THE CORNER.

The "Elizabethtown" Phenomenon.—A few weeks ago the "Elizabethtown Trumpet," gave a description of a pretended natural phenomenon which resembled a rose in shape, and which was hard and white as ivory, noticed in the lips of a Miss Inlay, of Rapho township. The matter occasioned considerable discussion, and on Saturday a week the body was exhumed for examination. Dr. J. L. Zigler, of Mount Joy, who was present on the occasion, informs the Herald that there was nothing singular or supernatural about the affair. It was simply an oozing of froth from the lips, which, at its hardened presented a wavy, lathery appearance.

A HINT FOR LECTURERS.—How to get up "a storm of enthusiasm." If all other resorts fail, say "Copperhead." It is the silliest expression in the world, to be sure but then it is a "sure thing." As soon as they hear it, every Abolition nincompoop in the hall will prick up his ears, give his body a shake, set his heels in motion, and tender you a double round of applause, such as the wisest sentences and strogest patriotism might strive in vain to elicit.

ONLY ONE PARTY.—We beg leave to remind our abolition friends that only "one party" is allowed in the time of war Let Lincoln men and Chase men, and Fremont men "silence their pretty difference in the presence of the great rebellion, when the life of the nation is at stake." "If there are differences of opinion among them, let them wait and settle them, when the war is over."

A WHITE WOMAN MURDERED BY A NEGRO.—The Louisville Democrat states that on the 19th inst. Mrs. Hoaglan, the wife of Capt. Hoaglan, of the 3d Kentucky regiment, was outraged by a negro, and afterwards murdered. The negro has been arrested, and his guilt being fully proven, an attempt was made by the neighbors of Capt. Hoaglan to visit summary punishment upon him. He is now in jail.

☞ The following, from the Buffalo Courier, shows how the Olustee disaster is regarded by the army in Florida:

An officer in a New York regiment, engaged in the recent Florida fight, writes as follows to a relative in this city:

I have had my foot shot off and may lose part of my leg, all for being a delegate to the first political convention the Lincoln has held in Florida.

☞ A Western editor strikes the names of two subscribers from his list because they were hung. He says he was compelled to be severe because he did not know their present addresses.

☞ At a concert recently, at the conclusion of the well-known song, "There's a Good Time Coming," a farmer got up and exclaimed: "Mister, you couldn't fix the date, could you."

☞ It is proposed in New York to introduce into the churches "invalid pews" and "sleeping pews."
