A NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Five dollar bills, imitations of the Bank of Northumberland, in this State are in circulation. Large numbers of them are being shoved in the western part of the State. Scrutinize closely all $5 on this bank.

A Democratic Meeting for the purpose of organizing a Democratic Club, will be held next Saturday Afternoon, June 6, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the public house of Henry Glick, at Mt. Zion.

Also, in the evening of the same day, at the public house of John H. Koar, in Fredericksburg. Let there be a full turn out at both meetings.

Charles D. Kaler, a member of Company C, 93d Regiment, is now on a visit to his home in Lebanon. This is his first absence from the Regiment since its organization. He will return on Friday.

The horses attached to Henry Fortna's Miller's wagon took a notion to run off on Tuesday morning, in Chestnut Street, west of Plank Road. Before getting very far they fetched up against the Curb Stones. One of the horses was run out of the harness and the other upset, thus putting a stop to their further progress. The damage appeared to be trifling to both horses and wagon.

The attention of those having Licenses to pay, is directed to the notice of Mr. Allwein, County Treasurer.

A roaring Lyon from Berks county visited Shaefferstown, last week, spying out the conversation of democrats and threatening to take some of them along with him in his carriage. The place at last got too hot for him and he left in a hurry with a flea in his ear.

The Democratic State Convention will meet at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, June 17, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court, to be supported by the friends of the Constitution and Union, and to give expression to the sentiments of the Democrats of the State. The Delegates from this county are Wm. M. Breslin, Senatorial, and Dr. D. S. Cooper, of East Hanover, Representative.

Our companies in the 127th Regiment were paid off on Saturday, and reached Lebanon in the afternoon train. They were received by a public demonstration by the "Loyal League" of this place. After parading thro' the town they were addressed by Hon. John W. Killinger from the front steps of the Court House and welcomed home. They were then taken to the Court House yard where an ample and abundant supper was prepared for them by the "League." We learn that they were also addressed inside by Rev. Dr. Harbaugh.

The citizens generally showered heartfelt blessings upon the noble soldiers who were thus returning from the performance of a duty which they had undertaken from the best and most patriotic motives, and all should have liked to have participated in a demonstration if the original programme had been carried out, and if it had not been monopolized by the "Loyal League," and made a partizan instead of a public reception. When the Town Council proposed to make the reception a joint one, Democrats in the neighborhood acquiesced in it, and was willing to contribute liberally for a demonstration that would show to the soldiers that we appreciated their services, but when the "Loyal Leaguers" took the matter out of their hands and monopolized the affair under the expectation that they would be enabled to make a little political capital out of it, the Democrats resolved to abstain from participating, and hence, could only tender their heart-felt congratulations as opportunity offered. The soldiers no doubt understood fully the position of affairs and appreciate at the real value the circumstances of the case. We abstained from saying a word heretofore of the proceedings of the "Leaguers," so that it could not be charged that we interfered with their proposed action, but now, when the thing is over, it is proper that the true state of the case should be stated. The same combination in various other places, tried to monopolize the reception of the volunteers and make political capital out of it. In some they failed, in others they were left to have their own way, as here, and in others again they prevented a reception entirely.

Mr. Goodyear of the firm of Goodyear & Diffenbach is again in the city of New York purchasing a stock of Summer Goods. It is intended that this shall be the largest, most select and cheapest stock ever brought to Lebanon. The prices of their Ladies' Dress Goods especially will be beyond competition. Small profits and Quick sales is their motto, and if the public favor us with a call they will discover this to their satisfaction. *

CRONE keeps up the reputation of his establishment in the basement of Funck's building, by entering for the public all the delicacies of the season. He will not allow his establishment to be surpassed by any in the county. Good eating and drinking you will always find at CRONE'S.

Mr. Killinger, in his address of Welcome on Saturday to the soldiers, hit some body with a fifty-six pounder. He said:—"he is a dastard and a scoundrel who attempts to make political capital out of a reception of the returning soldiers." That it so, and there was some squirming in consequence of the directness of the shot. Some even swore that he was a "copperhead and secessionist."

The 116th annual session of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania and the adjacent States, is held this week in St. John's (German,) Lutheran Church, Reading.

