[illegible] SKATERS.

[illegible] SCHEME TO MAKE [illegible] WINTER JOLLY.

[illegible] to Have a Skating Park Near Dodge's [illegible] Factory to Be Fenced and Supplied With the Electric Light—A Peep at the Proposed Plans.

[illegible] movement is afoot for the establishment [illegible] park near Dodge's cork factory, [illegible] judgment displayed in the selection [illegible] gives promise that if the enterprise [illegible] the support that it deserves it cannot [illegible] be successful.

[illegible] designed to take advantage of the nat[illegible] of the ground back of the [illegible] factory and north of the railroad em[illegible]. The latter will form one bank [illegible], so that but little preparation of [illegible] be necessary, and the shallow pool [illegible] offer a safe skating ground sure to be [illegible] by all parents who consider [illegible] on the creek dangerous, but healthy [illegible]. The electric light is only a short dis[illegible] from the ground, and will be intro[illegible] so that it will be a most attractive [illegible] resort; especially as it is on the line [illegible] street cars.

[illegible] grounds will be enclosed by a fence [illegible] the water supply and other details so [illegible] that the ice will always be kept in [illegible] best possible condition and skating will [illegible] found there when the creek is covered [illegible] snow or its ice has been broken by the [illegible].

[illegible], J. Harold Wickersham, J. D. [illegible] and Charles Brown are the prime [illegible] in the enterprise, but the people of [illegible] town know a good thing when they see [illegible] and the Inquirer company office will not [illegible] retain a monopoly of it. There are [illegible] forty eager supporters of it al[illegible], though the matter has just [illegible] broached. Mr. Harold Wickersham [illegible] the subscription list which binds one [illegible] hundred subscribers to contribute five dol[illegible] each to the "Lancaster Skating Park [illegible]ociation." Nothing will be done until [illegible] one hundred subscribers have been se[illegible]red, and as each of them will secure two [illegible] tickets to the rink, the list will soon [illegible] full.

The association will construct the rink [illegible] for amusement, but will charge ad[illegible]ission to cover the cost of maintenance and give the public the benefit of a place of recreation that has long been needed.

It will afford just the right kind of diversion for business men and busy women who will gain the time for it from early closing.

The Mænnerchor Rink.

The Mænnerchor Rink will be open this evening, and as the Lancaster Rink will not be open this evening to skaters, a large crowd is expected. There will be no special attractions, but the pleasant weather will induce many to attend.

Amusements.

Bryton in "Forgiven."—The phenomenal success of Frederic Bryton in "Forgiven" is the best endorsement the attraction could have. Wherever he appears crowded houses are the rule, and the highest praise of the press is accorded him. Mr. Bryton's engagement at the Windsor theatre, New York, a couple of weeks ago, was one of the largest ever played in that house, and the criticisms of the New York press leave no room to doubt as to the excellence of the performance. He appeared in Allentown a few evenings ago, and the Chronicle said of him: "Frederic Bryton was greeted with a warmth by the large audience in Music hall last night, which evinced the popularity he enjoys here. It was his third appearance in Allentown, and he has come to be one of the stage favorites of our people. Mr. Bryton is not only a handsome man, but a finished, conscientious actor, and in "Forgiven" he has a play which affords him ample opportunity for the display of his talent. He was applauded again and again, and twice was called before the curtain. He has an excellent company."

DEATHS.

OSTERMAYER—On the 29th inst., Katie R., daughter of J. H. and Caroline Ostermayer, in the 20th year of her age.

The relatives and friends of the family and the choir of Zion's Lutheran church are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the residence of her parents, No. 556 North Queen street, on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at Zion's cemetery. s29-4td*

TANGLED LIVES!

"Relentless fate that tangles up the lives of men and makes the innocent suffer with the guilty"—Act IV.

A play of strong human interest, illustrating society and bohemian life in New York. The main idea of the plot is new to our stage, and deals with the marriage law of New York and other states. The moral is pure and upholds the church ceremony of marriage. The story is intensely interesting. The situations are strong and natural. A good vein of comedy relieves the emotional scenes and dramatic climaxes. A play of this epoch. Its teachings will benefit every man and woman of the nineteenth century.

ADMISSION—35, 50 & 75 Cents. Reserved Seats, 75c and $1.00. Sale of seats will open Monday, October 4, at the opera house. o2-5td
