MISCELLANY.

THE WAY TO SETTLE DISPUTED ACCOUNTS.—The following was related many years since, to the writer, by one of the parties, who was a very respectable citizen of Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, since deceased:

During the Presidential term of Thomas Jefferson, two young men from Pennsylvania took a lease from him of his merchant mill, at Monticello, one of the stipulations of which was that the landlord should erect, for their use, within a given time, a cooper's shop. The time for the meeting of Congress soon arriving, the President had to repair to Washington to attend to his official duties, where he remained for a long time absorbed in national concerns, and the building of the cooper's shop was entirely forgotten by him; not so with his tenants, whose daily wants constantly reminded them of the provisions contained in the lease; and finally they determined to erect it themselves, and charge the cost of it to the landlord.

On the return of the President to his mansion, the parties met to settle a long account current which had been running during his absence: the items were gone over and scrutinized one by one, and were found satisfactory but that of the charge for building the cooper's shop, which he objected to, alleging that he could have erected it with his own workmen. Several attempts were made to effect a settlement, but they always failed when they came to the cooper's shop; the young men became warm and zealous in the affair, and the parties, instead of getting nearer together, found themselves at every interview wider apart.

In this state of affairs, the father of the young men, who was a mild, affable, conciliating gentleman, possessing some knowledge of the world and its ways, arrived on a visit to his sons, who informed him of their difficulty with their landlord. He requested them to leave it to him, observing that he thought he could effect an amicable settlement in the case. This course was acceded to, and in due time he waited on the President with the account, which was scanned and agreed to, except the charge for building the shop, which he said with some firmness, that he should not allow, for reasons stated. His opponent, observing his apparent decision on the subject, very gravely remarked, "Well, friend Jefferson, it has always been my practice through life to yield rather than contend." Immediately on this remark being made, the President's chin fell on his breast for an instant, and then raising his head in an upright position, he observed, in a very emphatic manner, "a very good principle, Mr. Shoemaker, and I can carry it as far as you can: let the account for the cooper's shop be allowed." Thus ended the difficulty, and the parties continued their friendly regard for each other till death separated them; and the cultivation of a similar disposition to "follow peace with all men," would terminate thousands of difficulties every year, and add much to the happiness of individuals, and tend to promote the general harmony and order of society.

Never Frighten Any One.

The following article, from the London Magazine, administers a solemn warning against the practice in which the young are sometimes tempted to indulge, of frightening their companions by way of pastime:—

"The sister of a medical man in London had, in the presence of two young gentlemen, who were studying medicine with her brother, ridiculed the weakness and folly by which some people were governed. She said, for her part, she had no superstitious fears, and had courage for any emergency that might happen. The young men doubted the truth of her boastings, and one of them proposed to the other that merely by way of joke they would put her courage to the test. In a glass case in the doctor's study was a human skeleton. This they removed and placed in the young lady's bed. She retired at the usual hour, and they stealthily followed her to listen. Some time elapsed; and no sound was heard. They were about descending the stairs, thinking that their jest had failed, and that in reality she was as courageous as she had boasted herself to be. Scarcely had they come to the conclusion, ere their ears were assailed by a most appalling shriek, after which all became silent. They retired, pleased with their success, and thinking of the laugh and joke they would have with her in the morning at breakfast.

Morning came—but she did not come down as usual. They suffered an hour or so to elapse, and her brother, thinking she might have overslept herself, knocked for admittance, calling her by name at the same time. No answer being returned, he and the young men forced her door, and sad to relate, there sat the poor girl, playing with the bony fingers of the grim and appalling skeleton, quite unconscious of the presence of the intruders—there the poor thing sat a confirmed idiot for life! When she gave that fearful shriek, the reason fled, never to return. It is needless to remark on the remorse that attended the after lives of the two young men."

POINTED SERMONS.—Many years ago, there graduated at Harvard University a man by the name of Rawson, who subsequently settled in the ministry at Yarmouth, on Cape Cod. He used to preach very pointed sermons. Having heard that some of his parishioners were in the habit of making him the subject of their mirth at a grog shop, he one Sabbath preached a discourse from the text, "And I was the song of the drunkard." His remarks were of a very moving character, as many of his hearers rose and left the house. A short time afterwards he delivered a discourse still more pointed: "And they, being convicted by their own consciences, went out one by one." On this occasion no one ventured to retire from the assembly, but the guilty ones listened in silence to the lash of their pastor.

