WEDDING BELLS AT EPHRATA.

Mr. Charles Leinbach, of Reading, and Miss Ella J. Bitzer, of Ephrata.

From the Reading Times,

Charles H. Leinbach, of this city, was married Thursday to Miss Ella J. Bitzer, daughter of Reuben Bitzer, of Ephrata, Lancaster county. The ceremony was performed at 10:30 a. m., at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. E. S. Brownmiller, a well-known Reformed clergyman. The couple were attended by Miss Sallie Leinbach, a sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Bitzer, a brother of the bride, as groomsman. As the wedding party entered the spacious parlor where the guests were assembled, Prof. William L. Scharff, of Womelsdorf, performed Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was attired in a handsome seal-brown traveling costume, and the groom in a full dress suit. Among the guests were a number of the former students of the bride at the Millersville State Normal school and the Lititz Female seminary, including several from a distance. A number of relatives were present from Reading and vicinity. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly. An elegants dinner was served at twelve o'clock noon, at one p. m., the happy couple took the train for Lancaster, from whence they proceeded on a wedding tour to Philadelphia and other cities. Upon their return they will reside in this city. The groom is the oldest son of Elias A. Leinbach, of Bern township, and the book-keeper in the clothing establishment of Leinbach & Bro., No. 851 Penn street, the proprietors of which are his uncles. He is a prominent member of the Y. M. C. A., and of the Philomathean Literary society, of which he was one of the organizers.

Lancastrians Attending Distant Weddings.

At the marriage of Mr. Hiram H. Ulman, of Williamsport, and Miss Ella Lewis, of Wilkesbarre, at the latter place, on Wednesday, Lancastrians present were Mr. D. G. Hirsh and Miss Emma Rosenstein.

A number from this city attended the wedding of Mr. Charles W. Raymond and Miss Ida Campbell, of Middletown, Dauphin county, at that place, Wednesday evening. Both the bride and groom are well known here.

ELIZABETHTOWN'S NATIONAL BANK.

The Officers and Directors Elected for the New Institution.

On Thursday morning at 9 o'clock the stockholders of the Elizabethtown National bank, met in the town hall, for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the bank; those elected are: President, A. Dissinger, merchant of Elizabethtown. Cashier, E. S. Longenecker, of Mt. Joy borough, who is at present assistant cashier of the First National bank of that place. Teller, Jacob Hertzler, of Elizabethtown, late teller of the Farmers bank of Elizabethtown. Directors, M. G. Keller, cattle dealer; A. Dissinger, merchant; Rev. S. R. Zug, A. G. Stauffer, farmer; John H. Coble, farmer, J. Dyer, retired merchant; Fred. Oldweiler, farmer; C. L. Gingrich, farmer; W. S. Smith, merchant. All the capital is subscribed, it being $100,000. The bank will open in April. The bank officials purchased the residence of Jacob Dyer for $6,000.

Elizabethtown Notes.

Prof. Daniels, of Dayton, Ohio, gave an exhibition on rollers at the skating rink, last evening. He performed some wonderful gyrations, and won the admiration of all present.

Sleighing parties are coming here from every direction almost daily, which seems to indicate that sleighing is at its height.

Public sales around this direction are very well attended.

ASSESSOR OF SADSBURY TOWNSHIP.

A petition signed by a number of residents of Sadsbury township was presented to the county commissioners on Thursday, asking that body to appoint William E. Chamberlain assessor of that township. At the late election there was a tie for that office, Chamberlain and Andrew Koble each receiving 134 votes. The commissioners have not yet acted on the petition.

SPORTING EVENTS.

A Fox Chase and Glass Ball Shooting Contest at Kauffman's Hotel.

Thursday afternoon a fox chase and shooting match took place at Hiram Kauffman's hotel, at Oreville, on the Harrisburg pike. There was a large crowd present, including many lovers of sport from this city. The fox was dropped about half past three o'clock and the hounds, about twenty in number, were put upon the trail twenty minutes after. On account of the heavy snow, it was very difficult for the fox or dogs to run, but the former saved his hide by crawling in a large gum tree on Chestnut hill, where he was left by the men and dogs about dark.

After the fox had been let go, a shooting match at glass balls took place. Each man shot at seven and Charlie Franciscus won, breaking the whole number. The score was as follows:

Franciscus	1	1	1	1	1	1	1—7
Kauffman	1	1	1	1	0	1	1—6
Gardner	1	1	0	0	1	1	1—5
Morrison	1	0	1	1	0	1	1—4
Meckley	0	1	0	1	0	0	0—2

Two Men Killed in a Runaway.

