MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 10, 1883.

Looking at a Heap of Diamonds.

Precious stones representing over $350,000 sparkle in a space of three by four feet in a window of Howard & Co., at the south west corner of fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street New York. Half a dozen watchmen and detectives watch them continually. At night the jewels blaze out in the light of three powerful reflectors. Crowds surround the window until 10½ P. M., when the reflectors are darkened. The most attractive article on exhibition is a diamond necklace valued at $50,000. Another necklace, made up of diamonds and sapphires, is worth $17,000. An unset diamond weighing 19 karats flashes $8,000 worth, and a pair of ruby earrings, neither of which is as large as the 9 karat diamond, are valued at $25,000. They look like scintillating drops of blood. Their aggregate weight is 15 karats and a few thirty-seconds. A pearl necklace worth $12,000 surrounds an $8,000 diamond lace pin. There are also some cheaper articles, such as $3,000, rings, $5,000, bracelets, and 4,000 diamond crosses

The Romans as Prohibitionists

The Romans under the Republic were prohibitionists after a fashion. Men of honorable family were forbidden by law to drink wine before the age of 30, or to drink to excess; while for women of any condition, free or slave, to touch wine except on some occasion, as a sacrifice, was an offence visited by severe penalties. Hence originated the custom of girls kissing their parents on the lips as a means of discovery whether they had been sampling the contents of the family amphoræ. But the law as affecting women, was in time so far modified that they were permitted to drink wine made from boiled must or raisins.

For an appetizer, nothing is better than cabbage or the tops of turnips; for a stubborn cough or cold, don't forget, the best thing is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

The greatest contagion destroyer ever known is Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It prevents Small Pox.

First Revived and then Cured.

"Was troubled for a year with torpid liver and indigestion, and after trying everything imaginable used Burdock Blood Bitters. The first bottle revived me and the second cured me entirely. J. S. Williamson, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

We Challenge the World.

When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one-half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10c., 50c and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street. feb7-eod1

An Explanation.

No one medicine will cure everything but it is an incontestible fact that Thomas' Eclectric Oil will cure a sprain, a bruise, a bite or an ache, and is also an active and pronounced cure for neuralgia and rheumatism. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Reasons Why You Feel Badly.

Because your stomach is not doing its work properly.
Because your liver is out of order and wants righting.
Because your blood is thin, and needs iron in it.
Because you are troubled with nervous aches and pains
Because you are vexed with languor and debility.
All these reasons can be set aside by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters, which will Tone up your enfeebled stomach, and help it to digest.
Refresh your wearied liver and put it in splendid order.
Enrich your watery blood and give it a rich red color.
Calm your worried nerves, and give them restful peace
Strengthen your whole system and drive debility and languor out.

Considering that any man who has a dollar may buy of the nearest druggist a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, there is no reason why people should continue to feel badly, just for fun of it.

1018 LANCASTER AVENUE,
November 15, 1883.

MR. GEO. L. WALKER:

The four Pianos I purchased from you at different times—three for friends and the last one for myself—have proved to be magnificent instruments. They have given the most perfect satisfaction in every respect, and they cannot be surpassed for beautiful, clear, rich, full tone, fine finish, and standing in tune. I have formerly bought pianos on Chestnut street, paid a much higher price, and did not receive anything like as fine instruments. I shall advise all my friends, as it is to their benefit, when they are in need of a Piano, to purchase from you.

Respectfully yours, H. L. HALL.

I have received hundreds of letters similar to this, which I will show with pleasure.

There has been such a demand for LARGE PHOTOGRAPHS that I was compelled to get a VERY LARGE CAMERA BOX to meet the demand. We can now make you a PHOTO as small as the smallest locket will hold up to a 5-inch face, to fit an 18x22 Frame.
