

PENNSYLVANIA:

AN ETHNIC PORTRAIT

Channel 44, WVIA-TV, has made its swing into spring with the addition of new programs and specials for its regenerated audience.

"Pennsylvania: An Ethnic Portrait," produced by a Channel 44 staff member, is a series that explores the role of ethnic backgrounds in contemporary living situations; the influence of religion; the degree to which these groups are faced with intolerance; and the extent of assimilation into our modern culture. Among the groups explored will be the Welsh, Irish, Scotch-Irish, German, Blacks, Puerto Rican, Quakers, and Eastern Europeans. This series premieres Tuesday, April 6 at 7 p.m., and runs for five consecutive weeks.

Among the many Specials planned for April are: "Mao's China," three hours of French film footage, both new and archival, which presents an assessment of China in 1976 and examines its relationship with the U.S., on Thursday, April 22 at 9 p.m.; "Kosciuszko: An American Portrait," a dramatic re-enactment of the role of Colonel Thaddeus Kosciuszko, the young foreign officer who aided the American Continental Army during the Revolutionary War, on Monday, April 5 at 9 p.m.; and a "Great Performance" Special, live from Lincoln Center in New York City, "The Ballad of Baby Doe," presented by the New York City Opera, on Wednesday, April 21 at 8 p.m.
