LOCAL BRIEFS.

[illegible] Hack, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was committed by Alderman Barr for twenty-four hours.

An inquest on the body of Jacob Nocho, who burned in Salisbury township, returned a verdict in accordance with the [illegible].

[illegible] Griffith, of Marietta, has passed his preliminary examination and is registered as a student with D. B. Case, esq., of that city.

A party of ladies and gentlemen from New [illegible], who started from the North [illegible], came down the Susquehanna this [illegible] on a raft fitted up expressly for their [illegible].

[illegible] M. Apple, esq., of this city, was usher. [illegible] Stanley Krebs was organist, and a number of other Lancastrians were guests at the wedding in Emanuel's Reformed Church, Denver, on Wednesday evening, of Mr. [illegible] H. Cross, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. [illegible] Kindig.

A great scarcity of farm hands exists this year, one reason, it is said, being that the wages are unreasonably low. The average wage paid does not exceed $15 a month and board for good hands. Occasionally as high as $18 or $20 a month is paid, but it is very [illegible].

An entertainment, consisting of stereoptican views of Great Britain, Ireland, Venice and the Holy Land was given before a good audience in the chapel of Trinity Lutheran church, last evening, for the benefit of the Junior Missionary society.

Milton Wagonhorst, a wealthy resident of Alburtis, Lehigh county, who has been an applicant for the postmastership of this place, has become insane. He has been working hard for the office and it is believed the strain on his mental system and the uncertainty attending his canvass have unseated his reason.

Ludwig Kiehl, one of the members of the itinerant band, was prosecuted before Alderman Doen for drunken and disorderly conduct. An officer attempted to serve the warrant on him at Lena Dickel's house, on Dorwart street. The latter resisted and was bound over for a hearing. Kiehl was discharged after the costs were paid.

Referring to Rev. R. W. Humphriss, late of Columbia, and the new past of Grace M. E. church, Philadelphia, the Philadelphia Bulletin says: "He was in his early life a student at the Biblical institution at Concord, N. H. Leaving that institution, he joined the New Hampshire conference and was stationed at Great Falls; thence he went to Portsmouth, Haverhill and New Bedford, Mass., and some years ago returned to his native state and the conference of which his father was an honored member for fifty years."

Sunday School Work.

Rev. Dr. Worden, secretary of the Sunday school work of the Presbyterian church delivered a course of four lectures on the subject, in Dr. Apple's lecture room in the college building. The first was delivered Thursday evening, the second Friday morning, the third Friday evening and the fourth this morning. Dr. Worden is a brilliant speaker and presented the importance of the work in strong language. His audiences though not large were composed of those classes whom he desired to reach—Sunday school workers, theological students and city pastors.

Returned Home.

Reah Frazer, assistant paymaster of the United States navy, who has been at sea for the last two and a half years, came home last night. He left the ship "Warchusett" in Valparaiso on March 13, and came home by way of Panama and Aspinwall. He is now awaiting orders.
