$20. Winning banners will become the property of the Fine Arts Council.

All entries should be delivered to the Banner Contest Committee at the loading platform at the rear of the Library Hazleton Campus, Penn State University on Sunday, April 25 between 1 and 4 p.m. or on Monday, April 26 between 6 and 8 p.m. No banners will be accepted after these dates. A 3" by 5" card with entrants name, address, and phone number and a brief description of the banner should be attached to each entry.

Banners will be judged on creativity, craftsmanship, and durability. Winners will be notified before the Festival and their names will be printed in the Festival program.

All banners must remain the property of the Committee until the closing of the Festival, May 9. Non-winning banners should be picked up immediately after the Festival on Sunday, May 9 between 5 and 7 p.m.

Work abroad

NEW YORK(CIEE)--Now students who want to work in Great Britain, France, Germany or Ireland don't have to worry about all the red tape usually involved in finding a job abroad. CIEE (Council on International Educational Exchange), the largest non-profit student travel organization in the U.S., will make all the arrangements so that students can work in any of these four countries.

Participants in CIEE's "Work in Britain" program get official permission to find a job anywhere in the British Isles for up to six months at any time of the year. Last year students on the program did everything from serving ale in a pub in a Yorkshire village to typing scripts in a London television studio.

In Ireland, Germany and France students work at summer jobs - usually in stores, hotels, restaurants or factories.

The program in Germany is free and includes a job placement by the ZAV (the German national employment service). For the program in Ireland, the fee is $10; in Great Britain, $25; in France, $25, or $85 if a job is prearranged by the Paris office of CIEE.

All past participants agree: there's no better way to get to know a country than to work and live there. With CIEE's work program, that's easy to do. Just write for details and application forms to CIEE, Dept. J, at either 777 United Nations Plaza, New York, New York 10017 or 236 North Santa Cruz, #314, Los Gatos, California 95030.

Feet: Get moving!

The annual March of Dimes Walk-a-Thon will be held on April 25. Anyone can participate, with all proceeds to go to the March of Dimes.

Mayor Turnbach of Hazleton will lead the walk. Walkers will follow a 22-mile course which will begin and end at Harmengeist Stadium.

Free passes to Ghost Town in the Glen, an amusement park in Moosic, Pa., and a free pair of shoes from Tom McAn are examples of the many prizes to be given away. A dance for all participants is tentively scheduled for the same day, or a week after the walk-a-thon.

In charge of the walk-a-thon are Highacres students Rose Ann Davidick, Steve Daderko, and Steve Touzel.

Sign of the times: Couples planning to move into the married students housing at Northern Arizona U. will now be required to produce a marriage certificate.
