NEW PROF ON CAMPUS

by Susan Latovich

The new Assistant Professor of Speech Communications at Highacres is Dr. Carl Holmberg. Holmberg received his Doctorate in Rhetoric from Ohio University. He also has a Master's Degree in Interdisciplinary Humanities from the University of Chicago, and a Bachelor's Degree from Heidelberg College.

His past teaching experiences prior to his coming to Highacres include one semester at Heidelberg College teaching Interdisciplinary Humanities, one year teaching English at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility, and three years teaching Oral Interpretation and Public Speaking at Ohio University. Holmberg also spent one year teaching piano in Chicago.

Aside from Dr. Holmberg's interests in the field of education, he also enjoys composing, painting, hiking, and working with youngsters on the grade school and junior high level. He spends much of his time reading and writing, and had one of his papers published in the "Journal of Philosophy and Rhetoric." In Dr. Holmberg's words, "I like all the things other people don't like."

One of his more interesting hobbies is his comic book collection. At one time he had over five thousand copies, many of them valuable first editions. While teaching at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility, he used comic books when faced with the problem of adults who were poor or non-readers.

When asked about his impressions of Highacres he replied, "I enjoy living here, the faculty and staff have been very nice to me, the area is beautiful, and the students are interested and interesting." His outlook has been positive so far and we hope it will stay that way.

PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

by Alfred Wolf

Going to college can be a drag if you have no money to spend while you're furthering your education. With all the free time you have for studying, could it be rescheduled so that you can take on a part-time job. The opportunities are pretty numerous considering Hazleton is such a large town.

If you are truly interested in finding employment, you should go to see Mr. White in room 212 of the Main Building. There you will fill out an index card that covers the essential info for you to be filed as an available student for part-time employment. The places you may be referred to are the A & P, Zayres, Franklins, Boston Store, etc.

Part-time employment on campus is mostly a form of financial aid and to get aid you have to fill out a financial aid application and be selected by the faculty. Jobs for financial aid include working in labs, instructional services, phys. ed. assistants (such as life guards), clerks, clerical assistants, and library aids. Also students are needed in the dining hall, and for maintenance around the school like cutting the lawns and shoveling snow. Pay for most part-time jobs is minimal wage-$2.30 an hour.

Mrs. Moyer gets Masters Degree

Mrs. Norma Moyer, a part-time English instructor here at Highacres, recently completed the requirements for a Master of Arts Degree in English. She earned her degree at Bucknell University and will participate in the university's commencement exercises next April. In meeting her final requirements through courses taught by Mr. Stuart Erwin, French instructor at Highacres, Mrs. Moyer had much to say in praise of Mr. Erwin's classes.

Presently engaged in her third year of teaching at Highacres, Mrs. Moyer has been in the field of education for eighteen years. Before becoming an instructor at Highacres, she taught at elementary and secondary school levels. She earned both her Bachelor and Master of Science Degrees in Education at Bloomsburg College.

Mrs. Moyer, who has been a resident of the Hazleton area all her life, commented that she enjoys teaching at Highacres and looks forward to the enthusiasm and ambition of the students.
