Cruelty to Animals.

Edward Clark and Wm. Krone have been arrested by Constable Ziegler, of Brecknock township, for cruelly ill-treating a horse. They entered bail for a hearing before Alderman Barr. The horse is old and worn out, and Clark, one of the defendants, gave an order to-day to the constable to shoot the horse.

Taken by the Heirs.

Two of the properties belonging to the estate of Philip Risse have been accepted by the heirs. No. 317 South Prince street was taken by George Risse at $1,525, and No. 319, on the same street, was taken by Michael Huberbush, guardian of the minor children, at $1,407.

Killed a Woodcock on the Street.

Last evening as J. M. Westhaeffer was on his way home out West Walnut street, a bird flew across his path. He supposed that it was an owl and struck it with his cane. After knocking the bird down he found that it was a beautiful specimen of woodcock. It was a rather curious place for a bird of that species.

Properties Withdrawn.

The properties belonging to the estate of the late A. W. Russel, offered at public sale on Monday evening, were withdrawn, a sufficient sum not having been bid for the same.

Sale of Horses.

Samuel Hess, auctioneer, sold on Monday at Daniel Logan's sale and exchange stables, for O. P. Taylor, 19 head of Ohio horses, at an average price of $168.80 per head.

OAK HALL.

THE TOWER OF HONEST CLOTHING.

Oak Hall's standard goes in the van among makers of reliable clothing.

A hive of industry—home of labor and capital, too. No stoppage with us.

Our own workpeople bring the clothing in and carry first wages away. Our customers bring the money in and take away clothing. Oak Hall is hard for both. Takes the dollars in and pays the dollars out right here in sight of customers and workpeople.

Capital and labor in accord love, and working wonders in 2,000 ways, cheap and honest clothing.

No strikes here. None wanted. Strikes mean hard times and no wages. We believe in pacific counsels and arbitration, peace bringing prosperity.

See our "Wire Twist" Suits at $14 00 and Overcoats at $12 00. We've struck the lowest cost on these for prices and the highest for long and honest wear.

Men's Special Dress Suits, $12.00.

Each season we make a special Dress Sack Suit for Men, to sell at $12.00. Customers who have worn these specials have found from experience why they are special values. We are continually hearing—"This is the best suit I ever bought for $12.00. It is one of your specials. Wears splendid." The reason is we take special care in selecting the best possible material for our specialties. The making and trimming is placed where it will receive the very best of care, and the fit of our specials have become deservedly popular for their neatness—fitting with the same precision the very tall, the medium, the short and the fat man. Gentlemen who have not tried them will find they are the best suits ever offered for the price. Samples furnished on application.