George Hahn and Augustus Stragle left New Columbia, Pa., in a double-sleigh to drive through the country to buy up produce. Previous to their departure both men indulged freely in drinking. At noon intelligence was received that both were found dead eight miles distant, the horses having run away and thrown them out. Their feet became entangled in the lines and they were dragged to death before the animals could be captured. Hahn had his neck and right arm broken and was otherwise badly cut. He was forty years old and leaves a wife and three children. Stragle had his head cut off from the body. His blood discolored the snow for hundreds of feet. He was thirty years old and leaves a wife.

Jay Gould's Son in the Stock Exchange.

George J. Gould was elected a member of the New York stock exchange, on Thursday. As soon as the fact was announced to him he went over to the exchange, signed the roll and went upon the floor. The brokers were on the alert for him, promptly grabbed him and gave him the customary shaking-up. They fired him about in the Missouri Pacific group for a few minutes and then banged him over into the Western Union and Union Pacific. He stood the initiation well, but when he got into the last named stock he broke for the door and skipped out like a shot.

Gone to York.

This afternoon at 1:45 o'clock the following gentlemen, of the board of managers of the Young Men's Christian association, of this city, left for York, to attend an entertainment to be given by the association of that borough: D. S. Bursk, D. C. Haverstick, S. S. High, Samuel D. Bausman, J. W. Byrne, Dr. H. D. Knight, John Davidson, Charles Frey, Stehman Diller, Wm. A. Heitshue.

A delegation from Harrisburg will also be present. The Lancaster people will return to-morrow morning.

A GREAT EAGLE CAPTURED.

The Bird Made it Lively for a Babylonish Hunter.

Two of the best marksmen living near Babylon, L. I., are Henry Conklin and Israel Platt, and they rarely go out without their guns. On Wednesday afternoon they were driving from the village to a neighbor's house some three miles off when Conklin saw a large bird preening its breast feathers on top of a tree. He pulled the gun from under the wagon seat and went into the woods to get a good shot. When near the tree he saw the bird was an eagle.

He let fly the first barrel, but the eagle only looked around as the shot rattled about him and began his toilet again. "Bang" went the other barrel, and it made the bird angry. With a scream it rose in the air, and then drawing its wings close came down like a cannon ball. Conklin thought he had killed it, but in an instance saw that the bird was in for a fight. As it came in reach he struck at its head with the butt of the gun, but missed it and fell. The eagle was on him like lightning, and tore his flesh and clothes with its talons and beak. Just then Platt ran up and stunned the bird, and then they bound it with a rope, took it home and chained it in the barn. It measures seven feet six inches from tip to tip of its wings.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge in This City—The Business to Be Done.

The grand lodge of Odd Fellows of the state of Pennsylvania, will hold a special session in Odd Fellows' hall, this city, this evening. Grand Secretary Joseph B. Nicholson, arrived in town this morning and is at the Stevens house. The other officers are:

G. M.—George Hawkes; D. G. M.—Dr. Vanartsdelen; G. S. S.—Charles Ridgeway, and Assistant Grand Secretary Aug. Poff. They will arrive from Philadelphia this evening.

The object of the meeting is to take into the grand lodge the past grands of the several lodges in this city. The meeting will take place under the auspices of the lodges of this city. Delegates of past grands from several of the country lodges are expected to be present. After the session there will be a banquet at Doerr's Mennerchor hotel.

Noremac's Long Walk.

In a small room in the rear of Midlothian hall, at No. 406 Eighth avenue, New York, on Thursday night George D. "Noremac," or more properly speaking Cameron, was said to have finished the herculean task of tramping 5,100 miles in 100 days, putting in fifty-one miles between the hours of nine in the morning and midnight of each day. This event was begun on November 3, 1884, and the Scot has been on the track every day since that time.

The incentive to this feat is said to have been a bet of $2,000 between Paul Boynton and Herbert Carpenter. The former thought that Noremac would not only rival Weston's famous feat of 5,000 miles in 100 days but surpass it, while Mr. Carpenter was of the opinion that time would beat the pedestrian down.

It was unfortunate or Noremac that he did not take steps to have the timing authenticated. Had it been so Weston's figures would have been wiped out; as it is the 5,000 mile jaunt of the temperance pedestrian will have to take precedence of the 5,100 miles claimed by Noremac.

Some people assert that Noremac's real idea was to train for a six day race, but as that event has practically been abandoned, he is so much labor out. George Hazael is in the same predicament. He put up a track at the back of his saloon in Williamsburg and endeavored to make profit out of his training. The venture, however, did not "pan out well."