"We have but a little while to stay in this world, and when we leave it we carry nothing with us but our moral character, a good or a bad conscience, our guilt or our innocence. How important it is then to look after those things which we must take with us, rather than those things which we must leave behind.

DEATHS AT POINT ISABEL.—The official statement of deaths that occurred in the General Hospital at Point Isabel, for the year ending May 9th, as published in the New Orleans Picayune, puts the total at 82. Of this number 41 were volunteers and 41 regulars. The total number of cases in the hospital during the year was 1,368.

MOUSTACHES.—"They sift the air before passing into the lungs," says an English medical writer in their behalf. A German gentleman of our acquaintance commends them because they serve as strainers for one's soup.

GOING TO LAW.—Dr. Johnson compared plaintiff and defendant, in an action of law, to two men jucking their heads in a bucket, and daring each other to remain longest under water.

MEDICAL.

TO THE SICK AND AFFLICTED.
DR. SWAYNE'S
GREAT DISCOVERY.
The great Remedy for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Spitting Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side and Breast, Palpitation of the Heart, Influenza, Croup, Broken Constitution, Sore Throat, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the Throat, Breast and Lungs; the most effectual and speedy cure ever known for any of above diseases, is DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

ANOTHER LIVING WITNESS.—Read with astonishment the wonderful cure performed by Doctor Swayne's Compound Syrup of WILD CHERRY.

PHILADELPHIA, January 23, 1847.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir: In justice to yourself and a duty I owe to suffering humanity, I cheerfully give my testimony, and declare to the world the most astonishing effects, and the great cure your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry performed on me, under the most unfavorable circumstances. I was taken with a violent Cough, Spitting of Blood, severe Pains in the Side and Breast, which seemed to break down and enfeeble my constitution, so that my physician thought my case beyond the power of medicine, and my friends all gave me up to die; but thanks to you and the effects of your great discovery, I now feel myself a well man, and raised from a mere skeleton to as healthy and healthy a man as I have been for years, and shall be pleased to give any information respecting my case, by calling at my residence, Mechanic street, third door below George street, Northern Liberties. JACOB FAISTER.

Testimony is now received from all quarters o the Globe.

The following letters are presented with a view of more fully showing the opinions of Physicians in relation to the Medical value of Dr. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir: Having used your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry extensively in my practice, I was requested by your Agent, Doctor Crutcher, to express my opinion in writing of its properties as a remedial agent; I most cheerfully comply, as I feel by so doing, I will discharge a debt I owe the community at large, and Physicians in particular. As much as I detest Quack Remedies and Patent Nostrums, I was induced from a failure of the most potent expectorants, recommended in our materia medica in some cases of Diseased Lungs, to try your preparation of Prunus Virginia or Wild Cherry. It is sufficient to say that I was so much pleased with the result of that and subsequent trials, that I now prescribe it in preference to all other Remedies where an expectorant is indicated. In the much dreaded Pneumonia or Disease of the Lungs, in the alarming form in which it appears in Kentucky, I regard it as an invaluable Remedy in the treatment of that disease. To all who know me I have said enough, but as the time may be seen by persons out of the vicinity of Frankfort, I will briefly add, that I have been engaged in an active practice of my profession for 12 years, and am a Regular Graduate of Transylvania, and was the first Patent Medicine I ever thought enough of to express an opinion in writing.

Druggist and Apothecary.

Testimonials will never cease.

From the Temperance Pledge.

Now that Winter is upon us with its attendant train of Pulmonic and Bronchial affections, Coughs Colds, &c. &c., we would advise those afflicted in this way to make immediate trial of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. It will never fail to perform a permanent cure. The reputation of this medicine has caused many spurious articles to be put forth under its name; but the genuine Syrup of Dr. Swayne, besides being the first ever offered to the public, is the only one that can be relied on. The other mixtures sold for Wild Cherry Syrup, Balsams, &c., are all spurious and worthless, and contain none of the virtues of the original preparation, Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry.

