FATHER ABRAHAM.

DOUGLAS Democrats! Will you follow such friends of Douglas, as Logan, Conness, Rawlings, Robert Martin Douglas, Holden and Cresswell, or obey the counsels of his rebel and Democratic enemies, J. S. Black, Wm. Bigler, Hiester Clymer, George W. Woodward and Jefferson Davis?

THE "Democratic" Sailors' and Soldiers Club of Washington city has busted. Last week its President resigned, and avowed himself for Grant, and a few days ago the Secretary did likewise. So the world moves, and so do "bread and butter" patriots.

E. RICHARDS was the first man to fly a Seymour and Blair flag in Boonville, near Utica. That flag has been taken down by Mr. Richards and the banner of Grant and Colfax substituted for it.

THE stone that hit the Democracy—the Keystone.

VOTERS OF GETTYSBURG! Are you ready to side with the men who made your town and county an acledama—a field of blood?

VOTERS OF CHAMBERSBURG! Are you prepared to vote with Gilmor and McCausland, and the men who laid your beautiful town in ashes?

ECHOES of the impeachment vote—the Texas, Mississippi and Louisiana murders.

SEYMOUR, in his stump speeches, has a thousand railing accusations to bring against the Republicans—but has the first unkind word to speak of the rebels! Mark him for this, loyal men, mark him!

BUT a few days are between us and election day. Let them be given to earnest and unremitting work!

THE Legislature of Indiana stands as follows: Senate—Republicans, 21; Democrats, 19. House of Representatives—Republicans, 55; Democrats, 43.

WE earnestly request that the Democratic party will hold together five days longer. As Butler once pithily remarked, it is a hard matter to kick at nothing.

HARTRANFT'S official majority in the State is 9,677.

N. R. HUTCHISON, heretofore an active Harrisburg "Democrat," who voted for Boyle and Ent on the 13th inst., publicly proclaims himself a Grant man.

THE spirit of repudiation is so strong in the Democratic party that they talk of repudiating their own candidates.

SEYMOUR to Grant, 1863: Where are your victories? Grant to Seymour, 1868: Where are your victories?

DURING the four years of rebellion Seymour never ventured half a square from home to crush it. Now a thousand miles are not too great a distance to travel to beg votes for the Presidency!

NOT a rebel was hung for his crimes. But since the close of the war thousands of loyal men have been murdered in the South for their loyalty. Elect Seymour and Blair and you will have this sort of thing continued.

THERE will be no side issues on the first Tuesday of November. Then the naked question comes up: Grant, the soldier statesman, or Seymour, the rebel sympathizer? Loyalty or disloyalty? A country or no country?

THE Louisville Journal says that "the result is disheartening," but "the duty of the Democracy is to stand firm." As the drunken man said, when he got a firm hold on the sidewalk: "Whirl on, ye can't get me off my balance now."

THE vote of every wounded soldier will have a great influence in deciding whether the pension he now receives shall be continued till his death. Remember, wounded soldier, the Democratic leaders have but to take one step more, to insure the repudiation of your pensions.

A GENTLEMAN, while recently visiting the Gettysburg battle-field, remarked to the guide that accompanied him that the supporters of Seymour and Blair ought to come there. "Ah," said the guide, "they don't come here, they don't like it. I have not taken ten Democrats over this ground except the Southerners, who have been here to look for their friends' graves. But of Republicans there have been many thousands."

SHALL rebels rule or not rule the country they tried so hard to distroy? This is the question to be decided on Tuesday next. Who doubts what the verdict of the American people will be?

Local Items.

'PUSH THINGS!'—REPUBLICAN MEETINGS IN THE COUNTY.—The following meetings in the county have been announced:

Georgetown, Friday evening, Oct. 30th. Speakers—Capt. J. P. Rea, J. B. Amwake, B. C. Kready, Ellwood Griest, A. C. Reinoehl and Emlen Franklin, Esqs.

East Hempfield, at the public house of Jacob Immel, Saturday evening, Oct. 31st. Speakers—J. P. Rea, Ellwood Griest. B. C. Kready and P. D. Baker, Esqs.

