The Pittsburgh Gazette.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished to the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $3 per annum; 3 mos., $1.

Whisky had ten representatives in the Allegheny lock up yesterday morning.

Completed.—It is expected that the new freight house of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, at Cleveland, will be ready for use next week.

Officer Alf. Gabby, of the Allegheny police force, while riding a velocipede Saturday morning, accidentally ran into a lamp post and sprained his ankle badly.

Cherry Alley.—Nora Welsman was charged before the Mayor, Saturday, on oath of Elizabeth Plummer, with keeping a bawdy house. A warrant was issued.

Y. M. C. A.—The annual election for Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the rooms of the Association, 23 Fifth avenue, Monday, Nov. 1, 1869.

Belligerent.—William Olt complained to Alderman Taylor, Saturday morning, that Thomas Cornelius had struck him in the face with his fist. The police are looking for Thomas.

Abandonment.—Saturday morning Mary Miller made information before Alderman Taylor, charging her husband, Thomas Miller, with abandonment. Warrant issued.

Released.—Catharine Buseman, who was some time since committed to jail in default of bail on a charge of keeping a bawdy house, was released on Saturday, having procured the required bail.

Arm Broken.—Willie Johnston, residing on Tunnel street, fell through the trestle work of the Connellsville Railroad, near the gas works, on Saturday morning, and broke his right arm between the wrist and elbow.

Watched.—Alderman Neeper Saturday issued a warrant for the arrest of Thomas Dowling, on an information for larceny of a ballot, preferred by Adam Showers, who alleges he loaned him a watch which he persistently refuses to return.

Robbery.—Saturday night a carpenter shop on Robinson street, Allegheny, was broken into and several chisels and other tools, suitable for burglarizing, carried off. Nothing else has been missed, the prowling thief in his nefarious operations elsewhere. No clue.

The new addition to the jail was occupied for the first time by the prisoners on Friday. It is quite an agreeable change from the old quarters. The work of remodeling is progressing vigorously and the old building begins to assume a more modernized appearance.

Mayor's Morning Court.—There were twenty-nine unfortunate victims before Mayor Kirkpatrick yesterday morning, twenty-one for drunkenness and eight for disorderly conduct. Ten paid the required fines and costs, one was discharged, and the remaining eighteen were committed to jail.

Personal.—The Philadelphia Post has the following personal item:—Rev Alexander Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, is in this city. Mr. Clark, who was formerly associate pastor with the late Rev. Thos. H. Stockton, at Eleventh and Wood streets, has many friends in this city.

Appealed.—A hearing was had on Saturday in the case of Kinney Koff, Salt Inspector, against Wm. Haslage, grocer, for refusing to allow him to inspect a quantity of salt, on the ground that it was imported and did not come under the act. Alderman Thomas gave judgment for the penalty, $50, against the defendant, after consultation with the City Solicitor. The defendant, however, appealed and gave bail for Court.

Grand Demonstration.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this county, will have a grand regalia parade on the 18th inst., Thanksgiving day, on which occasion the corner stone of the new Odd Fellows Hall, in Birmingham, will be laid. The officers of the Grand Lodge of the State will be present, and in addition to the lodges in this county a number of lodges from a distance are expected to participate in the ceremonies.

Home Again.—Our well known fellow citizen, Dr. George H. Keyser, after an extended professional visit to the principal cities of the east, has returned home, and will be found as usual at his office. He made many valuable and practical observations regarding medical science, having visited the principal institutions for the treatment of disease, in view of adopting in his own practice any improvements introduced. We are glad to extend him welcome.

7-40 Gold Bonds—A Rare Chance for Profitable Investment.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. W. Bailey, Lang & Co., offering a limited amount of 7-40 Gold Bonds issued by the Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad Company, and for the sale of which Messrs. S. McClean & Co., No. 45 Fourth Avenue, are the agents in this city. A safer and better investment of capital could not well be made, and we doubt not that our men of means will take a considerable portion of the loan.

The Liquor Dealers.

A meeting of the Committee on Organization of the liquor dealers was held Saturday afternoon, and the following resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That each and every dealer will contribute towards defraying the expenses of sending two delegates to the Chicago Convention on the 24th of November, to represent the interests of the trade in this city.

Resolved, That a general meeting of all the liquor dealers in this vicinity be held on November 15th to elect and instruct delegates.

Samuel Gordon's Will.