From the Springfield Express.

Of the thousands of purported curative nostrums now before the public, but very few are found to possess the healing virtues for which they are recommended. Among the latter we are pleased to learn, must stand a better test than Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. The afflicted in this vicinity are beginning to use it, and to their joy they find in its use their hopes based upon its recommendations more than realized. The afflicted need not despair. While there is life, there now is hope.

A CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

☞ Since the introduction of my article to the public, there have a number of unprincipled individuals got up nostrums which they assert contain Wild Cherry, some are called "Balsams," "Bitters," and even Syrup of Wild Cherry, but mine is the original and only genuine preparation ever introduced to the public, which can be proven by the public Records of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The only safeguard against imposition is to see that my signature is on each bottle.

DR. H. SWAYNE.

STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY, CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT.

IS now universally acknowledged to be the INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Lungs, Pleurisy, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Back and Chest, Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth Ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frozen Feet, and all Nervous Diseases.

The TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS which has attended the application of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in curing the most severe cases of the different Diseases above mentioned, and the HIGH ENCOMIUMS that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the AFFLICTED to resort at once to the ONLY REMEDY THAT CAN BE RELIED ON.

☞ The faculty unite in recommending the celebrated External Remedy, Hunt's Liniment.

The following letter from the highly eminent Physicians who have been attached to the Mount Pleasant State Prison for many years, is the best evidence of the superior efficacy of this Liniment.

SING SING, December 26, 1845.

My Dear Sir—I received your note of yesterday, asking my opinion in relation to Hunt's Liniment, as prepared by Mr George E Stanton. Knowing its composition, and having frequently used it, I can recommend it to you as a safe External Remedy, and in my opinion, the best Liniment now in use. Very truly and respectfully yours,

A K HOFFMAN.

Col Pierre Van Cortlandt, Croton Manor.

I fully concur in the above opinion.

W A BELCHER.

YONKERS, Jan. 14, 1846.

Sir—In reply to your letter, I would say that I have used your External Remedy, called Hunt's Liniment, in my practice since you made me acquainted with its composition, and unhesitatingly say that I believe it to be the best External Remedy now in use for the complaints for which you recommend it. Yours respectfully,

BENJ D MILLER, M. D.

Geo E Stanton, Esq.

☞ Among the mass of worthless articles and humbugs that are poured forth at the present day upon the country, it is really refreshing to find something of real practical utility, something simple, speedy and effectual in its operation, and at the same time free from those injurious effects which generally attend powerful remedies. Hunt's Liniment, prepared by Geo. E. Stanton, of Sing Sing, though it has been but a short time before the public, has already obtained the confidence, not only of our most wealthy and influential citizens, but our most eminent physicians. All acknowledge it to be a sovereign balm for many of the ills that flesh is heir to, soothing the aching limb, and by its genuine stimulating influence, banishing disease from the system.

Mr. Stanton—Sir—Seeing your advertisement of Hunt's Liniment, I was induced to try its effects on my son, who had been crippled with a lame back from an infant, and it is with gratitude I bear testimony to its wonderful healing properties. My child, who is now five years of age, is now in a fair way of recovery. Yours, &c.

P. S. I would also state that I have been for a number of years subject to frequent attacks of the Rheumatism, which is many instances prevented my attending to my business. Two or three applications of the Liniment invariably remove all affections of the kind. In cases of bruises, sprains and sores, too numerous to mention, it has in this vicinity proved a certain remedy. Its value can only be estimated by those who have given it a fair trial.

This Liniment is sold at 25 and 50 cents per bottle, by all the Principal Druggists and Merchants throughout the country.

MEDICAL.

DR. ROSE'S
DESERVEDLY CELEBRATED CHRONO-THERMEL MEDICINES.

CONSISTING of his Celebrated Cordial Cathartic, Tonic Aperient, Cooling Cathartic, Cough Syrup, Croup Syrup, Concentrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, decidedly superior to all other extracts, having given relief when all others have failed, being thus a new process more concentrated, than any other ever offered to the public. ASTHMATIC ELIXIR, having effected permanent cures in the worst form of disease, when of more than 12 years standing, hence it stands without a rival in that much dreaded disease.

