on hand, viz:—Oysters, Fish, Tripe, Ale, Lager, Light's beer, and everything usually kept in a first class Restaurant.

Reizenstein Brothers will sell their fine borough property at public sale, on the 10th of December. This property would suit a farmer who wishes to quit farming and move into town, as it is situated on the principal street, the corner of an alley well accessible from all directions.

Messrs. Eckerts have just made another addition to their already fine stock of Fall and Winter Goods, to an examination of which the public is invited.

Dr. Hooker's Dental office will be closed from the 17th to the 25th of this month, as he will be absent from Lebanon.

Mr. Meyers' Singing School will commence on Saturday night in the Town Hall.

TO THE PUBLIC.—We have made extensive additions during the past week to our Job Printing Office, and are now prepared to turn out work equal to that of any printing office in the interior of Pennsylvania. For Bills, from a large Poster down to a slip bill; Blanks of every kind; Cards, Circulars, Pamphlets, and in fact any kind of printing that may be desired, we can now execute with a facility and neatness not to be excelled.

FRUIT TREES IN THE VICINITY OF BARN-YARDS.—It will be well, says the Saratoga Farmer, if farmers would surround their barn-yards and pig-pens with fruit trees. Such trees bear abundantly, and heavy crops of plums can often be obtained in such places, as the stung fruit is sure to be picked up and devoured as soon as it falls, thus preventing the increase of the curculio. Apples, pears, cherries, and all other fruit, do well for the same reason, and they are also provided with a plentiful amount of liquid manure from the drainage of the barn-yard.

WE have just purchased a large variety of Wood Type, which will enable us to execute Bill Printing in superior style and attractiveness.

A "WIDE-AWAKE" FAST ASLEEP—It is said that on the day following the Governor's election a prominent school teacher in one of the towns of the county, who was also a leading "Wide-Awake," fell asleep in school during recitation hours. The pupils deeming this a fine opportunity to play some pranks, left the schoolroom and quietly closed the shutters, leaving the "Wide-Awake" fast asleep in the dark, alone in his glory, a quiet master of a quiet school. It is not known how long he would have remained enjoying his nap, since he was awakened by a neighbor, after having had a comfortable snooze.

WE have unusual facilities and material for executing all kinds of Blank and Circular Printing.

THE ELECTION IN LEBANON COUNTY.—Below we republish our table of the vote polled at the election in this county last week. As it is unnecessary to give the details, we state that we have taken the highest vote polled for each of the tickets. The variations will be seen in the aggregate vote for each candidate published below. The straight out Douglas ticket received 3 votes in North Lebanon township; 1 in Swatara, and 2 in Millcreek.

SINKING SPRINGS INSURANCE COMPANY.—On Monday, the 5th instant, the members of the "Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Sinking Springs," held their annual meeting and election for a Board of Managers, to serve the ensuing year, at Housom's Hotel, Reading. Solomon Rothermel, William Pancock, Aaron Mull, John Van Reed, John Kemp, Isaac H. Mohr, George Whitner, Jas. C. Livengood, Andrew Kurr, and John Reber, of Berks county; John B. Hiester and C. O. Molly, of Lebanon, and Edward Kern, of Lehigh, were chosen.

By the statement of the affairs of the Company, its continuing stability is shown to be still increasing, being now over twelve millions of dollars, and the cost per thousand insured, eighty cents.