INTERESTING TO HOTEL KEEPERS.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made the following decision concerning licenses of hotel keepers and liquor dealers:—"The Act of Congress of the 1st day of July, 1862, commonly called the Tax Law, directs that every place where food and lodging are provided for, and furnished travelers and sojourners in view of payment, shall be regarded as a hotel, inn or tavern, under the act. In order, therefore, to be entitled to carry on that branch of business which consists in accommodating travelers and sojourners with food and lodging for pay, the keeper must have a license; and the class to which his hotel belongs, reckoned according to its rental value, determines the sum of money which the license will cost him. If that value is $10,000, he must pay $200; but if it is $100, he must pay $5. The license fee is graded according to the rent or rental value, and there are three different classes to which the fee assigned is less than $20.

"If to the business of providing for travelers and sojourners, the hotel keeper adds the retailing of spiritous liquors, he is required to pay an additional sum of $20 for license; and this he must pay, whether his hotel belongs to the first, last or any intermediate class.

"By the 43d section of the supplement approved March 3d, 1863, no alteration is made in the act of July 1, 1862, except that the latter prohibits the person licensed to keep an hotel from selling liquors to be taken off the premises. This is intended to prevent an hotel keeper licensed to sell liquors, as well as food and lodging, from pursuing, under cover of his license, a distinct branch of business, and entering into competition with apothecaries, merchants or others, who may be allowed by the local law to sell, by retail, liquors to be carried off the premises, and who like the hotel keeper must, in such case, pay for his privilege a license fee of $20."

We direct the attention of our friends, who wish to purchase Iron Railing of any description, or any kind of Iron Work of a decorative character, for any purpose, to the advertisement of Messrs. Wood & Perot, Philadelphia, in another column.

The Horrors of War can be greatly mitigated by that sovereign remedy, HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, as it will cure any wound, however desperate, if it be well rubbed around the wounded parts, and they be kept thoroughly covered with it. A pot of ointment should be in every man's knapsack. Only 25 cents per pot. 227

THE SOLDIERS WELCOME HOME.

BY E. P. S.

WORDS ARRANGED TO THE MUSIC "HOME AGAIN."

Welcome home, welcome home,
We hail your safe return,
Ye patriot sons your country's pride,
We welcome your return,
With tearful eyes we bade you go,
To stay rebellion's foam,
But now, with glory won in war,
You're warmly greeted home.
CHORUS.—Welcome home, welcome home,
We hail your safe return;
Ye patriot sons, your country's pride,
We welcome your return.

A father's heart, a mother's love,
With strong affections burn,
For you, who from the tented field
Have made a safe return—
Others fell, on the blood stained soil,
They now no longer roam,
But you, with greateful hearts to God,
We love to welcome home.
CHORUS.—Welcome home, &c.

Brothers kind, sisters dear,
With hearts so warm and true,
Extend their free and open hand,
To kindly wait on you;
For while you're gone, their prayers arose,
Beyond the azure dome;
And now the heart is thrilled with joy,
That warmly greets you home.
CHORUS:—Welcome home, &c.

Sweet return, sweet return,
To the homestead roof once more,
Describe the scenes you saw in war
We ne'er have heard before—
And though your deeds, in future years,
May grace an oft-read tome,
Yet, the greatest joy for us is this,
That you are safe at home.—
CHORUS.—Welcome home, &c.

Ter-Centenary Jubilee, in First Reformed Church—A MOST INTERESTING OCCASION.—We are free to confess, that we have never been present on an occasion of more thrilling interest, than the Jubilee services held in the First Reformed Church in this place, on last Sabbath.—The Church edifice though beautiful without adorning, was rendered additionally attractive for the occasion, by the rich decorations of choice flowers, and wreaths, and festoons, prepared from nature's exhuberant and charming stores. The pulpit, altar, the organ, and every part of the Church was robed in nature's richest habiliments. The impression of this charming scene, was most delightful and joy inspiring.

The attendance was immense, hundreds being obliged reluctantly to retire for want of room.—The exercises, which were beautifully varied, were all that could be desired. The sermon by the pastor, MR. KREMER, was a rich historical portraiture of the origin and fortunes of the justly celebrated Heidelberg Catechism, and was listened to with wrapt attention. The music, by the choir, Sabbath School and congregation, under the leadership of CONRAD MARK, Esq., and the unsurpassed organ accompaniment of Dr. B. F. SCHENCK, was a most rare treat, and in the highest degree satisfactory. The school repeated most beautifully in concert, the Ten Commandments and the Apostle's Creed, and sustained an excellent examination on a series of questions prepared by the Pastor for the occasion.

We will not omit the just observation that the Sabbath School, under the efficient direction of its principal Superintendent, JOS. L. LEMBERGER, Esq., fully sustained on this accasion, its enviable reputation for propriety and order, and its hearty interest in the various exercises in which they were called to engage.

