SHORT CONTRACTS BEING COVERED

New York, Sept. 2. — Covering of short contracts, a natural precaution in view of the approaching holidays, comprised the bulk of to-day's light dealings, the movement being heightened by the encouraging outlook of the railroad controversy.

Marines were the chief feature, with the preferred at a new high record. U. S. Steel regained much of yesterday's reversal and rails were higher under lead of Reading and Canadian Pacific. Specialties were represented by Kelly-Springfield Tire, Lee Tire and Studebaker, and coppers, petroleums and American Zinc preferred also registered material gains. The closing was strong. Bonds were steady.