Dr. Rose's LINIMENT, for all cases of weakness or pain, and a complete substitute for blisters.

Dr. Rose's TONIC MIXTURE, an infallible cure for chills and fevers, and indeed is more of a specific for fevers of all kinds than bark or Quinine.

Dr. Rose's INCOMPARABLE VERMIFUGE, where known, is used in preference to any other Vermifuge preparation.

Dr. Rose's TONIC ANTI-DISPEPTIC, for all diseases of the Stomach and bowels, Cholera infantum, &c. Too high an encomium cannot be passed on the merits of this medicine, in cure of Dispepsia, and all diseases that result from weakness of stomach and bad digestion.

Dr. Rose's FEMALE PILLS, a most valuable remedy for those general complaints to which females are subject.

Dr. Rose's TONIC ALTERATIVE PILLS—No pill ever before offered the public so happily combines the qualities of a valuable medicine, as an anti-dispeptic, LIVER or Stomachic pill, correcting those diseases, and thereby preventing consumption. A young Lady 25 years of age, having a diseased liver for some time, her strength prostrated and dispeptic pains, was completely cured in six weeks by the use of the Anti-dispeptic mixture and these pills alone.

Dr. Rose's CHRONO-THERMEL STRENGTHENING PLASTER, for weakness of the back, side breast, &c.

Dr. Rose's SPECIFIC EPILEPSY, the most certain remedy for all cases of fits or convulsions, whether in infants or adults. So certain a specific is it for this formidable disease that the most obstinate cases, and those too of long standing, have yielded at once.

Dr. Rose's RHEUMATIC MIXTURE—After many years of disappointment, this medicine has been offered, and its never failing efficacy places its efficiency above all others for the cure of Rheumatism.

Dr. Rose's ITCH OINTMENT, which is a certain remedy for spitting blood, indeed for discharges of blood whether from Lungs, bowels or other parts of the system.

Dr. Rose's SYRUP for Cholera and Bowel complaints—This mixture will effectually cure all bowel complaints, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera. At the time the Asiatic Cholera was raging in Philadelphia it was found to be the most valuable remedy, and in one minute after all those who used it.

What may be said of one of these remedies may by and of all their value will only be appreciated by those who try them. Letters from those who have been cured of the various maladies for which the remedy might be given, but we are willing to rest the matter on the merits of the compounds. We have a number of testimonials in our possession, so numerous and efficacious that its healing power has astonished many. A case of Cancer, occurring in the wife of an late Governor of Delaware, was completely cured in a few months. The cancer had been twice cut out by prominent Surgeons, and removed, but with no permanent benefit, yet notwithstanding the debility of Constitution and removal of the soft parts, by the use of Dr. Rose's medicines we have used in our family for many years. For instance the EXPECTORANT, the CARMINATIVE, and VERMIFUGE, have been found to be good for the complaints they profess to cure. We serve on Lake Ontario in the steamboat, where several of our travelling companions, from having in Western New York, drank, for many days, the limestone water of that region, were taken with Cholera Morbus, Cholera, and Dysentery. Mr. H. had provided himself, previous to leaving home, with "the Chairmaster of Dr Rose," and in all cases of its use, among five gentlemen, it was successful in effecting a speedy cure.

The Expectorant we have known used among our intimate friends with equal success, and we feel that we shall do a good act to families (especially those situated as they cannot have access to immediate medical skill) to advise them to keep on hand both the Expectorant and Carminative. The Expectorant is believed by good physicians to be the best recipe for Pulmonary Consumptive Complaints, that has ever yet been compounded. The reason is, Dr. Rose does not squack, but a regular, scientific, and able medical practitioner himself. His medicines are used by the first physicians.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PILES.

DR. INGOLDSBY'S Pile Specific, an internal remedy for a certain and radical cure, whether internal, external, bleeding or blind, also, for irritation of the kidneys and bladder, pains in the back and side, habitual costiveness, strictures, &c.

