[illegible] Pennsylvania's Quota Filled.

[illegible] from the Pennsylvania soldiers' home, at Erie, Pa., states that [illegible] are limited to about two [illegible] in this number agrees with [illegible] of members in the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, (201), it has [illegible], as the most equitable plan of [illegible], that each representative district [illegible] is entitled to admissions equal to the number of its members in the House. Lancaster county's quota is filled.

Must Have Notoriety.

Mme. Adèle de Valmayre, who fought a duel with another woman on the field of Waterloo, has played at notoriety in various ways. She visited Pasteur to try his first inoculation [illegible] on her; then she asked Dr. [illegible] to make her the subject of freezing [illegible] cold and then thawing her out after [illegible] hour or two, and now she is anxious to go with De Brazza to the Congo country to assist in civilizing the negroes.

Second of a Course of Lectures

The lecture of Rev. W. M. Baum, D. D., on the "Battle of Gettysburg," will be delivered in St. John's Lutheran church, Tuesday evening, May 4. The third lecture of the course will be by Rev. W. E. Parsons, of Washington, D. C., the subject, "An Hour with the Japs." Rev. Mr. Parsons travelled round the world with the Japanese embassy in the capacity of interpreter, and subsequently spent a number of years in Japan.

Prof. Shaub Lectures.

Dr. B. H. Shaub, of the Millersville Normal school, lectured on Friday evening before the Wiconisco teachers' institute of Dauphin county, on "The Deacon's Query." He also addressed the institute in the afternoon.

H. K. Skeen, of this city, sold to-day to A. & J. Wolff, of Brooklyn, a Canada horse weighing 1,700 pounds.

Free Sour Krout.

Any person wanting a mess of good sour krout can have it free of charge, by calling at John Ochs' store, South Queen street.

The Grand Army Entertainment.

The programme for this entertainment on Thursday evening next, is a good one. The proceeds are for the relief fund of Geo. H. Thomas post, G. A. R.

Marion Ball.

On Monday evening next, at Mannerchor hall, the Marion club will hold its fifteenth grand ball. The balls of this organization in the past proved very successful, and the one on Monday night promises to be a grand one. The management will be first-class.

Amusements.

A Very Fine Concert.—In order that all may have an opportunity to hear the Kempa Family, who will be at Grace Lutheran church next Thursday evening, the price of the tickets has been lowered to thirty-five cents. But the standard of the programme is even higher than ever, being more varied and popular.

"Kit, the Arkansas Traveler."—On Wednesday and Thursday of next week the play, "Kit, the Arkansas Traveler," which was made famous by Frank Chanfrau, will be played here by his son Henry Chanfrau, who is doing well in the piece. A good many novel features are introduced.

We advise all in want of good boots or shoes at low prices to visit the Red Front Shoe Store, No. 48 North Queen street, next door to postoffice.

The Population of Lancaster.

Is about 30,000, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are according to statistics more numerous than others. We would advise all not to neglect the opportunity to call on us and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial size free. Respectfully, H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 North Queen street. (3)

The stock market this morning opened strong and ⅛ to ¾ per cent. higher on the announcement of the settlement of the switchmen's strike of the Lake Shore at Chicago, and also on advices of firmer prices in London. The market continued strong throughout the morning, prices advancing steading on a good buying of Union Pacific. The best prices of the day were made at midday. At that hour figures showed advances ranging from ¼ to 1⅜ per cent. Since midday prices have reacted on same realizations.

PATENT STRAP PANTALOONS.

The Greatest Invention of the Age.

Pantaloons made with the Patent Strap fit easy, do not bag out at the knees, don't draw up when sitting down, and give better satisfaction than any others. Place your order with A. H. Rosenstein, the Merchant Tailor, who has the sole right for Lancaster for the Patent Double Strap Pantaloons. I offer an unusually full stock of nobby goods for Pantaloons, Suits, Vesting and Spring Overcoats, and am devoting my entire attention to my friends and patrons, and will spare no effort to retain the position I have so long held as First Fine Merchant Tailor of Lancaster. Respectfully yours, A. H. ROSENSTEIN, 37 North Queen St.