Mr. Robert Evans, of Cornwall, took his seat at the Board of County Commissioners on Monday of last week, in place of Michael Bolinger, who retired. The Board now consists of Messrs. David Hollinger, President, Simon Bale, and Robert Evans. Cyrus Shirk, Clerk.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN MYERSTOWN.—The Myerstown opposition, in imitation of our Jonestown friends, have got up tremendous excitement. The Myerstown excitement, however, is not spiritual, but something just as uncertain, namely, political. It relates to the Post Office. There are already three out for the Office, and our informant holds up his hands in horror at the number intending to come out. The track thus far is, and has been since the Governor's election, kept clear by Messrs. Moses Bowman, D. Coover, and Wm. Wollison, but they have hard work, as about a dozen others, like a parcel of famished wolves, are ready to pounce upon the prey, should opportunity offer. Every man, no matter whether from this, Berks, or any other county or State, is pounced upon the moment he appears in the streets, and if he escapes whole in body and clothing is glad to yield his name to all and any petition that may be poked at him. Even minors and females are bespoiled of their names for the petitions. We condole with our friends of Jackson for the misery they suffer in this terrible state of affairs, but can give them no hopes of a speedy relief, as it will in all probability continue until the 4th of March next, unless "Lincoln and Hamlin" should die, or, what is just as probable, turn Democrats! We purpose sending a special correspondent to the scene of the excitement to keep us and the New York dailies posted in this terrible emergency.

P. S.—One of the above applicants has already a "couple of thousands" of names to his petition, which has somewhat moderated the protensions of his opponents. It is supposed by some, however, that they are only "laying-low," and intend springing something terrible upon their competitor, which will knock him into the middle of next week at least.

Our friends of Heidleberg township are entitled to a feather in the cap, as their district is the only one in the county in which the Democratic vote of the Presidential Election was increased on that of the October vote, and that of the opposition reduced.

South Lebanon and North Cornwall remained steadfast as Democratic districts, and will be the nucleus for the others to rally around in the approaching bright days for the old Democracy.

Orders for Tuning Pianos may be left at H. H. Roedel's Book Store. Mr. Ernest Waigle, a very competent Tuner, will be here in the course of a week or ten days.

George Spayd, a native of Berks county, and well known in this county in 1856, as a talented stump speaker, died in Reading, on Wednesday last, after a long illness. Intemperance was his bane, and, we presume, his destruction.

Thousands of dollars are annually sent from Lebanon county to the east for various articles that might just as well be manufactured in our midst, and which would require a large resident population and add largely to the wealth of our town. Ready-made Clothing, Boots, shoes, hats, and caps, are some of these articles, and for the production of which no tariff—no protection is needed—but simply to keep our money at home, with which to form the working capital.—Let our capitalists think of this hint.

ITEMS.

BANK DIVIDENDS.—The Lebanon Valley Bank has declared a dividend of three per cent. on the profits of the last six months. We learn that the Bank has now discharged all the expenses incident to commencing an institution of this kind, and have something left for the contingent fund. This is doing well, and must be satisfactory to the stock holders.

The Lebanon Bank has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the last six months.

Sheriff Hauck, with his family, has taken possession of his new quarters in the remodeled prison. The department intended for the Sheriff's residence is now quite comfortable.

GREAT FATALITY.—Within the last few months six members of the family of Mr. Beiver, of East Hanover, Lebanon county, have died, including Mr. Beiver and his wife. The father and one son died of consumption; the others of typhoid fever.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court was in session in this borough, last week, until Thursday. The proceedings were as follows:—

Com. vs. B. F. Hall. The defendant is charged with attempting to pass a forged check on the Lebanon Bank. Postponed to January term.

Com. vs. Chief Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Lebanon. Not repairing streets. Not guilty and county to pay costs. [The defendants on two other cases plead guilty.

Com. vs. Supervisors of Bethel twp.—Not repairing road. Not guilty and county to pay the costs.

Com. vs. John Michael—Larceny of a pair of pants from the store of R. Bruce & Co. Not guilty.

Com. vs. Benjamin Howard, John Keller and David Leadom—Malicious Mischief, in destroying trees, &c., on property of Martin Early.—Guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 each, cost, and be imprisoned fifteen days.

Com. vs. Supervisors of Cornwall twp.—Not repairing roads. Guilty, and sentenced to a fine of $1 each, and the costs of prosecution.

Mr. Dan'l Moulfair acted as foreman of the Grand Jury.

Court met again on Monday of this week.

Elizabeth Woods was divorced by the Court, last week, from Sylvester Woods, and Susanna Fehler from Thomas Fehler.

The Court last week ordered the opening of a road in Cornwall twp., from the Plank Road to the road leading to Shaefferstown, in South Lebanon twp., near Rudolph Shank's tenant house.