Females before and after confinement are often troubled with constipation of the bowels or costiveness, as well as the piles. In all such cases the Specific can be taken with perfect safety, and as a certain remedy. The Specific is not a purgative, and is an entirely vegetable remedy, without a particle of calomel, antimony or any other medicine to make it dangerous in the most delicate cases.

This is to certify that I know Dr. Ingoldsby's Pile Specific, to be a certain cure and safe remedy. Having seen its effect in several cases, amongst my family connections, in several confirmed and severe cases of the piles, where it made an entire cure in every case. HENRY WHITEHEAD.

New York, May, 1845. 264 Sixth street.

I cheerfully give my testimony as to the certain and satisfying effects of Dr. Ingoldsby's Piles Specific, as I know it from my own experience and observation, to be infallible; having seen it used with success in several cases of piles, male and female. GEO. MILLER,

New York, May, 1845. 264 Sixth street.

LADIES' CERTIFICATES

Mr. Drab—Dear Sir—I have the pleasure to say, that your medicine, Dr. Ingoldsby's Piles Specific, has made a perfect cure in the case of my sister, and I now give you my word that I have been surprised at it, as it was in my opinion impossible to cure her. However, I can now testify to the medicine as being infallible, and do advise all others who are afflicted in the like manner, to procure the article, as they may depend on a certain cure.

Yours with respect,

West Chester, N. Y., May 15, 1845.

Dr. Ingoldsby—Dear Sir—That you may benefit others who may be suffering, as well as to express my gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the use of your valuable Specific, I comply with your request, and now do give my testimony in favor of it, having been cured of a severe attack of the Piles after having used other remedies without success.

Yours with respect.

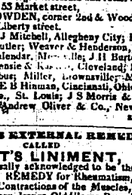
MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE.



No. 65 DIAMOND ALLEY, a few doors below Wood street, towards the market.

DR. BROWN

Having been regularly educated to the medical profession, and been for some time in the hospitals, continues to the treatment of those private and delicate complaints, which require peculiarities and experience peculiarly suitable. Sixteen years of large business, in the cure of these complaints, and the treatment of those complaints, during which time he has had more practice and more patronage than any other fellow in the city (or a private practitioner) enably qualifies him to offer as strongest of speedy, permanent, and satisfactory cures to all afflicted with delicate diseases, and all diseases arising therefrom.

Dr. Brown would inform those afflicted with private diseases that neglected or improper chronic by time or aggravated by the use of any of the common nostrums of the day, that such complaints can be relieved or they can be roughly cured, by having given his careful attention to the treatment of such cases, and successed in hundreds of instances in curing cases of Gleet, Stricture, Pain in the bladder, and kindred diseases which often result from those cases when others have pronounced them to be hopeless of cure. He particularly invites such as have been long and unsuccessfully treated by others to consult him, where every satisfaction will be given them and their cases treated in a careful, thorough and intelligent manner, pointed out by long experience, and strictly in the religious, which is a guarantee for those engaged in general practice of medicine to give any one class a direct.

☞ Hernia or Rupture—Dr. Brown also treats persons afflicted with Hernia to call, as he has paid particular attention to this disease.

DR. JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES.—It is our principle in the management of this paper to notice anything which we find out, (from personal inquiry,) to be of utility to the public. Some of Dr. Jayne's medicines we have used in our family for many years. For instance the EXPECTORANT, the CARMINATIVE, and VERMIFUGE, have been found to be good for the complaints they profess to cure. We serve on Lake Ontario in the steamboat, where several of our travelling companions, from having in Western New York, drank, for many days, the limestone water of that region, were taken with Cholera Morbus, Cholera, and Dysentery. Mr. H. had provided himself, previous to leaving home, with "the Chairmaster of Dr Jayne," and in all cases of its use, among five gentlemen, it was successful in effecting a speedy cure.

The Expectorant we have known used among our intimate friends with equal success, and we feel that we shall do a good act to families (especially those situated so they cannot have access to immediate medical skill) to advise them to keep on hand both the Expectorant and Carminative. The Expectorant is believed by good physicians to be the best recipe for Pulmonary Consumptive Complaints, that has ever yet been compounded. The reason is, Dr. Jayne does not squack, but a regular, scientific, and able medical practitioner himself. His medicines are used by the first physicians.
