DEMOCRATIC STATE CHAIRMAN Wright has issued the call for the State Convention which will meet in the Opera House Harrisburg, at 12 o'clock noon, Sept. 19, 1893, to nominate candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court and State Treasurer.

THE Controller of Currency has prepared a statement showing the condition of the national banks of Pennsylvania, exclusive of Philadelphia and Pittsburg, at the close of business July 12. The statement is extremely creditable to the Pennsylvania banks demonstrating, as it does, that they hold a reserve of 25.5 per cent., or 10.5 per cent above that required by law, country banks being required to maintain only 15 per cent., as against 25 per cent., reserve by the city banks. There are 337 national banks in Pennsylvania and not a single one has yet hauled up the white flag.

IT is certainly a most pleasant consideration in looking over the failures of the past few months, to refer to the excellent financial standing of the First National Bank, of Lehighton where the individual deposits, as per the last published statement, amounted to $148,407.39, with undivided profits of $10,374.14 and a surplus fund of $12,000. There is no institution in the Lehigh Valley that is more sound or whose business is conducted with so much safety as is the business of the First National. The president of this institution is Mr. R. F. Hafford and the cashier is Mr. John T. Semmel.

IT is certainly very amusing to see the efforts that the Klotz and Cassidy people are making to put themselves in good standing with Congressman Howard Mutchler. As an example last week's Lansford Record contained several references such as this: "County Chairman Cassidy got out the vote for Mutchler. Mr. Cassidy always does what he promises." Mickey's a brick! but he is stealing false honors when he claims the credit for Howard Mutchler's large vote in Carbon county, after attempting to thwart the wishes of her Democratic people in working against the nomination of that distinguished gentleman at Bethlehem some weeks ago. It was the friends of Mr. George W. Esser who "got out the vote"—East Penn, Slatington, Parkerton, Lehighton, Weissport, and other districts conclusively show this.

THE CONFESSIONAL SACRED.

The Supreme Court of New York State Has So Decided.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The decision of Chief Justice Sir Frederick Jeune, of the London court of probate and divorce, that a minister of the church of England can be compelled to reveal in the witness stand confessions made to him in confidence by his parishioners, has occasioned considerable comment in church circles here, and especially in the Catholic church. Bishop Keane, of the Catholic university, said:

"With the growth of civilization there have grown up certain axioms which have been by common consent considered sacred. The caution in question is one of these. Civilization has decreed that the confidences of the confessional are sacred, and when a court of law lifts its hand and says that this shall not be sight, says that the civilization of the age cannot make any regulation which the law is bound to respect. Civilization and the law ought to go hand in hand, but they have not done so in this case, and I should say that the decision of Justice Jeune certainly cannot stand.

"I know that this question has been raised in the United States once to my certain knowledge, and I think twice, both times in the state of New York. The matter was carried to the supreme court of the state, where the decision was that a priest could not be compelled to divulge the secrets confided to him in the sacred confidence of the confessional."

To Fight at Coney Island.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—James J. Corbett and William A. Brady, who are managing his business matters, arrived in this city last night. Corbett was seen by a United Press representative. Champion Corbett said he object in coming out was to go into training for his fight with Mitchell. His intention is to remain in this city for a few days before leaving for his training quarters at Asbury Park. He said he signed last April to fight at Coney Island, and that he intended to live up to his word.

In the race for the queen's cup, open only to members of the Royal Yacht squadron, the Queen's cup was won by Valkyrie, and Britannia the time afterwards, though the Meteor came to grief.

THE SIAMESE DISPUTE.

A Complete Understanding Between France and England.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY GUARANTEES

They Were Demanded by France on Account of Siam's Delay in Accepting the Ultimatum, and Are Conceded by Siam. The Blockade Raised.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The supplementary guarantees demanded by France from Siam, which include the temporary custody of the river and port of Chanthun, and that Siam shall not establish military stations in certain named places near the Cambodian frontier or within a certain distance of the Cambodian frontier, were contained in a note issued by M. Develle on Monday and made public today. The text of the note is as follows:

"The delay of Siam in accepting the ultimatum presented by the French minister resident at Bangkok has justified the government of the republic in imposing heavier conditions. Being desirous, however, to give further proof of the sentiments of moderation by which she has been constantly actuated, France will content herself, as an indispensable guarantee for the practical execution of the clauses of the ultimatum, with occupying the river and port of Chanthun until the complete evacuation of the posts established by the Siamese on the left bank of the Mekong river. Further, for the purpose of guaranteeing a continuance of the good relations happily re-established between France and Siam, and for preventing a conflict in the region of Lake Toulsean, Siam will undertake to maintain no military forces in the Battambang and Siemreuf, and in the locality situated within a radius of twenty-five kilometers of the Mekong river, starting from the Cambodian frontier. Siam will only maintain the police force necessary to preserve order. Moreover, Siam will not maintain warships or armed boats on the waters of the great lake or the Mekong river."

A semi-official note says: "The various interviews between M. Develle and Lord Dufferin in the last few days referred exclusively to the upper Mekong question, which has been pending between France and Great Britain for years, and which was brought into prominence by the Franco-Siamese conflict. All decisions in the matter were postponed until Siam unreservedly accepted the French ultimatum. Acceptance being made, France has not hesitated to adhere to the principal of a neutral zone to be established by means of mutual sacrifices between the possessions of the two powers in the regions of the upper Mekong. The delimitation of the zone is reserved for a future date."

A council of the ministry was held at the Palais palace of the Elysee yesterday. M. Develle announced that Prince Vadhana had signified his government's willingness to concede the supplementary guarantees demanded by France. M. Develle also stated that his interview on Monday with Lord Dufferin was based on the negotiations which took place in 1889 between France and Great Britain, which recognized the principle of a buffer state between the French and British possessions in the east.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—In the house of lords Earl Rosebery, secretary of state for foreign affairs, read the text of the first ultimatum and of the supplementary ultimatum sent by France to Siam and accepted by the latter country. He added: "We have signed an agreement in Paris establishing a neutral zone in Indo-China."

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Sir Edward Grey, parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, announced in the house of commons yesterday afternoon that the French blockade of Bangkok had been raised.

World's Fair Officials Fined.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Judge Stein, of the superior court, decided that the World's fair directors and officers who had been directly responsible for closing the exposition gates Sunday, July 23, had violated the injunction granted in the Clingman petition, and were consequently guilty of contempt. He ordered that Directors Gage, Hutchinson, Henrotin, McNally and Kerfoot should be fined $1,000 each and stand committed to jail until the fine was paid. Director Lawson was fined $100 and Director General Davis $250. An appeal was taken, pending which the convicted parties furnished bonds.

Five Killed by an Exploding Boiler.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—By the explosion of the boiler of a farm engine on the farm of Louis Pierson, near Newark, O., John Kittle and James Bower, married, and Frank Bell, Peter Ball and Norman Sellen, single, were killed. Joseph Shipp, John Kittle, Thomas Edmonds and Luther Sellen were badly hurt, it is feared fatally. A straw stack was set on fire and the bodies of the dead men were horribly burned.

A Prayer Meeting "Held Up."

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Aug. 3.—An unknown man walked into a prayer meeting and drawing a revolver ordered the entire congregation to throw up their hands. Charles Goff, who was praying at the time, rose to his feet and grappled with the would be robber. In the tussle which followed the revolver was discharged, but the ball fortunately struck a truss worn by Goff and was deflected. The robber then fled.

Disobeying the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—For the first time since the passage of the Sherman silver law the treasury last month failed to buy the full quota of 4,500,000 ounces of silver. The total purchase for the month was 2,334,000 ounces, leaving a shortage of 2,116,000 ounces. The amount purchased yesterday was 216,000 ounces at the counter at a cost of $0.7[illegible] per ounce.

SILVERITES' PLATFORM.

Bimetallism Demanded on a Ratio of Sixteen to One.

DANGERS OF A SINGLE STANDARD.

The United States Must Settle Her Financial Problems Without Reference to Other Nations—Governor Waite's Radical Views Evoke Thunders of Applause.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—While waiting for the report of the committee on resolutions at the silver convention dispatches were read from several labor unions, urging free silver, and addresses were delivered by Senator Hill, of Colorado, and Senator Allen, of Nebraska. Finally the convention took a recess, and on reassembling the resolutions committee presented its report.

