[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

THE BATTLE AT CEDAR MOUNTAIN.

The Flight of "Stonewall" Jackson.

PURSUIT BY GENERAL BUFORD.

The Valley of the Shenandoah Clear of Armed Rebels.

CULPEPPER COURT HOUSE, VA., Aug. 12.—The flight of Jackson shows that he fears our troops. On Saturday he engaged with his whole force, numbering at least 30,000 men, a portion of the corps of Gen. Banks, who behaved nobly, holding the enemy in check, and with the aid of one division of Gens. McDowell's and Sigel's corps, which arrived late in the day, driving it from several positions and finally from the field of battle.

Jackson's loss can be scarcely less than fifteen hundred. Our loss is much less.

It was the bloodiest battle of the war.

Sunday Jackson remained idle, the troops on both sides being exhausted, and on Monday he asked for a truce to bury his dead, a large proportion of which lay on the field of battle, pending which he escaped with his trains. This morning his whole army was gone, pursued by Gen. Buford, with his cavalry and artillery, which quickened his pace towards Gordonsville, compelling him to burn the bridges to save himself, and obviously not intending to stop before reaching the fortifications at Richmond.

Gen. Pope has fully met the public expectation. The enemy show their backs only. The valley of the Shenandoah and the whole country from Manassas to Gordonsville is no longer polluted by the presence of armed rebels.

Jackson's servant has just come into the quarters of Gen. McDowell, and reports that Jackson admits a loss of over 2,000 men in the engagement of Saturday. No wonder the rebel General ran.

Negroes as Laborers--Order of Gen. Sherman--Another Rebel Iron-Clad Out.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 9.—Gen. Sherman issued orders that all negroes applying for work be engaged as laborers at Fort Pickens. They shall be entitled to rations and supplied with necessary clothing, but no wages are to be paid until the courts determine whether they are slaves or free. Accounts with each are to be kept, and credit for labor given. Slaves are to be allowed to return to their masters at the close of any week, but their masters are not allowed to enter the lines. Post Quartermasters are allowed to employ negroes on the same conditions, and, when necessary, take them by force. Commanders of Regiments are also allowed to employ a number—not exceeding 65 to a regiment—as cooks and teamsters. Negroes are not allowed to wear uniforms.

Gen. Sherman says to the people of Memphis and vicinity, that it is not his intention to disturb the relation existing between master and slave. When the courts are re-established, they will decide the cases which have already arisen and may arise.

In reply to the questions in regard to the government taking possession of all the vacant houses, Gen. Sherman says, Gen. Grant's order was issued under the rules of war and not under the Confiscation Act, and until the Courts are re-established to execute the provisions of the Confiscation Act, the government assumes the place of trustee, to account to the rightful owner at the proper time, for the property, rents, &c.

The steamer White Cloud, from Helena, has just arrived. She brings no news of importance.

It is reported that the new gunboat Richmond, formerly the "Star of the West," which has been building up the Yazoo river, got out of that stream into the Mississippi, and joined the Arkansas.

Arrival of the Bavaria--Sick and Wounded from Harrison's Landing --French Bark Released--Sailing of the Australasian.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The steamer Bavaria arrived at this port this morning.

The steamer Catawba, with 5,00 sick and wounded from Harrison's Landing, arrived this morning.

The French bark Harriet Rolli, which was seized at New Orleans, has been released by the government.

The steamer Australasian sailed to-day, with 90 passengers and $300,000 in specie.

Morgan's Men--War Meeting.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 13.—Eighth hundred men, belonging to John Morgan's force, crossed to the North side of the Cumberland river, four miles north of Bennett's Ferry, in Monroe county, on Monday last.

A large and enthusiastic war meeting was held at the Court House last night. The Councils were urged to appropriate $75,000 for bounties to volunteers.

Woolen Mill and Bridge Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—The woolen mill on Wissahicken creek, owned by Andrew Robertson, of New Bedford, and occupied by John Dobson, manufacturer of army blankets, was burned yesterday afternoon. The fire communicated to the Norristown Railroad bridge spanning the creek immediately above the mill. Both were destroyed. Loss, $50,000.