All in all, the occasion was a credit to all actively connected with it—a Jubilee never to be forgotten.

Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Heidelberg Catechism in St. John's Reformed Church.—Last Sunday was a joyful day for the Reformed Churches in Lebanon, as also throughout the bounds of that denomination. St. John's Church was decorated with much taste; a large amount of labor and care having been spent upon it for days. A great portion of the festooning was made of box, which is the most beautiful evergreen we have for wreaths. The festooning was tastefully arranged, the walls being white and the church free from galleries, the wreaths could be arranged with freedom, and so as to bring out effectually the various designs and ideas connected with the festival. It being Trinity Sunday, the idea of the day was brought out by three circular festoons hung into each other on every one of the three-fold gas brackets along the wall. So also three box covered crosses back of the pulpit, three flower vases on the altar, and three boquets hung into the wreaths in front of the pulpit, very appropriately represented the same idea. The main central arch over the pulpit and altar was crowned with the words "Heidelberg Catechism" perfectly fresh and green, made of sprigs of box. On one side of this arch, and over one of the smaller arches was the date of the formation of the Catechism "1563" in ancient figures, made of pale leaves, all of which gave it an ancient appearance; over the other smaller arch was the present date "1863," in modern figures and perfectly fresh. Between the two dates lay 300 years! The conception was very fine, and well brought out by the difference in the form of the figures, as well as by their decorations. Vases of flowers were placed on each window, and over each of them an air basket was suspended, which produced a fine effect. The baptismal font was decorated with flowers, crowned with a large and beautiful boquet at the foot of which sat a white marble dove in the midst of the flowers, symbolical of the Sacrament there administered. The reading desk and altar had also their appropriate decorations; and the top of the breastwork of the pulpit space, was tastefully varied with vases of flowers of various forms and designs. Never was St. John's church so beautifully garmented. Though we are accustomed to see this church decorated on Christmas occasions, yet this exceeded all its former endeavors; and we doubt whether any future efforts can succeed better. There was no part crowded, nothing overdone by an over abundance; a fine taste ruled the entire arrangement. The children of the church were present in the morning services, by whom, as well as by the choir, touching music was discoursed. There was no sermon, but only a brief address appropriate to the occasion by the pastor. The rest was music and joy, and festal feeling. The crowded audience enjoyed a pleasant service, the like of which none of the members shall live to see again. In this view the whole service was beautifully and appropriately closed by the choir, who sang, amid the tears of not a few, the Hymn "A hundred years to come." Truly:

Who'll press for gold these crowded streets,
A hundred years to come?
Who'll tread this church with willing feet,
A hundred years to come?
Pale trembling age, and fiery youth,
And childhood with its heart of truth,
The rich, the poor, on land and sea—
Where will the mighty millions be.

But just as true is the pleasant sentiment of the last verse added for the occasion:

Though we should die, yet shall we live,
A hundred years to come;
Our Saviour and His church shall live,
A hundred years to come;
Still crowds shall to Thy temple wend
Their way, and at the altar bend;
And millions, now unborn, shall meet
In humble joy at Jesus' feet,
A hundred years to come.

The Abolition newspapers of this place are very much exercised about "treasonable and secret meetings" which they say are held in Jackson, Bethel and Heidleburg townships of this county. Are they members of them because they know so much about them, or have they only attended in disguise and spyed out what is going on? If they know that those meetings are treasonable, &c., why do they not perform their duty as good citizens and proceed against them according to law, instead of imitating the "great leniency and fatherly regard of President Lincoln." The truth of the matter is, the societies spoken of are not secret, not oath-bound, not treasonable, and they know it. If they were they would not stand off at a distance and bark at and about them, but they would quickly send a squad of Provost Guards to break them up.—When they every day disturb and break up democratic meetings, they would not stop to break up a meeting of the kind indicated, if they really were as they represent. We know much about the meetings spoken of, for do we know a great deal about the "Loyal League," but we venture to bet our old hat that the former are not near as "secret, oath-bound, and treasonable" as the latter. Again, we have more confidence in the patriotism of the former than in the latter.

Col. Nagle compliments Corporal G. W. Yeager and privates Benjamin Rhoades; Thomas Granger and Martin Longenecker, of the 173d Penn. Volunteer, for strict attention to duty and the capture of a Rebel mail while in charge of an outpost. The drafted men from this county are in the 173d, now at Norfolk, Va.