The lengthy preamble, after stating that bimetallism is as ancient as human history, speaks of the efforts of the monometallists to create a single standard as an attack on the rights of the people which would have the effect of reducing the price of all commodities produced by labor, arresting enterprise, impoverishing the toiler and degrading mankind. The preamble quotes at length from the utterances of James G. Blaine, Daniel Webster and Secretary Carlisle in favor of bimetallic currency and from Senator Sherman against the dangers of monetary contraction. The platform declares:

"There must be no compromise of this question. All legislation demonetizing silver and restricting the coinage thereof must be immediately and completely repealed by an act restoring the coinage of the country to the conditions established by the founders of the nation, and which continued for over eighty years, without complaint from any part of our people.

"We protest against the financial policy of the United States being made upon the opinion or policies of any foreign government, and assert the power of this nation to stand on its own feet and legislate for itself on all subjects.

"We assert that the only remedy for our metallic financial troubles is to open the mints of the nation to gold and silver on the equal terms, at the old ratio of 16 of silver to 1 of gold. Whenever 412½ grains of standard silver are worth 100 cents in the United States they will be worth that sum everywhere else, and cannot be bought for less. While it will be urged that such a result would enhance the price of silver bullion, it is sufficient for us to know that a similar case would be immediately made in the price of every kind of property except gold and credits in the civilized world. The legislation to demonetize silver has given an unjust increase to the value of gold at the cost of the prosperity of mankind, wheat and all other agricultural products that have ridden side by side with silver.

"While the Sherman act of July 14, 1890, was a device of the enemy to prevent the restoration of free coinage and is greatly objectionable because it continues the practical exclusion of silver from the mints, and reduces it from a money metal to a commercial commodity; nevertheless its repeal, without the restoration of free coinage, would stop the expansion of our currency required by our growth in population and besides still widen the difference between the two precious metals, thus making the return to bimetallism more difficult; greatly increase the purchasing power of gold, still further breaking down the price of the products of the farmer, laborers, mechanics and the tradesman, and plunge still further all commerce, business and industry into such depths of wretchedness as to endanger preservation of free institutions and the very maintenance of civilization, we therefore, in the name of the republic and of humanity, protest against the repeal of the said act of July 14, 1890, except by an act restoring free bimetallic coinage, as it existed prior to 1873.

"We assert that the unparalleled calamities which now afflict the American people are not due to the so called Sherman act of 1890, and in proof thereof we call attention to the fact that the same evil conditions are now prevailing over all the gold standard world. We are now convinced that, bad as is the state of affairs in this country, it would have been still worse but for the Sherman act. We insist upon the execution of the laws without evasion so long as it is upon the statute books.

"We would call the attention of the people to the fact that in the midst of all troubles of the times the value of national bonds and the national legal tender money, whether made of gold, silver or paper, has not fallen a particle. The distrust is not of the government or its money, but of the banks, which have, we believe, precipitated the present panic on the country in an ill advised effort to control the action of congress on the silver question and the issue of bonds. We invite the bankers to attend to their legitimate business and permit the rest of the people to have their full share in the control of the government. We denounce the attempt to unconditionally repeal the Sherman law as an attempt to secure gold monometallism, in flagrant violation of the last national platform of all the political parties.

The first speaker of the afternoon session was John R. Lennon, of New York, representing the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. The Federation people, he said, are silver men because they are union men.

There was great applause when Governor Waite, of Colorado, was introduced as the next speaker. A number of enthusiastic delegates had been howling for two days for Waite, and when the chief executive of the Centennial state mounted the platform their cup of joy was overflowing. Cheer after cheer was given by delegates, who stood up and waived their hats wildly, and the ovation terminated with "three cheers for Governor Waite."

Governor Waite spoke at great length. In closing he said:

"Who is Grover Cleveland and who is Benjamin Harrison, and who are their supporters in Wall street and Chicago that they dare assume to drive into poverty and exile half a million of American freemen? There is no use crying peace when there is no peace. Most dangerous tyranny is that enforced under the forms of our law. Our weapons are arguments and ballots, free ballot and fair count. If the money power shall attempt to sustain its usurpation of our rights by strong hands, as in other lands, we will meet that issue if it is forced upon us. For it is better, infinitely better, rather than our liberties should be destroyed by the tyranny that is oppressing mankind all over the world, that we should wade through seas of blood—yea, blood to the horses' bridles."