The will of Samuel Gordon, Esq., deceased, who was one of the leading merchants of Allegheny city, has been admitted to probate. After making liberal provision for the widow and children, the following bequests are made to charitable and religious institutions:

To Passavants Hospital, $1,000. To the Second United Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Clark's) Allegheny, $5,000. To Rev. J. Witherspoon, in trust, $3,000, to be appropriated for the erection of a United Presbyterian Church in the Third ward, Allegheny. To the Home of the Friendless $500. A bequest of $950 is made to the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of Rev. John Rogers, D. D., deceased, who for many years was pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny. A provision is inserted in the will to the effect that if any difficulty should arise so as to render the bequests void the amounts are to revert to his wife, who will see that his wishes are carried into effect.

Complimentary Supper to Mark Twain.

Mr. S. T. Clements, better known as "Mark Twain," the greatest of American humorists, arrived in the city on Saturday and put up at the Monongahela House. On Saturday evening the gentlemen of the lecture committee of the Mercantile Library Association, under whose auspices he is to lecture to-night at the Academy, tendered him a banquet at McGinley's elegant dining hall, on Wood street. There were present a large number of representatives of the city press and members of the Library Association. After partaking of a splendid supper the remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation. Mr. Clements is very entertaining and sociable. He is funny in everything he says and yet his drollery is natural, not forced or affected. We hope to see the Academy crowded to-night with our appreciative people, as a rich fund of humor is in store for those who may attend.

On behalf of the press we feel it is due to return thanks to the gentlemen of the Library Association for the marked and liberal hospitality extended a brother journalist who is so eminently worthy proper regard and appreciation in intellectual circles.

Serious Accident.—Horse Killed and Man Injured.

An accident of a serious nature, and which will, in all probability, be attended with more serious consequences to some individual, occurred Saturday evening on Liberty street, near the Grain Elevator. Mr. Jacob Metz, formerly a member of the police force, and a friend, whose name we did not learn, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. Fitzsimmons, livery stable keeper on Irwin street, Saturday evening, to take a drive, and about half-past six o'clock, while driving along Liberty street at the place mentioned, the horse ran into the excavation for the Canal street sewer, which crosses Liberty, from Canal to Washington street. The horse's neck was broken, killing him instantly, and Mr. Metz was thrown out of the buggy into the excavation and had three of his ribs broken by the fall. His companion escaped uninjured, but the buggy was completely demolished. It is alleged that the hands working at the excavation had quit work at six o'clock in the evening and left the excavation without placing proper barricades or guards at the street crossings to prevent the occurrence of such accidents, and if such be the case, the contractor, Mr. William Dean, will probably have a bill of damages to pay. The horse and wagon or buggy, we are informed, were valued at six hundred dollars, and the injuries sustained by Mr. Metz, would entitle him to recover a much larger sum.

The carelessness of contractors under circumstances of this kind has frequently been complained of and condemned through the daily press, but the criticisms have been unheeded, and, we presume, will be until some one is required to pay heavy damages as the result of their carelessness which doubtless would have the desired result in that particular case at least, and might serve as a warning to others.

S. F. Von Bonhorst, Esq.,

Secretary and Treasurer of the Safe Deposit Company, has sent us a neatly framed and beautiful photographic view of the substantial and ornate stone edifice, recently erected and occupied by the Company, on Fourth avenue. The picture is an artistic success, giving a correct idea only of the external design of the building. The interior economy, however, is where the genius of the architect is best displayed. The great burglar and fire-proof steel vault, with its thousands of separate receptacles, each one a special contrivance to keep safe the money and valuable papers of the person who, for a trifling annual rent, secures the exclusive use of it. Persons and firms who own valuable title papers, articles of agreement, or of co-partnership, notes, bonds, money, jewelry, &c., should inspect the interior arrangements of this public Safe Depository, and see for themselves how perfect and sufficiently, how impervious to fire, and to all the arts of the burglar, the great vault and all its compartments have been made. Such a visit can scarcely fail to determine the visitor to avail himself at once of the advantages here provided. The case will be kept open for a time, everything is absolutely safe. At your store, counting room or dwelling, there is constant peril of fire and robbery.

The Safe Deposit Company is a new institution in Pittsburgh, made necessary by the great accumulation of wealth among the people. The present Company comprises in its officers and directors some of our citizens eminent for their wealth, integrity and prudence, thus offering a guarantee of an honest and wise management. We know of no better service we can do our readers than to persuade them to agree with us in our high assertion of the great utility of the Safe Deposit Company, and not to wait until the horse be stolen and then regret that the stable had not been locked.

Alleged Homicide.