TAKE NOTICE.—The enrolling is going on, and it is expected that the Conscription act will be enforced immediately, so I would advice everybody to get their PICTURES taken in time for their relations and friends, and the only place to get a No. 1, Picture is at ZIMMERMAN'S New York Photographic Gallery, for he is taking the cheapest, the best, and most life-like Pictures in Lebanon. It is admitted by all that he can't be beat, for his gallery is always crowded. Give him a call and you will find as we recommend. Remember the place, Zimmerman's New York Photographic Gallery, in Cumberland St. Call early and avoid a crowd.

P. S.—Children and anybody that has got weak eyes should call at Zimmerman's Gallery. His Pictures only require from 3 to 5 seconds time to sit.

A Card to the Suffering.

The REV. WILLIAM COSGROVE, while laboring as a Missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great City of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirous of benefitting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge.

QUESTION.—Hollo! there Dick and Nancy, where are you going, that you are in such a hurry?

ANSWER.—Why we are just on our way to Daily's Photograph Gallery, to have our pictures taken. He takes splendid pictures, and his Gallery is nearly all the time crowded. so I said to Nancy we will go early this morning before any body else gets there, or we will have to come away without getting any.

QUEST.—Yes! I have heard too that Daily's Gallery is nearly all the time crowded, and so why don't you go to some other Gallery?

ANS.—Oh my! we could not think of such a thing—We admire the true and beautiful picture that Daily takes, so much that we would not go to other Gallery if we could get them for nothing He has seven years experience in the business, has a complete sett of improved instruments, an excellent sky-light, and there fore takes the best pictures in town, and so of course every body that wants a good picture goes to him.

QUEST.—What kind of Pictures does he take?

ANS.—He takes Photographs from miniature to life-size, plain or colored. His card pictures have been pronounced more truthful and life like than some that have been taken in our large cities. His Ambrotypes are beautiful, and can't be beat. He also excels in copying pictures from small Daguerreotypes, and enlarging them almost to any size.

QUEST.—Where is this Gallery? I must give him a call too.

ANS.—Just come along with Nancy and I, and we will show you. It is in Stine's New Building, next door to the Lebanon Deposit Bank. He has constantly on hand a good assortment of Gilt and Rosewood Frames, Cases, Albums, &c., which he sells cheap.—For good and cheap Pictures We advise all to go to Daily's Gallery, *Lebanon, Pa. May a gracious God sustain the deeply afflicted parents, in their sad bereavement.

☞ At a meeting held in the Eastern School House, in Palmyra, by the members of the One hundred and twenty-seventh regiment, Pa. Vols., of Palmyra and vicinity, for the purpose of expressing their heartfelt sympathies for the bereaved parents and friends of our brother soldier, Corporal William J. Forney, of Co. I, who fell in the action at Fredericksburg on the 13th day of December, 1862, in the defence of his country, the following resolutions were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased God, in his wisdom to take from us our companion in arms, Corporal WILLIAM J. FORNEY, Co. I, who fell, while engaged in the battle of Fredericksburg, December 13, 1862.

Resolved, That, as a just tribute to a brave soldier, we take this opportunity of expressing our deep regret at the loss of our brother soldier. By his death we have lost a companion, unknown to complaint, and a soldier true to the trust confided to him.

Resolved, That while the condolence of friends is but a poor consolation to his bereaved parents, we beg leave to tender them our heart-felt sympathies; let their consolation be that he fell in a just and noble cause, while doing his duty to his country, and has received a patriot's reward in the realms above.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the Lebanon papers, and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

AN ORDINANCE

To permit the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company to put up a Watch-Box at the crossing of Market Street and said Railroad.

WHEREAS, there has been complaint on account of the insecurity of the crossing of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad on Market Street; and whereas, the said crossing is the most frequented of our public crossings; therefore,

Be it ordained by the Burgesses and Council of the Borough of Lebanon, That from and after the passage and publication of this ordinance, the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company is authorized to erect and maintain on Market or Scull street, at the intersection of said streets a Watch-Box for the purpose of sheltering the Watchman, who is to be engaged in securing the said crossing from accidents, by reason of the running of trains on the said road.

Be it further ordained, That the site for said Watch-Box be selected by the Street Committee of said Councils, and the authorized Agent of said Railroad Company.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK. Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache my body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (tied) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DR. AYER: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse my system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the purgon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother had been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Phillips, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Feb., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness; and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country of this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. Public it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no effort to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER,

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
