PITTSBURGH:
FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 31.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS.

WASHINGTON, May 28th.

Rebels at Manassas Gap.

I am informed by a gentleman who came to-day from his farm beyond Manassas Gap Junction, in Madison county, and a resident of Washington, that he found no difficulty in obtaining passes through the rebel forces, and was treated very courteously by them. The Railroad being entirely destroyed from Manassas Gap to Centreville, he came in the baggage wagons of the First Regiment South Carolina militia, commanded by Col. Maxey Gregg, a distance of eight miles. All the distance on the mountains, pickets are to be seen within hailing distance of each other.

The Regiment is one thousand strong, and were accompanied by two hundred negroes, who carried their masters' arms, knapsacks, and in many cases an extra hat. The guns were strapped on the backs of the negroes. A peculiar feature was a full negro band. On arriving at the encampment at Centreville, eight miles from Manassas Gap, the Colonel elevated the Confederated flag upon a fence, and ordered the negro band to play Dixie. This gentleman says they played elegantly. They are waiting there expecting an attack at Manassas Gap.

The Movement Upon Virginia.

The following special telegrams to the N. Y. Tribune give such hints of the concentration of the Federal troops from several points, for the blow to be struck against treason in Virginia, as could be gained in the best informed quarters:

It is probable that Gen. M'Clelland, to-day, made a movement towards Harper's Ferry, with such a force as would take the rebels prisoners, or disperse them to the four quarters of Virginia.

The important movement to which I have before referred, is upon Grafton, Va., at the junction of the Baltimore and Ohio and Northwestern Railroad.

A large body of troops have already crossed the river, hastening to their rendezvous.

The Virginia detachment is at Grafton in considerably force, and it is believed that a collision is inevitable.

The march upon Richmond, to which we have alluded, would seem to be indicated by this and other dispositions of forces.

Harper's Ferry will probably be evacuated by this direction of columns, without any direct demonstration being made upon the troops there posted.

To-morrow a very important advance against the rebel forces at Harper's Ferry takes place from Philadelphia. Five regiments go forward via Harrisburg and Chambersburg under Gen. Patterson, simultaneous with the advance to be made from the West under the command of Gen. McClellan.

Judge Taney.

The intention of Judge Taney, in issuing a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoner retained by Gen. Cadwallader at Baltimore, is to bring on a collision between the Judicial and the Military Departments of the Government, and if possible to throw the weight of the judiciary against the United States and in favor of the rebels. He is at heart a rebel himself, for on Saturday, when it was supposed the rebels were attacking the United States forces at Arlington, Judge Taney expressed the wish that "the Virginians would wade to their waists in Northern blood." The animus of this exclamation will be apparent to any one; and the fact that Judge Taney, old and infirm as he is, volunteered to go to Baltimore to issue a writ in favor of a rebel, shows the alacrity with which he serves the cause of rebellion.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

The Baltimore and Ohio Road is now impassable. The War Department has been advised by telegram from Point of Rocks, the rebels not having interfered with communication thence, that last night they succeeded, after having made several vain attempts, in blowing, with gunpowder, a stupendous Rock, weighing sixty tuns, from a hillside near Harper's Ferry, upon the track. Several bridges on the road across the Buffalo Run are also blown up.

Cabinet Session.

The Cabinet met early, and continued long in session, to-day. An expression of approbation at the prompt response of the troops, when the order was issued to march into Virginia, was made by a member of the Cabinet, and responded to by the Cabinet generally.

The New Hampshire Regiment.

The New Hampshire Regiment marched up to the White House this morning, and thence to their camp ground near Georgetown. It was the observed of all observers. Their perfect equipment of hospital and baggage-wagons, the magnificent men and the sturdy horses, were heartily commended. They betrayed their New England origin in the forethought they manifested, but, to remove all doubts of their paternity, they marched up the avenue to the music of "Yankee Doodle," played by a full band. It made the heart leap and the eye glisten to see the brave boys keeping step to the good old tune that inspired their forefathers at Concord and Lexington and Bunker Hill.

A Compromise.

One of the rebels captured by our scouts appealed yesterday to Secretary Seward to aid him in recovering his liberty and his horse. He stated that he was from Munroe, N. Y., and that though armed and in the rebel ranks, he was not a rebel. He wanted to get off, and go back to Munroe co. Mr. Seward, I believe, ventured to compromise that he would aid him to recover his own liberty, but that his horse was too good a patriot to be given up to the rebels.

This is about as much compromise as Mr. Seward will now favor.

Secession in Kentucky.