Saturday morning Henry Canby, of Allegheny, was arrested on a warrant issued by the Mayor on an information made by Andrew Henderson, charging Canby with the murder of Alexander Best, whose body was found in the Allegheny river Friday evening, on account of which was published in the GAZETTE of Saturday. The coroner's jury, it will be remembered, returned a verdict of "accidental drowning," but since the inquest certain facts have transpired which lead the friends of the deceased to believe that he came to his death by violence at the hands of Canby, and think the body was afterwards thrown into the river to conceal the crime. It is alleged that Canby and Best were drinking together on Thursday evening, and that they quarreled at the Valley Hotel. The difficulty was settled, however, and they left the the house together to go home. Witnesses officers Steam and Cuppis are arrested Canby, it is alleged that he made conflicting statements relative to where and when he had met Best previous to his death. He will have a hearing at ten o'clock this morning, when we presume the facts will fully transpire, and we prefer to wait the result of the hearing before making further comments, or stating any more of the rumors that are in circulation relative to the matter, which if untrue would work injury to the accused.

The body of Best, which was removed to Steubenville for burial, has not yet been interred, and a post mortem examination will be held upon it to ascertain whether there is any ground for the suspicions that have been aroused relative to the matter.

A Brutal Mother.

Coroner Clawson was called upon Saturday to hold an inquest on the body of a child four month old, the son of Patrick Howley. It appeared from the testimony that the father of the child has been absent from home for some months, but continued during that time to remit money to the mother who is an intemperate creature, and instead of taking proper care of her children expended the money for whiskey.

Dr. James Korr gave it as his opinion that the death of the child was caused from a want of proper care and attention on the part of its mother.

Mrs. Ann Begler, sworn—Have lived eight months in the second story of the house where the parents of the child reside: about eight o'clock this (Saturday) morning, the mother told me the child had died during the night; the mother has been drunk for several days; her husband has been away, and had given her money which she spent for whiskey; she paid no attention to the child; the child was born on the 5th of July last.

Bartholemew Kimpler, sworn—Live next door to the parents of the child; the mother does not take any care of her children; she has not been sober the past two weeks; on Friday night she was singing a drunken song, while her children were crying around her.

The following verdict was returned: That the deceased, Michael Howley, came to his death on the night of the 19th of October, 1869, in East Birmingham, from want of care and wilful neglect on the part of the mother, Sarah Howley.

The Aquatic Fiasco.

Henry Coulter published a card in yesterday's Leader in which he endeavored to explain how it happened that there was no boat race between himself and McKill. Of course his statement of the case bears probably on his own part of the fiasco and lays most, if not all, of the blame to the charge of the Cold Harbor crammer. He concludes his card as follows: "In this connection I will also state that the reports current for the last few days, and referred to in the daily papers, that the race was not to be a bona fide one, were entirely unfounded. The matter of selling a race was never broached to me, and I have more pride in myself than to stoop so low as ever to make, or even listen to such a proposition. This explanation is hardly necessary to my friends, but to convince those in doubt on the subject I make this statement, which I am ready to back with my oath.

In conclusion I will state that noting in the daily papers that Meikle's backer offered to back him (Meikle) for a race on the Hudson, for from one thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars a side, I will row Mr. Mckell, on the Hudson river, a five mile race, for from one to two thousand dollars a side, with the same articles of agreement upon which Walter Brown and I rowed."

New Advertising Agency.

Dr. I. G. Hubbs, of New York City, who has so long been identified with the Advertising Agency of Pessiee & Co., has established himself in the same line of business at No. 5 Beekman street. Few gentlemen in the country more thoroughly understand the science of advertising than Dr. Hubbs, and none have had larger experience and more general acquaintance with the press of the country. We commend him to our friends who may have business to transact through an advertising agency, as a fair dealing, honorable and correct gentleman, in whom they can repose the fullest amount of confidence.

The Weed Sewing Machine has not presented its claims prominently before the public for a few days, owing to the confusion resulting from a change of management. But having recovered from this temporary check, and having perfected arrangements for extending its sphere of usefulness, it begs to claim the largest share of public favor as its right, and asks the people for a substantial verdict in its behalf, to be given at 116 Market street, where the closest attention will be given to the wants of those favoring us with a call.

Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams closed a highly successful engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening. The audiences drawn out each of the several appearances were very large and select. To-night Miss Lydia Leffingwell, a prince of genuine burlesque, commences a week's engagement. He will appear as Clorinda—the gushing, voluptuous Clorinda, in the extravaganza of "Cinderella." Mrs Leffingwell, Miss Belle Hewitt and Millie Sackett appear with him in the cast.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—At the "Old Drury," this week, splendid special attractions will be offered. To night Miss Rita Percy will appear in her unsupperable classical representation of Ariel drama "George R. Edason, an actor of note, will appear in a favorite part, and Miss Ada Wray, the accomplished song and dance and banjoist, will contribute her share to the bill.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—"Mark Twain," the humorous American writer, will lecture to-night under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association. The seats are not reserved, so that those who desire good places, should be promptly on hand when the doors are thrown open. It is needless to speak of Mark Twain's claims on the people, as his name in these parts as well as throughout the entire country is held as synonomous with genuine wit and humor. We anticipate to-night one of the largest audiences ever assembled at the Academy.

ST. BRIDGET'S FAIR.—The Fair and Festival for the benefit of St. Bridget's Church, now being held in the church on Bedford avenue, is proving quite a success in point of attendance and attraction. It will be open every evening during the week.

MASONIC HALL.—Signor Blitz closed on Saturday at Masonic Hall, after a very profitable season. He is justly popular with our people, who have always a willing welcome to extend him.

Coroner's Business.

Coroner Clawson held eighteen inquests during the month of October, as follows:

Thos. Kennedy, accidentally drowned in the Ohio river at Saw Mill Run; Eddie Lynn, a little boy accidentally shot and killed by a pistol in the hands of his brother, on Penn street; Catharine Black, death from dropsy caused by intemperance; Joseph Thompson, suicide by shooting, at Birmingham; Rudolph Heskenmiller, killed by being struck with a bucket which fell upon him from the top of a well in Allegheny city; Jackson Keno, a little boy, accidentally killed in the yard of the Pan Handle Railroad; Thomas Laughran, stabbed by Nicholas Hoffman; Alex. Beck, found drowned in the Allegheny river; Jno. Spotzel, a vagrant, death in the Birmingham lock-up from heart disease; an infant of Lizzie Lee, found dead on the farm of Nicholas Snyder, in Shaler township; Samuel Bennett, death from heart disease in the Fifteenth ward; Mrs. Annie Moore and the child Annie Johnson, run over and killed by a brewer's wagon on Fifth avenue; John Flinn, killed by being struck by an engine of the Fort Wayne Railroad at Manchester; John Formoss, killed by falling from the roof of the Diamond House, No. 23 Diamond, Allegheny; Mrs. Gelasman, killed by falling down a flight of stairs in Allegheny; Thos. Thomas, death from congestion of the brain at Birmingham; an infant son of Patrick Howley, death from exposure at East Birmingham. Total 18.

The Purest and sweetest Cod Liver Oil in the world, manufactured from fresh, healthy livers, upon the sea shore; it is perfectly pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it can take none other. Ask for "Hazard and Caswell's Cod Liver Oil," manufactured by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. Sold by all druggists.

The Weed Sewing Machine.—The agency of this great triumph of mechanical ingenuity has been assumed by Messrs. John Biggert & Son, who will give it their personal attention, and parties having business dealings with them will find them polite, attentive and accommodating.

Real Estate.—See advertisement of McClung & Rainbow, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, 195, 197 and 199 Centre avenue. tf.

A REMONSTRANCE.

From the Colored Citizens of Pittsburgh to the Central Board of Education.

GENTLEMEN:—At a large meeting of the parents and tax-payers of this city, held in Wylie street Church, on Tuesday evening, October 19th, the undersigned committee of fifteen were appointed to present to you the following remonstrance and resolutions with reference to your action in regard to the school for colored children, situated on Miller street in this city.

According to the published report of the above mentioned meeting, the Board adopted a "report," made by the Committee on Colored Schools, recommending the sale of the Miller-street school house.

We do most earnestly but respectfully remonstrate against the sale of said property for the following reasons:

We need, and are justly entitled to this graded school, and the Miller street school house is favorably situated for that purpose, and should that school be broken up, even for the purpose of forming primary schools in other parts of the city, we believe that an irreparable injury will be done to the educational interests of that class for whose benefit the school was established. We further beg leave to remind the Board; that if we have no graded school there can be no possibility of our children qualifying themselves for entrance into the High School.

But although it cannot fail to be apparent that such an injurious effect as we have stated would certainly follow the consummation of your proposed action, yet we wish it to be distinctly understood that we do not believe that such is the intention of the Central Board of Education of the Christian and Republican city of Pittsburgh. We would further state that it would be but common justice, not to say humanity, if the Board should open other schools for colored children, so that they will not be compelled to travel from Lawrenceville to the Point, passing a half dozen ward schools on their way to Miller street.