HAVE YOU A COUGH, Cold, pain in the Chest, or Bronchitis? In fact have you the premonitory symptoms of the insatiate archer, Consumption? Know that relief is at hand in Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

There's a vile counterfeit of this Balsam, therefore be sure and buy only that prepared by S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston, which has the written signature of I. BUTTS on the outside wrapper.

THE SUNNY SOUTH; OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME.—A very entertaining work from the publishing house of G. G. Evans, Philadelphia.—The work consists of a series of sprightly and entertaining letters, written by a Northern lady, while governess in a family in Tennessee. They give animated and well portrayed scenes of plantation life familiar to every Southerner. A more pleasing book of its kind we have never read.—Its scenes are warmly colored, but not beyond the truth, and its style has all the advantages of epistolary writings. It passed under the able editorial pen of the Rev. Dr. Ingraham, of Holly Springs, Miss., which is a guarantee of its possessing all the qualities of a highly interesting work. We very warmly commend it to our readers.

A NEW BOOK BY THE AUTHOR OF THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID. G. G. Evans, Publisher and Gift Bookseller, No. 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has just issued from his prolific press, "The Throne of David, from the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem, to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd, Poet, Warrior, King and Prophet, Ancestor and Type of Jesus. In a series of letters addressed by an Assyrian Ambassador, resident at the Court of Jerusalem, to his Lord and King on the Throne of Nineveh; wherein the Glory of Assyria, as well as the Magnificence of Judea, is presented to the reader as by an eye witness," by the Rev. J. H. Ingraham, LL. D., author of "The Prince of the House of David," and "The Pillar of Fire."—"The author's plan, in illustration of the history of the Hebrew people, embraces three books,—The fires in order of time, though it was second in order of publication, is "The Pillar of Fire, or Israel in Bondage." The central figure of this book is Moses. It takes up the Hebraic history at the time of the sale of Joseph into Egypt, and closes it with the promulgation of the Two Tables of the Divine Law from Sinai.—The present work, "The Throne of David," is an attempt to illustrate, after the same plan, the Grandeur of Hebraic history, when the "People of God" had attained, under the reigns of David and Solomon, the height of their power and glory as a nation. The central figure of this work is David, Prophet, Priest, and King, and type of HIM, who is the last Prince of His house, transferred the Throne of David from earth to heaven—from Jerusalem below to Jerusalem above. It presents David as a shepherd, and a poet; in his friendship with Jonathan; in his victory with the Philistines; in the splendor of his regal magnificence; in his flight from Prince Absalom; and in all the scenes of his later life. Absalom is his rebellion, and Solomon in his kingly glory, are leading features of the work. The aim of the writer is to invest with popular interest one of the most interesting periods of Hebrew history distinguished by the contemporaneous existence of four of the most wonderful men of any age, viz: David, Saul, Samuel the Prophet, and Solomon, the greatest and wisest of men.—His aim in these books is to draw the attention of those who seldom open the Bible, to that sacred volume, by unfolding to them the beauty, riches, eloquence, and grandeur of the Holy Scriptures. He is told that the two preceding works have contributed, hitherto, largely to this result, and numerous letters in his possession from grateful writers bear testimony to the good which those books have done in directing attention to the Bible, the inexhaustible Fountain from which they were drawn."

Special Notices.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

In the whole history of Medical Discoveries no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the THROAT, LUNGS, and CHEST—of COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, INFLUENZA, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, or of CONSUMPTION itself, as this far-famed, long-tried, and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler, Well known and much respected among the German population of this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:

HANOVER, PA., Feb. 16, 1859.

MESSRS. SETH W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON,—

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam; and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it.—I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is good cause for the spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry to be put through out the country.

JACOB SECHLER.

Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" and the printed one of the Proprietors on the outer wrapper; all others are vile and worthless.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Joseph L. Lomberger and Dr. George Ross, Lebanon; Joseph S. Lanser, Shiefferstown; Mr. H. Getel, Myerstown; Samuel Weaber, Fredericksburg; J. Brunner, Jonestown; Early & Bishop, Annville; Thomas A. Harper, R. Hanover; Martin Early, Palmyra; Bowman & Son, Campbelltown; and by dealers everywhere. Oct. 24, 1860—1m.