A citizen of Paducah, Kentucky, who was pressingly invited to leave, reports the secession feeling in the six western counties of Kentucky as being fully equal to that of South Carolina. From the Tennessee river to the Mississippi mob-law and terrorism reign supreme. He affirms the remaining portion of the State to be faithful to the Constitution and friendly to the Union.

Vice-President Hamlin.

The Vice-President arrived here this morning. He is warmly welcomed by his many friends and acquaintances in this city. He is in for the war, talks very quietly concerning it, but agrees with Ex-Governor Banks that the Government should organize force sufficient and inaugurate such prompt measures and speedy action as will put an end to the traitorous scheme of the South at once.

The Pennsylvania Regiments.

The Fourth and Fifth Pennsylvania regiments, encamped about two miles north of the Capitol building, have had Gov. Curtin's letter read to them by the special agent sent on to examine and report upon their condition. They are already receiving new outfits, and every deficiency will be most scrupulously supplied.

Military Items.

The Government has made arrangements for putting the Orange and Alexandria Railroad in operation. The track is being repaired, and rolling stock is to be procured from the Pennsylvania Central—the resources of that road having been generously placed at the disposal of the Government. It is probable, too, that a track will be laid through Washington, to connect the Baltimore and Ohio with the Washington and Alexandria Railroad.

Gen. Scott has ordered home the regulars now in Utah. It is not deemed necessary at present to supply their place, there being no prospect of any renewal of the Mormon disturbances.

The Seventh Regiment is in camp. The time for which it volunteered has expired, but the regiment will not avail itself of its right to go home. It has reported ready for any duty which the Government may assign them. They await the orders of General Scott, and will obey them when received.

The reception of Mrs. Lincoln this evening was largely attended by the officers of the regiments now in this vicinity.

Comfort for Rebellious Postmasters.

A list of seceded postmasters has been made out at the Post Office Department, to which is appended the amounts for which they are proven delinquent. Duplicate lists will be given the commanding officers of the various divisions moving southward, with accompanying instructions concerning the treatment of the same. It is stated in good authority, that no class of men will meet with more severe punishment, of more summary, than that which will be visited upon these men.

The Rebels and New Mexico.

It has been ascertained that the rebel leader, Van Dorn, is at San Antonio, preparing for an invasion of New Mexico. He has under his command, fourteen companies of cavalry, five of infantry and one of artillery. The Federal forces in New Mexico number fifteen hundred men. If they do not show more fight than their comrades in Texas did, Van Dorn will have an easy victory.

Miscellaneous.

Mr. Lincoln has been informed by the officers of the army in Virginia, that both Union men and Secessionists were totally ignorant of the movement, until the troops of the Federal Government were moving to their doors. Nothing could have surprised the officers of the Secession forces more than the march into Virginia.

Since the seizure of the telegraphic manuscripts at the office here, the number of Washingtonians who have been suddenly called South is large. This morning a prominent dealer in firearms residing in an Eastern State called at the Department to inquire if it could be called treasonable for a manufacturing firm to send lists of prices to former customers at the South, and if telegraphic communication concerning the seizure of arms sold could be counted hurtful to the Government. He was told such acts were decidedly wrong, and would come within the definition of treason; whereupon he departed crestfallen, for he has indulged in both performances within the past month.

Two citizens of Alexandria, who on their word of honor declared that they were loyal to the United States, were recently granted passes, with permission to return to that city at pleasure. They went beyond the outside guards to-day, got into the bushes, and fired upon the guards of the United States Artillery. They were immediately pursued and shot. The passes referred to were found in their pockets.

The unfortunate man Foley, a private, who shot a sergeant in the United States army here, is sentenced to be hung on the 2d day of June.

From Alexandria.

I have been gauging the sentiment of Alexandria. A large number of men wished to vote for the Union, but were intimidated. A large portion are for the Union if the Union wins; for disunion if the latter wins.

The city is like a desert—shops closed, and people running away by every conveyance. Numbers are flocking to the Marshall House for the following pass:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
MILITARY DISTRICT OF ALEXANDRIA.
PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE, May 28, 1861.
Pass EDWIN JAMES.
Provost Marshal, F. W. WHITTLESEY.

It is understood that the within named Edwin James accepts this pass on his word of honor that he is loyal to United States, and if hereafter found in arms against the Union, the penalty will be death.

BY LAST EVENING'S MAIL.

[From the New York Papers of Wednesday Afternoon.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The Seventy first New York Regiment returned to its quarters in the Washington Navy Yard this morning. The New York Ninth has just gone to the Arsenal to procure arms.

It is understood that the Navy Department is rapidly completing its arrangements for the movements of war vessels to southern waters, and that the ports on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts will be effectually blockaded by the 10th of June.