We also beg leave to state that we believe that when the strong prejudices of a Christian people lead them to act in a manner such as is shown in the Colored Children Rule, and repugnant to the spirit of our free institutions, it is but reasonable to expect that they will be liberal toward those who are doomed to suffer by their acts. We also learn from your report at the last meeting, that by your authority a white teacher has been appointed one of the teachers in the school for colored children on Miller street. Against this appointment we do most decidedly protest, and pray that the Board will reconsider their action and appoint a colored teacher. In making this request we are not actuated by that spirit of caste which has for so long a time proscribed and maligned us, but we are urged by a sense of justice to our race and self-respect, and with a desire to encourage our educated men and women.

To be taxed for the support of our public schools, and then to be colonized by the arrangements of our public school laws or customs is indeed a grievous wrong which we most pathetically suffer, and therefore, in addition to this, we are expected to submit to this appointment, when there are colored ladies who are qualified for the same position, is more than human nature can bear in silence. Until the spirit of our modern civilization shall have put to rest the distinction based on color or race in our public schools, we will demand colored teachers for schools composed exclusively of our children. This is the unanimous opinion of the undersigned committee, and that of the large meeting of respectable citizens of Pittsburgh who appointed them. We earnestly petition the Central Board of Education to make such a change in the appointment of the Committee of the Committee on Colored Schools as shall place a gentleman in that position who will be in sympathy with those whose educational interests his committee controls, and who will not wound and insult our feelings by the language he may use when he may find occasion to refer to us. And

WHEREAS, We acknowledge with profound gratitude the blessings of education as the chief source of real happiness, and as essential to the intellectual and moral growth of all men, we, as parents and guardians, feelingly impressed with the duty which we owe to ourselves, to our children and our posterity, and influenced by a sentiment of patriotic and liberal views of instruction exercises a conformity in influence in all the affairs of life, and in the duties of individual as well as international life therefore,

Resolved, That the education of every American subject helps to dignify the American name.

Resolved, That we disavow the statements made in our city papers, given by the chairman from the Committee on Colored Schools, as being the expressed sentiments and wishes of the people.

Resolved, That while we will gladly embrace the opportunity for the educational interests of our youth, we deem it to be prominently necessary that we choose teachers from among ourselves, and that this tends such other to the acquisition of knowledge.

Resolved, That a faithful scrutiny of our public schools warrants no better plan for our social and political amelioration than in the practice of those principles and habits of virtue which are the result of mental and moral culture.

Resolved, That by virtue of taxation, of loyalty and liberty, the wisdom of the people and the genius of the land forbid that our school be treated as a charitable object, but as an institution of learning, upon whose well-being depends the well-being of all. Respectfully submitted.

COMMITTEE:

Edward Bailey, William I. Arnett,
Barney Mahoney, James H. Johnson,
George B. Knox, Abr'ham D. Johnson,
A. J. Billows, Thomas Gatewood,

The Secret of Beauty lies in the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm for the Complexion.

Roughness, Redness, Blotches, Sunburn, Freckles and Tan disappear where it is applied, and a beautiful complexion with satin-like texture is obtained. The plainest features are made to glow with Healthful Bloom and Youthful Beauty.

Remember Hagan's Magnolia Balm is the thing that produces these effects, and any Lady can secure it for 75 cents at any of our stores.

To preserve and dress the Hair use Lyon's Kathairon. NWFF.

Craig Brother will be found at No. 129 Second avenue, where they are prepared to fill orders for Gas and Steam Fitting, Plumbing and Brass Casting. Our customers and those wanting new work or repairing done, will note the change. 3

A ROMAN correspondent of the Cross Gazette writes: "What confusion reigns in the various circles of the Catholic Church may be seen from the fact, that though the Bishop of Orleans has summoned Father Hyacinthe to return to the Church, and throw himself at the feet of the Pope, one of his own works has been placed on the list of prohibited books. Ill natured people remark that the Bishop may accompany the monk to Rome, and there do penance for his heretical writings. The learned priate had undertaken the difficult task of proving the Syllabus to be in harmony with modern liberalism. Neither the Church nor the world was convinced. Monsignore Nardi in particular has long urged the Pope to pronounce his anathema on this illegitimate offspring of an unsanctified connection between religion and science. In the chambers of the Vatican, Monsignore Dupanloup and Count Montalembert are considered far more dangerous heretics than Father Hyacinthe."

AN attempt was made to assassinate Sheriff Fisher, of Chicago, in his office, on Thursday evening of last week. Three shots were fired at him, one taking effect in the fleshy part of the leg. The assailant was unknown, and the Sheriff was reticent about the affair, not appearing desirous to communicate any information.