General Geary.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—A private dispatch received here, dated Culpepper, Va., this morning, says that Brigadier General Geary did not lose his arm in the late battle, as was reported. The dispatch adds that the General left for home this morning.

The Sixth Massachussetts Regiment.

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—The 6th Massachusetts regiment, which was assaulted in Baltimore, has volunteered for the nine months' quota.

DURING the late provincial tour of Gottschalk in Canada, he gave an exhibition of his patriotism to our neighbors. At his concert in Montreal, the house being crammed to overflowing, loud calls were made for "Dixie" as soon as the pianist took his seat. Such a reception, for a moment naturally confused the pianist, but collecting his ideas at once, he faced his audience and sat in silence for a few moments, with folded arms. When the tumult ceased he turned to his piano, and, as one of his companion says, played "Hail Columbia," the "Star Spangled Banner," and "Yankee Doodle," as they were never before played on that instrument. The audience were completely shamed, and acknowledging the rebuke, were liberal in their applause during the rest of the evening.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 103.]

AN ACT to incorporate the Guardian Society and reform juvenile offenders in the District of Columbia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Amos Kendall, John M. Brodhead, Zenas C. Robbins, Sayles J. Bowen, Nehemiah B. Northrup, Benjamin B. French, Joseph Bryan, Peter M. Higinbotham, Thomas C. Jenner, David W. Heath, James R. Barr, Mathew White, Samuel A. H. McKim, John R. Nourse, and Stephen Prentiss, and their associates and successors, being members of said society, by paying into its treasury the sum of two dollars annually, or life members, by paying fifty dollars at one time, or ten dollars annually, are hereby incorporated and made a body politic by the name of the "Guardian Society," for the purpose of encouraging and aiding impartially such of the poor, the ignorant, and the vicious, as can be induced to make such efforts as they ought for the improvement of their condition, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with the power to use a common seal, to sue and be sued, to plead and to be impleaded, in any court of the United States, to collect subscriptions, make laws and rules needful for the government of said corporation not repugnant to the laws of the United States; may have, hold, and receive real and personal estate, by purchase, gift, or devise; may use, sell, or convey the same for the purposes and benefit of said corporation; may choose such officers and teachers as they may deem necessary; prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That they may, at their discretion, receive into a house of industry provided by said society any minors, under the age of eighteen years, who shall be convicted of any crime, offence, or misdemeanor, other than such as are capital or punishable by imprisonment for life; and such persons shall be committed by the court or magistrate before whom the conviction shall be had, to said house of industry, with an alternate sentence to the jail or penitentiary of the District of Columbia, at the trustees decline to receive or keep them, and to the commitments shall be annexed the names and residences of the witnesses examined and the substance of the evidence given.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the court may, with the consent of accused persons, or their parents or guardians in writing, arrest proceedings at any time and commit them to the house of industry.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the trustees may receive any children at the request of the parents or guardians, or next friend, or the mother, if the fathers or dead, or has abandoned his family, or does not provide for their support, or is an habitual drunkard; such parents, guardians, or next friend, or mother, making a written surrender of such children.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the trustees shall, not be required to receive any offenders known to be extremely vicious, nor to keep any who may prove incorrigible, or whose continuance may be deemed injurious; and those whom any two of the trustees or the superintendent, if duly authorized by the board, shall refuse to keep shall refuse to receive or keep shall be disposed of according to their alternate sentences.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That persons committed as witnesses, and those under age of eighteen years committed for trial, shall be placed in the house of industry instead of the jail or penitentiary, unless they are so vicious that placing them in it should be deemed injurious.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That no commitment shall be for a shorter term than until the offender reforms or twenty-one years of age, except such as may be committed for trial or as witnesses; but any of them who may be deemed to be thoroughly reformed may be discharged during good behavior, on the order of the board of trustees, duly entered upon their record.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the superintendent may, with the concurrence of the board of trustees, govern the inmates, preserve order, enforce discipline, impart instruction in the veneration and love of God, in morality, useful knowledge, and some regular course of labor, and establish rules for the preservation of health and their proper physical, intellectual, and moral training, until they are reformed and discharged, or twenty-one years of age, or remanded as incorrigible. The trustees may bind out, with their consent, by indenture, any who may appear to be sufficiently reformed, where they will have the benefit of good example, wholesome instruction, and other means of improvement in virtue and knowledge, and the opportunity of becoming intelligent, moral, and useful members of society. They may appoint a committee of one or more of their own number to execute and deliver indentures, which shall be filed and kept in the office of the House of Industry. The superintendent may let out inmates to hire during the day time to employers whose work is not too distant from the house of industry for him to have the general inspection of their conduct and the treatment they receive.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That if any apprentices prove untrustworthy and unreformed, the trustees may at their discretion, permit their return, and order the indentures cancelled. Fugitives from the house of industry, or from apprenticeship may be arrested and returned to the house of industry by a sheriff, constable, police officer, or an officer of the house of industry, on the written order of any two of the trustees or the superintendent.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That persons under the age of eighteen years shall be entitled to a private examination and trial, if they request it in writing, in which only the parties shall be admitted, their parents, guardians, or other legal representatives.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That the expenses of maintenance of the inmates committed for offenses against the people, or for trial, or as witnesses, shall be paid by the county, and those of persons committed by parents, guardians, or next friends, shall be paid by the persons committing them, unless the trustees shall otherwise determine. The rates of expenses shall be fixed by the board of trustees.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the grounds and buildings thereon, for the use of said society, shall be exempt from taxation.

