Last evening Bartley Campbell's company appeared in the opera house in his successful drama entitled "The White Slave." Although the troupe is a very good one the play has been presented in better style here by some of the other companies. The leading characters were taken as follows last evening: Lisa, Miss Isabel Morris; Daphne, Miss Sidney Armstrong; Nance, Miss Virginia Buchanan; Clay Britton, Frank Roberts; William Lacey, Frank Forte; Judge Harden Scott Davis. The scenery was very fine and the colored singers add greatly to the production of the piece.

Got Lost in the Woods.

West Chester Village Record.

Consolation for Lancaster police officials is found in the late observation of a Pottstown constable, who recently went over to the Welsh mountains to arrest a wood chopper he had a warrant for. He says "he doesn't wonder that Abe Buzzard and his gang can defy arrest on the Welsh mountains, and that few people can form an idea of what a wild region the country thereabouts really is."

School Site Purchased.

The committee of the Lancaster school board to whom was referred the selection of a site for a new school building in the southern section of the city, have bought the property of Reddy Dougherty on the west side of South Prince street between Hazel and Hager. No one should miss this lecture; it is instructive and heartily enjoyable.

BRANDY. Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. SLAYMAKER, Agent for REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE, by a prominent practicing physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of more of the destructive diseases which sweep away by their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive, we present to the favorable notice of Invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease, Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

BRANDY.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

For all their ills and aches. Be it, however, strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

Reigart's Old Brandy,

Sold by our enterprising friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies—no matter with how many jaw breaking French titles they are branded. One fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics, would suffice to buy all the brandy to cure any such case or cases, in proof of the curative power of

Reigart's Old Brandy

In cases of Dyspepsia we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we will cite:

A hard working farmer had been afflicted with an exhausting Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against a kind of strong drink. When advised to try in his case, he looked up with astonishment; but after hearing of his wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was all taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he choose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine, he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practicing Physician.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Madison Square garden is thronged by an immense crowd to-day, watching the progress of the six days' walking match which ends to night at twelve o'clock. Rowell has been coming up and at this hour (noon) is but four miles behind Fitzgerald, and the betting on the two is about even, Rowell seeming to have more takers than Fitzgerald; the former is much the stronger looking. Fitzgerald has made frequent stoppages and looks thoroughly tired out; Rowell too is a little heavy and slow, but wears a most determined expression, and is the perfection of grace and elegance as compared with Fitzgerald. Nitaw-Eg-Ebow, the Indian, withdrew at nine o'clock this morning with a score of 157.

Petrington, a submarine diver and working on a Cay island, about 80 miles west of Port-au Prince, has been captured and burned by the natives. She had on board some $10,000 worth of wrecked cargo from the royal mail steamer Nile, which was plundered and destroyed. The crew were either killed or driven to the mountains by the natives. The government has dispatched a ship of war in search of the crew, but it is feared that they have been murdered, as the natives who seized the Garppler are savages.

No Grease for Him.

"When Greece her knees—Greece her knees—Greece her knees," stammered an embarrassed school boy, forgetting the next line of his recitation. "There is no occasion to grease anybody's knees," shouted the teacher. "Go and study your piece." Neither is there occasion to grease your hair. Parker's Hair Balsam is all the dressing you want. Restores the original gloss and color to gray or faded hair. Does not soil the linen; not a dye; good for the scalp; prevents falling out.