During the hundred weary days that Noremac has been plodding round the small ellipse he has been cheered by many members of the Caledonian club, and the brawny Scots have not been niggardly of their applause.

Extraordinary Story of Privations.

William Jackson Moore, of Tridelphia, Washington county, came to Pittsburg, Pa., for the purpose of consulting legal advice concerning some property of which he claims to have been defrauded by some relatives. Moore, who is 61 years of age, tells a wonderful story of privations and suffering. He claims that for eleven years his stepdaughter and her husband kept him a prisoner in a cellar, and that he was not permitted to leave his prison, except occasionally at night, when he would be allowed to walk about the yard bound with ropes. When visitors came to the house, as an extra precaution a gag was put in his mouth, to keep him from making any outcry.

Nick Goodman Released From Prison.

J. Nick Goodman, of Strasburg borough, who was committed to prison on Wednesday, in default of bail for a fearing on three charges of false pretense, was released from prison last evening. His sister appeared at Alderman Barr's office, paid the claims of the prosecutors and all the costs and the cases were then withdrawn. Since Goodman's release it has been learned that Metzger & Haughman were swindled out of $10 on the same day that Myers, Stauffer and Daisz were victimized, but they will not enter suit.

Saved by a Physician.

Lottie Williams, formerly of this city, who now keeps a disreputable house in Harrisburg, has again been creating an excitement in that city. A few days ago she became jealous at her lover because she saw him in a sleigh with another woman. She determined to die and on Thursday morning took a dose of arsenic to put an end to her earthly career. A physician was called in and it was only after much persuasion and force that the love-sick dame would permit him to administer proper antidotes. She has fully recovered and was all right last evening.

Slander Suits.

Henry Michael, this morning, through his attorney, R. Frank Eshleman, entered suit for slander against Jacob B. Huber. Michael alleges that Huber circulated a report that he was dishonest and in consequence of the slanderous reports he suffers $2,500 damages.

H. C. Brubaker, attorney for Samuel Eby, has entered a suit for slander against Jacob Dyer. Eby claims that Dyer has been circulating reports affecting his character for honesty.

Business Troubles.

Two executions were issued to-day against Frank A. Diffenderffer for $1,547.25. Other judgments amounting to $1,500 were entered against Diffenderffer up to noon to-day.

Execution was issued yesterday afternoon against Jonas R. Burkholder for $1,700.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers.

County Solicitor Fry has notified all the collectors of the state and county tax for 1884, that they must settle their duplicates in full by March 15, or suit will be brought on their official bonds. There are 43 collectors who have not settled and they owe the county amounts ranging from $25 to $6,500. A few collectors for 1883 and two for 1882 have not settled their duplicates and they also have received similar notices.

Two Children Burned to Death.

Thursday morning, at Quaker City, Ohio, during the absence of Mrs. Palmer, her two-year-old baby caught fire. An eight-year old girl tried to extinguish the flames and succeeded, but at the cost of her own life. The baby has since died.

The Kansas Peach Crop Ruined.

From the reports received by the Lawrence, Kansas, horticultural society, the entire peach crop of Kansas will be a failure, with the probability of the death of the young orchards. Apples and strawberries are reported all right, but blackberries and small berries generally are badly damaged by the severe cold.

Letter Held

A letter addressed to S. B. Franklin, Newville, Cumberland county, is held at the Lancaster postoffice for postage.

The Raymond & Whitcomb Excursion to Mexico.

The first tourist party for Mexico arranged for by Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb, was so quickly filled that a second excursion became a necessity. The second party which, like the first, will be limited in numbers, is to leave Philadelphia Thursday, March 26. The tour will be precisely like the first in all its details, the itinerary being a repetition of the other, while the same advantages of specially chartered Pullman palace sleeping cars, dining car, etc., will be enjoyed. Nearly two weeks will be passed in the Mexican capital, and a dozen other quaint and interesting cities of our sister republic, together with some of its ancient ruins and most picturesque places will also be visited. The journey will be taken in easy stages, and ample time is provided for rest as well as for sight-seeing. Mexico is one of the most interesting countries on the globe, and now that a tour of its chief cities can be made in comfort and luxury, Americans should embrace the opportunity to visit it and see with their own eyes the many quaint things travelers have told us about. The excursion will occupy forty four days. Full details of this truly magnificent tour, may be sent by H. F. Shields, agent for the Raymond excursions, 111 South Ninth street, under the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. 1td