Approved, July 1, 1862.

[PUBLIC—No. 104.]

AN ACT to punish and prevent the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the United States and other places, and disapproving and annulling certain acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every person having a husband or wife living, who shall marry any other person, whether married or single, in a Territory of the United States, or other place over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, shall, except in the cases specified in the provisions to this section, be adjudged guilty of bigamy, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for a term not to exceed five years: Provided, nevertheless; That this section shall not extend to any person by reason of any former marriage whose husband or wife by such marriage shall have been absent for five successive years without being known to such person within that time to be living; nor to any person by reason of any former marriage which shall have been dissolved by the decree of a competent court; nor to any person by reason of any former marriage which shall have been annulled or pronounced void by the sentence or decree of a competent court on the ground of the nullity of the marriage contract.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the following ordinance of the provisional government of the State of Deseret, so called, namely: "An ordinance incorporating the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," passed February eight, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, and adopted, re-enacted, and made valid by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah by an act passed January nineteen, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-five, entitled "An act in relation to the compilation and revision of the laws and resolutions in force in Utah Territory, their publication and distribution," and all other acts and parts of acts heretofore passed by the said Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, which time, or ten dollars annually, are hereby incorporated and made a body politic by the name of the "Guardian Society," for the purpose of encouraging and aiding impartially such of the poor, the ignorant, and the vicious, as can be induced to make such efforts as they ought for the improvement of their condition, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with the power to use a common seal, to sue and be sued, to plead and to be impleaded, in any court of the United States, to collect subscriptions, make laws and rules needful for the government of said corporation not repugnant to the laws of the United States; may have, hold, and receive real and personal estate, by purchase, gift, or devise; may use, sell, or convey the same for the purposes and benefit of said corporation; may choose such officers and teachers as they may deem necessary; prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any corporation or association for religious or charitable purposes to acquire or hold real estate in any Territory of the United States during the existence of the Territorial Government of a greater value than fifty thousand dollars; and all real estate acquired or held by any such corporation or association contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States: Provided, That existing vested rights in real estate shall not be impaired by the provisions of this section.

Approved, July 1, 1862.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WEDNESDAY, August 13.—The general market continues exceedingly quiet and dull with no new feature to notice except a slight advance in flour. Groceries and grain are dull and inactive while provisions are steady with an advancing tendency. The demand for all of the leading articles is limited and the transactions are principally of a local character.

FLOUR—is very firm and prices will undergo a still further advance. The stock in market is very light and hardly equal to the demand. Sale of 48 bbls Family at $5,10@5,30; 40 do do at $5,30 and 50 do do at the same figure. Rye Flour is held at $3,-90@3,00.

GROCERIES—dull and neglected, without, however, any change in rates. We quote sugar at 9⅞@10½c. Molasses 53@55c and coffee at 22½@23½c.

