Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 16,1880.

Alderman Jackson Vindicates Himself.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 14, 1880.

Messrs. Steinman & Hensel:

GENTLEMAN: Having seen a statement published in the Lancaster New Era of Friday, June 11, 1880, regarding the arrest of a certain Frank Deamer, by Constable Lyle, at Columbia—which statement is in general a tissue of falsehoods—I would kindly ask for space in the INTELLIGENCER to vindicate myself.

Falsehood No. 1. "And had been compelled to leave $50 with one of the aldermen as security for costs, &c." Now, there were no costs, &c., against him, and how could he leave $50 as security for costs, &c.?

Falsehood No. 2. "Lyle appeared before Alderman Jackson, of the Ninth ward, from whom he learned that Deamer had been arrested for riding on cars." Mr. Lyle never learned any such thing from Alderman Jackson, because he was not arrested for riding on the cars, and I distinctly told Mr. Lyle so.

Falsehood No. 3. "He was released upon the payment of $50, which the alderman and detectives held for costs and fines for riding upon freight trains upon this and former occasions." How could he pay $50 for costs and fines and at the same time leave it as security? as the correspondent states in falsehood No. 1. He should learn to cover his tracks or not make any.

Falsehood No. 4.—"But offered to give him (Lyle) a share of the $50 and let the matter drop." This I brand as an infamous lie and the gentleman? knew he lied when he said so. I do not make this assertion for the people of Harrisburg who know me, but for the public of Lancaster and Columbia who do not know me.

Falsehood No. 5. "District attorney Hollinger was then appealed to and his decision was that the alderman should keep both money and affidavit." Mr. Hollinger did not advise me to keep the affidavit, but to return it, which I did in his presence.

Falsehood No. 6. "The matter was then taken before Judge Pearson, who decided that Alderman Jackson should either give up the money or affidavit. The alderman took the latter course and handed back Mr. Lyle the affidavit." Judge Pearson was not consulted and consequently knew nothing about the matter—at that time.

I saw Mr. Lyle at the Pennsylvania depot in this city, to-day, and when I showed him the statement in the New Era, and pointed out the above falsehoods, he admitted that they were not true, and he also denied to me that he had told any person the above. I refused Mr. Lyle's request because the affidavit which he presented declared that the money was stolen, and I as an alderman and an officer of the commonwealth commissioned by the governor, and being—as such—superior to Mr. Lyle told him that I would hold the money subject to the order of the Clearfield county court, upon the conviction of the thief, which action any sensible man (newspaper correspondents included) would give me credit for. The money was not at any time held or claimed by me as costs or fines, and upon the proper legal authority will be paid or handed over to the rightful owner.

G. W. JACKSON, Alderman,
9th Ward, Harrisburg.

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, but now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The Parents. ju16-2wd&w

WHO IS UNDER?

We do not want you to get the impression that great reductions are being made in the prices of goods elsewhere and not here.

We are, as usual, below the market, and intend to stay there.

The following list embraces enough of our stock to give some clue to the rest of them. We quote articles now in great favor as low-priced goods; but in general they are not reduced. We have been there all the time.

But one thing we ought to remind you of: We may appear to be at a disadvantage when we are not, because of certain tactics sometimes employed, which we do not care to use, viz., the pretending to make reductions when none are made. We use reductions to clear stocks. That is perfectly honorable, and it is necessary in a large business. The losses thereby incurred, though sometimes considerable, are trifling in comparison with the benefit to remaining stocks.

Now then, anyone who will take measures to find out where the lowest prices are, compare sample with sample, price with price, will find we are not a whit behind ANYBODY, not even in a single item, so far as we know; and that we are below EVERYBODY on almost everything. Samples sent when written for.
