PEARL STREET HOUSE.
CINCINNATI, OHIO.
THE subscribers having purchased the entire interest of Col. G. P. Williamson, late of this city, well known establishment, beg leave to state to their friends and the public generally, that they have taken this commodious Hotel for a term of years, and will exert their best energies to make it a desirable home for Travellers and City Boarders.
The Hotel is spacious and admirably planned for convenience, light and air, having a number of parlors adjoining chambers, presenting unusual attractions to families.
The present proprietors having had the experience of years in this city and elsewhere, hope they will be able to give general satisfaction, being determined to give undivided attention to the house alone.
The location of the Pearl Street House is uncommonly eligible, having fronts on Pearl, Walnut and Sycamore sts., so that it is equally desirable in view of the convenience of the business man, or comfort for pleasure boarders. It is near by the Banks, the Post Office, Masonic Hall, Odd Fellow's Hall, and but one square distant from Main street, and from the Public Landing Wharf, thus offering the greatest inducements to family or country merchants and generally to all persons visiting Cincinnati.
