HOME AFFAIRS.

☞ Why John, where are you going to in such a hurry?

Why, I am going to LAUBACH'S, in Market street, to buy a nice lot of Furniture.

Well, John, can you tell me the reason why LAUBACH sells so much more Furniture and Chairs than all the Cabinet-makers in Lebanon together?

Yes, John, I think I can tell that reason very plainly he has always got by far the largest and best assortments of all kinds of Furniture and Chairs on hand, which he also sells a great deal cheaper than any other Cabinet-maker; besides he has an excellent cushioned Furniture Wagon with which he delivers all Furniture and Chairs sold by him, free of charge; these I think to be very good and advantageous reasons. **

As the 93d Regiment will leave for the seat of war this week, the public will please bear in mind that the best and oldest CABINET MAKING ESTABLISHMENT, in Lebanon, is that of C. BROTHERLINE'S. Any person in want of good made work will please call on him, before buying elsewhere. C. BROTHERLINE.

REGISTER OF SALES.

Personal Property of Ludwig Gingrich, dec'd., in Lebanon, Saturday, Mar. 1.

Personal Property of John Maul'sair, in North Annville, Friday, Mar. 7.

The Democrats of Cornwall township will meet at the public house of Joseph Bowman, on the Plank Road, on SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1862, at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of settling a ticket for township officers to be supported at the Spring Election. BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

We understand that Mrs. A. L. Ruthrauff, Post mistress at this place, has resigned on account of ill-health. No successor has yet been named, and the only applicant we know of so far is Mrs. Bibighaus, the widow of Hon. Thomas M. Bibighaus, former member of Congress from this district. Mrs. Ruthrauff has held the position since the decease of her husband, in August, 1850.

The 22d of February, the 130th anniversary of the Birth day of Washington, was duly observed in this place. In the morning a large number of Flags were raised, some of which were saluted with the fine music of the Union Cornet Band, under the leadership of their able instructor, Mr. Richey. The Farewell Address of Washington was read in Zion's Lutheran Church. The North Lebanon Band paraded through our streets and favored us with some of their choice National and other music. The frequent booming of cannon was also heard during the day. In the evening a Torch-light procession was got up, and a pretty general illumination of the residences of our citizens took place. Both the procession and illumination were well gotten up considering the short notice given. We noticed a number of illuminated banners in the procession with appropriate patriotic mottoes.

The 22d was celebrated in the evening, in the ADVERTISER office, with eclat and spirit. A number of gentlemen of all parties having dropped in, when the Farewell Address of Washington was read and a number of patriotic songs sung. A few glasses of "Lights" and one or two of "Lager," together with some pretzels, crackers, cheese, puddings, &c., were worried down. "Yankee Doodle" interspersed the exercises, and the party adjourned.

Benjamin Core, of Highspire, and Joseph Ehrman, of Union Deposit, members of the 93d Regiment, died in Camp Edward a week ago.

A Singing School under the management of Prof. McCaulley, of Lebanon Pa., was opened at the Furnace School House, Berks county, last week. The exercises opened with a Lecture on Spooks and Witches.

Capt. W. M. Derr, who was at home for some weeks on account of a severe spell of sickness, returned to Camp last week fully restored. He was welcomed by the Regimental Band, and replied with a short address.

☞ Mrs. Wm. J. Hoffman, of Birdsboro, Berks county, presented her husband, last week, with three bouncing boys, at one birth.—The aggregate weight of the triplets was 22lbs.

☞ "Shrove Tuesday"—"Fassnacht"—this year occurs on the 4th of March; Easter on the 20th of April.

Mr. Samuel S. Shirk, a good mechanic, has entered into partnership with Andrew Moore, in the making of Boots, Shoes, &c. Young beginners should be encouraged. See advertisement.

DREADFUL CALAMITY.—On Friday morning the residence of Jonathan Tice, about 2 miles above Fredericksburg, was destroyed by fire, and one of his children, a girl about 6 years of age, perished in the flames. It seems that both father and mother were from home, leaving the house in charge of their three children. In attempting to make the fire in the stove, the clothing of one was ignited, when she rushed into bed to save herself, when bed, house, and all were soon in flames. The one child was there burnt up, and the other two escaped. The house, and everything in it, was destroyed.

Among the confirmations of army appointments by the United States Senate, last week, we notice that of JACOB KLINE, son of Levi Kline, Esq., of this place, as 1st Lieutenant in the 16th Regiment of Infantry.

The Continental Old Folks' Concerts will take place this and to-morrow (Tuesday and Wednesday) evenings. Go, see, and hear them. They are the best treat, in the musical line, for a long time presented to the citizens of Lebanon.

MARRIAGE.

Its loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and pays; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps. Address DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 SPRUCE Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully.—It will be the means of saving you a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, No. 416 SPRUCE Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

Office hours from 9 to 3, daily.