Killed by an Electric Car.

Suicide of Colonel Frishmuth.

Colonel Frishmuth commanded the Fourth cavalry during the war of the rebellion and participated in most of the battles in which the Army of the Potomac engaged. He was the inventor of the patented process of making aluminium. It originally sold for $[illegible] a pound. By his method the price has been reduced to eighteen cents.

The Wage Trouble at Wernersville.

WERNERSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 3.—A number of the unpaid men at the Wernersville iron works yesterday seized the tools used about the buildings in course of construction, and also took a dumpy engine apart and concealed the several pieces. The engine was used for hoisting, etc. The men quieted down upon being promised weekly payments for all new work. They will secure counsel to collect the wages due them, said to amount to over $4,000.

Reducing Production at Norristown.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3.—A number of hands at the Norristown Steel works were laid off yesterday for an indefinite period, and those who remain were notified of a 10 per cent. reduction in their wages. A group of cigarmakers in the employ of W. S. Grush & Son were bemoaning the fact that they were laid off indefinitely. The Keystone hosiery factory of Norristown closed down, throwing about 150 hands out of employment.

No Agreement Reached.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Aug. 3.—Vice President Voorhees, of the Reading Railroad company, and the grievance committee representing employes of the Lehigh Valley company went into conference here at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and adjourned at 5 o'clock to meet again this afternoon. The session was held behind closed doors. After adjournment it was said that no agreement had been reached.

Quarreled Over Cards.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Carmino Tubercco, of Atlantic City, and Juan Gastelia, quarreled over a game of cards at the house of the latter in the Italian quarter in this city. The latter finally shot Tubercco in the abdomen. The wounded man ran into the street pursued by Gastelia, who put three more bullets into his victim's abdomen. Tubercco's physicians say he will die.

LEBANON COUNTY REPUBLICANS

Official Returns, It Is Said, Show More Votes Cast Than There Are Voters.

LEBANON, Pa., Aug. 3.—The official returns of the Lebanon county Republican primaries show the following Republican nominations: County treasurer, John L. Schultz, of Mill Creek; register of wills, Joseph Donley, of Independent district; recorder and clerk of quarter sessions, Ephraim M. Bolts, of Lebanon; clerk of orphans' court, John R. Fertig, of North Lebanon; county commissioners, Oliver H. Henry, of South Annville, and John I. Kreider, of Lebanon; director of the poor, Alfred G. Ream, of Jackson; county auditors, Albert B. Carmany, of Lebanon, and Henry E. Shelman, of Jonestown borough; delegates to the state convention, D. S. Bank, of East Hanover; Dr. Thomas V. Miller, of Heidelberg, and Andrew J. Merith, of Lebanon. On the question whether the Crawford county system should be continued, or whether there should be a return to the old delegate system of nominations, the vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the Crawford county system. There is considerable dissatisfaction and some talk among the friends of defeated candidates of contesting the result. It is charged that in one case more votes were cast than there are voters in the district of all parties.

Northampton County Democrats.

EASTON, Pa., Aug. 1.—The Northampton county Democrats held their nominating convention here. D. J. Godshalk, of Bethlehem, presided. Some four years ago, our little daughter Hattie, then 7 years of age, began to show SYMPTOMS OF SCROFULA.

The disease rapidly increased. We consulted one of KIND the best Physicians in the City, who began at once to treat her, but instead of abating the disease rapidly advanced. We became alarmed. Took her to Boston and placed her under the care of a famous Specialist, but in spite of his skill LARGE SORES FORMED on different parts of her body. The fingers of her THAT right hand swelled to twice their natural size, suppuration around the nails caused three of them to drop off. We were in despair. Hearing DANA'S SARSAPARILLA recommended as a Great Blood Purifier, we, as a last resort, concluded to try it. At first it seemed to hurt her. WE CAME NEAR GIVING IT UP. We read the directions, reduced the dose to half a CURES teaspoonful. When she had taken three bottles, we saw improvement. She has now taken eight bottles and is perfectly well—cheeks rosy—spirits buoyant. And the only thing left to remind us of her terrible condition, is the absence of the three nails whose entire roots were destroyed.

Gratefully yours, MR. & MRS. JAS. A. HARDY.