The President has the Cadwallader case under consideration. There are many difficulties in the way, and the question of suspending the writ of habeas corpus is of so delicate a nature that a decision will be given by the Executive only after a careful deliberation.

Further returns of the Virginia Convention are received. The vote in Accotink precinct, near Mount Vernon, was seventy-six for Union and nineteen for Secession. Weixel county gives one hundred and thirteen for Union.

At Grafton, according to intelligence telegraphed hither by a trustworthy person from a neighboring station, there were 2,000 troops on Sunday, and more were pouring in from Harper's Ferry.

Several bridges had been destroyed, among them one at Clarksburg on the north-western road, and one about half way between Wheeling and Grafton. The Monocacy bridge, a strong one of iron, was threatened, but Gov. Hicks sent a strong body of Maryland troops to protect it.

One end only of the great rock blown down near Harper's Ferry had fallen upon the track, and two hours' work, with plenty of gunpowder, would suffice to remove it.

Gen. Johnston, it was said, considered that he had time sufficient to secure his retreat.

Gen. McClellan has thrown strong bodies of troops upon both Parkersburg and Wheeling, toward Grafton, but some delay would be occasioned by rebuilding bridges.

The force at Chambersburg also threatens Harper's Ferry, and if troops are thrown forward from this direction, on the Alexandria, Loudoun, and Hampshire Road, or to Manassas Junction, on the Orange and Alexandria Road, Gen. Johnston will find himself as in a bag, with the mouth closed.

It is now doubtful whether a direct attack will be made upon the Sewall's Point batteries. Gen. Butler's intrenching himself at Hampton and the neighborhood, looks like an advance up that side of James river by land, supported probably by the naval force.

Departure of the Naval Troops.

The steamer Coatzacoalcos went to sea this morning at 5 o'clock, with Colonel Bartlett's Naval Brigade on Board. It is destined for Fortress Monroe. The steamer took for the Brigade, five hundred Sharpe's rifles, two hundred Savage's revolvers, two rifled cannon and a quantity of shell, and six thousand cartridges. Less than one thousand men went on this occasion, the remainder of the complement, one thousand two hundred and fifty, will be recruited and sent forward.

New Orleans Blockaded—The Louisiana Rebels at the Mercy of the Government.

Mr. Robert Mackie, Lloyd's agent at this port, received this morning, the following telegraphic despatch from New Orleans:

"NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Our port is blockaded. Report to London."

This information may be relied on, coming from credible authority in New Orleans.

VALUABLE IMPROVEMENT
In Steam and Atmospheric Hammers.

LETTERS PATENT were granted on Sept. 4th, 1860, to Thomas Beach, for a very simple and efficient improvement in Steam and Atmospheric Hammers, whereby the full stroke of the hammer is obtained, no matter what be the thickness of the mass of iron to be hammered—thereby effecting a great increase of power where large pieces of metal are to be operated upon, and a corresponding saving of expense.

The subscribers are owners of said patent, and are desirous of selling rights to use said improvement, as well as territory under said patent. A model of said improvement is left at the office of Messrs. Bakewell & Cushing, Attorneys at Law, corner of Grant and Diamond streets, where parties interested may call and see it, and learn also the terms of license sale, &c. P. S. MEDICAL NOTICE.
DR. J. GOUCHER,
A GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK, and Student of Professor Valentine Mott; also, an Hospital Student of Prof. N. R. Smith, of Baltimore, has located himself at 107 FIFTH STREET. First door below the Cathedral, Pittsburgh, Pa., where he will give prompt attention to the examination and treatment of disease, to which he has had twenty years' experience.

In treating disease, ELECTRICITY is one of the remedies resorted to. The investigations of Philosophers and Chemists clearly demonstrate that the electrical current is identical with the nervous fluid, or at least identical in all that secures the same purpose. This being so, there should be a constant development of electricity for the sustentation of life. Each organ should be supplied with its electrical share, that life may progress with the activity necessary to health. If there is a derangement of the nerves leading to any particular organ, by which the nervous force is supplied, that organ will necessarily become diseased. Thus, if the fluid is diminished, the organ decreases in action; while, if the quantity is too great, other symptoms will manifest themselves which would be indicative of an opposite electrical treatment. If the voltaic current in its proper application is really a substitute for the nervous fluid, then is Electricity the agent with which to assist nature. The Doctor would not have the afflicted infer that he depreciates the curative powers of other remedies, for all use of Materia Medica whatever practical science has determined to be the most effectual in removing disease. Particular attention paid to DISEASES OF THROAT, LIVER, SPINE and DYSPEPSIA. Terms invariably cash. mh23ly
