A Temperance Conference.

The Temperance conference, which meets on Friday, October 3d, at St. Paul's Reformed church, is not called in the interest of any political party, but to promote the general cause of temperance. There will be a morning session from 9 to 12, after noon from 2 to adjournment, and an evening meeting at 7. At 3 p. m. there will be an address by George W. Bain, who will also speak in the evening. One of the attractions of the evening will be a temperance Bible reading, by Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith, of Philadelphia.

On Thursday evening, October 2, at 7.30 o'clock, the W. C. T. U. will hold a prayer meeting in the lecture room of the same church, to which all are invited.

The Lancaster Transfer Company.

The Lancaster transfer company will in future run cabs and baggage wagons from the Pennsylvania station to all parts of the city. The new company will be under the management of Mr. Frederick Brimmer, the veteran liveryman. Passengers and baggage will be called for at any hour of the day or night. Convenient stations have been established in different parts of the city, where orders can be telephoned to the central office. The following were the bids: Elias McMellen, $887; George Hynicka, Dauphin county, $570. The contract was awarded to the last named. After the award was made our commissioners showed the Dauphin county commissioners through the court house, prison, hospital and almshouse. The visitors expressed themselves as well pleased with our county buildings.

A Temperance Band.

Yesterday the Good Templar band, of Strasburg, which recently purchased new and handsome uniforms, drove to this city in a new band wagon, which was very pretty. After landing here they marched around the town, discoursing fine music. A number of people were serenaded, and the newspaper offices were not forgotten. At one hotel where the band played, the proprietor invited the musicians in to take a drink. They responded promptly, but all took ice water, and the treat did not have much effect on the bar.

Death of an Aged Citizen.

John Kepner, one of Lancaster's well known citizens died this afternoon, after an illness of several weeks, aged 75 years. He was a member of the First Reformed church and at the time of his death held the office of deacon. The time for the funeral has not yet been designated.

Stealing a Ride.

A train jumper, who was stealing a ride, was arrested on the cars as they came into the depot of the Pennsylvania railroad at an early hour this morning, and locked up. He gave his name as William Taylor and said he belonged to Saratoga. He was taken before Alderman McConomy, who committed him for 10 days. His companion jumped from the train and evaded arrest.

A Miscreant in a Cellar

An attempt was made between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning to enter the residence of Wm. Wagner, No. 317 Concord alley. The intruder succeeded in opening the cellar door, but in his effort to remove the lid from a wash boiler, he made a noise that aroused the family. By the time Mr. Wagner reached the cellar the bird had flown. He took nothing with him.

His First Marriage.

Alderman Fordney was called upon last evening to join a young couple in the holy bands of matrimony. The happy pair were Frank G. Overholtzer, of this city, and Mollie L. Haskell, of Strasburg township. It was the 'squires first wedding ceremony, but he was equal to the occasion.

Amusements.

"Pop."—This popular extravaganza will be produced by Rice's Original Surprise Party in Fulton opera house on Thursday evening. The Philadelphia Press says: "Its chief claim to popularity lies in its conspicuous poverty of dramatic narrative and the free opportunities it presents for comedy specialties and musical features of the light opera order. Mr. John A. Mackay, whose incomparable mimic powers and low comedy long ago established him in high favor with the public, sustains the burden of the performance in the eccentric character of Adolphus Pop, and has the support of a strong company."

Sothern's Company—On Friday evening E. A. Sothern, son of the late comedian of the same name, with a full comedy company, will present "Crushed" in the opera house. The Brooklyn Eagle says of the piece: "The strength of the play consists in the clever working out of the plot, its quick action and decided go, and the rapidity with which the amusing situations follow closely one upon the other. It is good for two hours of continuous laughter."

A BIG FIRE RAGING.

TWENTY HOUSES ALREADY CONSUMED.

The Entire Destruction of a Quebec Village Threatened—A Strong Wind Fanning the Flames.

QUEBEC, Sept. 30.—About one o'clock this morning fire broke out in the village of Louisville, about fifty miles from Montreal. At two a. m. about twenty houses had been destroyed, and the fire was still raging. A strong wind fans the flames and nothing short of Providential intervention can save the town. The Catholic church has caught fire and is burning rapidly.

LATER PARTICULARS.

QUEBEC, Sept. 30.—The flames were finally subdued after causing a loss of $25,000. A sudden change of wind no doubt saved the town from entire destruction. Twenty three houses were burned at Lochane, Quebec, last night. Loss, $35,000.

SALT WORKS BURNED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 30.—The works of the Pennsylvania manufacturing company at Natrone were burned this morning. Loss, $100,000; fully insured.

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

How It Has Become a Festering Sore Under Republican Rule.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The report of Springer's committee, investigating the conduct of United States marshals, supervisors of elections and other officers connected with the department of justice, has been made up and will be submitted to Congress next December. It is signed by the Democratic members of the committee. The Republicans will present minority reports. It says criminal practices prevailed in many parts of this branch of the public service for many years past and that the government has been a heavy loser thereby. These officers the report says, have charged for arrests that were not made, for travel not performed, for expenses not incurred for guards not employed; they have knowingly entered false accounts against the government, misappropriated public funds, become defaulters to the government and to the courts, increased accounts after they had been made up, made up accounts in the names of fictitious persons arrested, persons upon false charges, made up by themselves, extorted money from private citizens and in many ways without number, have swindled the government and oppressed the people. The report cites a number of particular cases in proof of the allegations made.