BERKS COUNTY.—Over six hundred Republicans throughout the county of Berks failed to cast their votes on the 13th, and this fact accounts for the increase of the Democratic majority to 6,500. At a meeting of the Committee on Saturday, measures were adopted to bring every voter to the polls, and indications are now that at the next election Berks will do a shade better.

On Saturday evening an immense meeting was held at Birdsboro, which was attended by over five hundred from the city of Reading, The meeting was addressed by Ex-Gov. Miller, of Minn., J. H. Seltzer, Esq., of Philad'a. That evening, a large meeting was held in front of the Union League House, Reading, which was addressed by Hon. J. W. Killinger and E. H. Rauch. Our friends, not only of the city, but of the interior of that county, are working now as they never worked before.

REAMSTOWN.—The Republican meeting at Reamstown, on Saturday afternoon and evening, was a large and very enthusiastic gathering—held opposite Rhoads' Hotel, where a speakers' stand was erected, and the occasion was enlivened by the excellent music of the Reamstown Band. The meeting in the afternoon was called to order by Capt. Godshalk, and was addressed by Messrs. E. H. Rauch and W. K. Seltzer, Esq's. The turnout in the evening was very large—including that live and patriotic organization of Tanners from Adamstown. The meeting was called to order by J. G. Garman, Esq., and presided over by Capt. Godshalk and a number of Vice Presidents, and ably addressed by Hon. G. A. Grow, Hon. E. Billingfelt, W. K. Seltzer, M. S. Fry, and H. B. Hendel. East Cocalico did well on the 13th inst. It will do still better on Tuesday next.

DR. C. GARBER:—This gentleman, well and fovorably known in the Northern part of the county, now residing in the city of Canton, Ohio, is working for Grant and Colfax just as he used to work here in the "Old Guard"—with rolled up sleeves and with all his might. We learn from the Canton Repository that the Doctor offered, "on his own hook," a beautiful banner to the district in Stark county showing the largest Republican gain at the October election, which was won by the township of Nimishillen. Go on Doctor! Give the Cops just one more dose, and then lay 'em out!

THE BANNER DISTRICT.—On Monday last, the County Committee awarded the prize banner to the borough of Mount Joy, having given an increase of fifty-six over the Republican majority of 1866.

Adamstown Borough, Manheim township, the Fourth ward of Lancaster city, East Lampeter and other districts were nearly as good as Mount Joy; but as the latter came out one length ahead, the prize was fairly won. Which district will give us the greatest increase on next Tuesday? We think it will be somewhere in the northern part of the county.

REPUBLICAN RALLY IN LANCASTER.—On Friday evening last a large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans of Lancaster city was held in the Court House, under the auspices of the Grant and Colfax Tanner's Club. Col. D. W. Patterson, presided, and introduced Col. J. W. Forney, editor of The Press, who made an able and telling speech, which was enthusiastically applauded. Col. Worrell, of Harrisburg, followed with amusing and entertaining remarks. The meeting adjourned at a late hour.

RETURNED HOME.—Our fellow townsman, Gen. J. W. Fisher, who has been engaged in stumping the State of Delaware, returned to his home a few days since. He represents the Republicans of that State as wide awake and determined to do their "last best" on Tuesday next. The General has been hard at work during the entire campaign, and by his forcible and eloquent speeches, has done good service for the cause of Liberty and Justice.

SEWING MACHINES.

DON'T READ THIS! SINGER'S SEWING MACHINE

Proved itself without a rival in the late test trial in this city with the Howe Machine.

We therefore present it to the consideration of an intelligent public as INCOMPARABLY the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN THE WORLD.

It is light running—almost noiseless—and adapted to a wider range of work than any other SEWING MACHINE,

While it is, at the same time, very simple indeed. A child can, with all ease, learn to use it in a short time.

We can assure the public that they will look to their OWN INTEREST, If in want of a SEWING MACHINE, TO SEE, TEST AND TRY THE SINGER, Before deciding to take it or any other Machine. Parties often come to town in search of a Machine, and then listen to the advice of interested parties, or those who have but a limited knowledge of the Machines in question.

BETTER SEE THEM FOR YOURSELVES, FRIENDS, And then you will not be deceived.