THE CITY AND THE WATERING PLACE.—The season at the watering places is rapidly drawing to a close, and ladies and gentlemen with well-bronzed faces will soon be seen on the promenade, or preparing for a vigorous prosecution of the fall trade.—Gentlemen who have been doing the Falls, the Capes, or the Springs, will come home with renewed health, but with damaged apparel, and they will consult their own comfort and convenience by procuring for themselves new outfits at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of ROCKHILL & WILSON, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

PERSONS afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble or expense, to procure DR. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, a remedy beneficient effects upon the system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing; snatching them, as it were, from the mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere.

THE MIGHTY HEADER.—Let not disease, with its fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and unhappiness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific form of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, the stomach and the vital organs. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it.—Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease, in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun, with its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as a mist, then growing stronger, casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone—so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. Dr. Geo. Ross and D. S. Raber, Lebanon.

BLOOD FOOD.—Attention is called to this most remarkable and scientific preparation, advertised in another column. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is a certain remedy for all the diseases specified, and especially those of a chronic nature,—of long standing—of weeks, months, and years. Sufferers, try it!

Messrs. Church & Dupont, of New-York, are the sole agents for it, also proprietors of the world-renowned Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, an article which every Mother should have in her medicine closet in case of need; and containing, as it does, no paregoric or opiate of any kind, it can be relied upon with the utmost confidence, and will be found an invaluable specific in all cases of Infantile Complaints.—Ohio State Journal, Columbus. ☞ See adv. For sale by Dr. GEO. ROSS, opposite the Court House, Lebanon, and T. W. DYOTT & SONS, Philadelphia.

☞ Free Trade seems now to be in favor with Napoleon III. To all in need of a good and beautiful WIG, on reasonable terms, we would say from experience call on GEORGE THURGALAND, 29 South 6th st., Philadelphia, when you can be suited in style and manner disapproved. Also procure a bottle of his celebrated HAIR DYE for beautifying the hair, &c. feb. 22, 1860—1y.

The Philadelphia Market.

SATURDAY, P. M., Nov. 10, 1860.—The Breadstuffs market, notwithstanding the recent encouraging accounts from abroad, continues very dull, and the tendency of prices was in favor of buyers. There is no shipping demand for Flour, and a few hundred barrels sold for home consumptions at $5 50@6 25 for common superfine and good extra, and $6 37½@6 75 for fancy.

Rye Flour moves off slowly and sells at $4 25.

Pennsylvania Corn Meal is held at $3 50.

There is less demand for Wheat and prices are rather weak. Sales of 2@3,000 bushels at $1 30@1 32 for Pennsylvania and Western red; $1 25@1 27 for Southern; and $1 40@1 55 for white, including choice Kentucky at our highest figure. Nothing doing in Rye. Corn is dull and prices hardly maintained. Sales of 1700 bushels prime Southern yellow at 71 cents afloat. Oats are dull at 54 cents for State and 33 cents for Delaware.—Barley is very quiet. A sale of 500 bushels Barley Malt at 97½.

CATTLE MARKET.—The receipts of Beef Cattle show a considerable falling off this week, reaching only 1874 head at Phillips' yards.—Prices ruled without any quotable change, but the market generally was dull. The sales were principally at $6 to $8½ the 100 lbs., according to quality, with a few extra cattle at $8¾ and $9. Of Cows and Calves, about 110 were disposed of at from $25 to $45 each, as to condition, which is a decline. Hogs are also dull, but the receipts, some 3500 head, were nearly all disposed of at $7 50@8 50 the 100 lbs. net. Included in the above are 2000 at Imhoff's, and 1283 at the Avenue drove yard. About 6300 Sheep were offered and sold at prices within the range of 7½@8½c ⅌ lb. net, which is a slight falling off from the rates of last week.
