RAILWAYS AGAIN DULL AND HEAVY

Bethlehem Reaches 600 Mark Soon After Opening of Morning Session

By Associated Press

New York, Oct. 22.—Specialties provided fresh sensations at the opening of to-day's dealings while railways were again dull and heavy. Bethlehem Steel rose to 600, an eighth over its previous record and 12 above yesterday's close. General Motors made a new record on its ten-point advance to 375, this distinction being shared by Studebaker, up four to 195, Willys-Overland, 4½ to 205½, Maxwell Motors 1 to 67¾ and United States Industrial Alcohol 3½ to 124. There was extensive trading in Great Northern Ore, Distillers Securities, American Locomotive, Continental Can and similar issues at gains of 1 to 2 points, and United States Steel was fractionally higher.