BACON—The demand for bacon continues light though prices are firm with an upward tendency. Sale of 2000 lbs plain hams at 7½c; 1000 lbs plain canvassed at 8c and 10 tcs sugar cured at 10c. Shoulders are held at 4@4½c.

WHEAT—in consequence of the light receipts and limited supply in market wheat has advanced and is now worth $1,00 for good red from first hands and $1,05 for white.

REFINED OIL—is steady but unchanged. Sale of 500 bbls at 24c per gallon—cash.

GREEN FRUIT—Sale of 45 bush Peaches at $1,75 for inferior, $2,25 for common and $3 to $3,25 for prime; and 15 bbls apples at $1,75 to $2,25 per bbl.

WHISKY—is steady with small sales of common at 30@31c.

CHEESE—unchanged. Prime W. R. is selling at 7c and common at 6@6½c.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NORTHERN MISSOURI.

The Hannibal and St. Joseph R. R. Co. have for sale OVER 500,000 ACRES of the best PRAIRIE AND TIMBER FARMING LAND IN THE WEST, at low prices, on two years' credit, at five per cent. interest. Twenty per cent. is deducted for full payment in cash, or in the Land Bonds of the Company, taken at par. If payment is made within two years from date of purchase, with interest, at five per cent. the market price of these bonds is from 70 to 80 per cent. below par, which affords an extraordinary opportunity to buy any of the Company's lands discired, very much below real value.

A FREE TRIP TICKET is given to Land Buyers, and they are charged only half freight on all building materials wanted from Hannibal for first improvements on land bought of the Railroad Company.

Inducements to emigrate to Northern Missouri, Briefly stated, are as follows:

A mild, healthy climate, rich soil; cheap lands, the productions of which pay for them, expenses and improvements too, much within the limit of credit given; a larger variety of staple productions, embracing all cereals, hemp, tobacco, Chinese sugar cane in perfection, Irish and sweet potatoes, choice sugar cane including grapes for wine, and peaches, the best of other region further south or north; pure water, timber, wood, coal, lime, fine building rock, clay for brick, and sand for mortar, are abundant and conveniently distributed; its prairies are ready for the plow; a spring emigrant can plant "sod corn" in the latter part of June, and gather a valuable crop the succeeding autumn for fattening great quantities of beeves and hogs; it is only necessary to buy land enough for buildings, yards, orchards, vineyards and crops to be enclosed, as prairies supply any quantity of excellent hay free of other cost than cutting and raking at less than one dollar per ton, and as fodder-hay, comparatively, is needed; best of open pasturage, costing nothing, neither interest nor taxes, enabling the stock-raiser or wool-grower to keep horses and mules by the score, herds of cattle and swine by the hundreds, and flocks of sheep by the thousand; all the markets are accessible by telegraph, rail and water, and the local cash demand for wool, hemp, tobacco, horses, mules, fat hogs, cattle and sheep, to export, is ample for the supply. All these advantages are within three days' travel of any Atlantic city, for less than $25 fare. Such immense resources remain unimproved!

Missouri is loyal! Secession is played out! It is now perfectly safe to emigrate to Northern Missouri, and the loyal are going. It will soon be a free state. Opposers concede it, and the highest controlling interests of the state demand it. Loyal stockholders unite with Union-loving citizens in boldly advocating emancipation, as advised by the President and approved by Congress.

COLONIZATION.

Emigrants settling in colonies, will contribute greatly to each other's advantage. Large and choice bodies of land offered, furnish them every facility. To colonies successfully, co-operation is necessary, easy and practical by a little concerted action.

Now is the time for multitudes, with prudent foresight and action, to secure, with little money, rich farms and happy homes, which must rapidly increase in value, for themselves and their posterity.

CAPITALISTS, AND OTHERS,

Can now, with little labor, find a perfect security to themselves, assist their more destitute but industrious and capable friends to acquire, in a little time, valuable farms and pleasant homesteads. The land will abundantly secure the requisite advance, and a little prudent forethought will secure competence for old age.

Pamphlets containing skeleton maps, showing geographical position, railroad connections, and giving full information are sent gratis. Let all wishing to enlist their friends to emigrate with them, apply for all they want to circulate. Co-operation in this way will be of mutual advantage to all.
