MURDER IN PITTSBURG.

DAVIS FOUND DEAD IN HIS HOME BY A POLICEMAN.

Firing a Pistol Shot the Officer Rushes Into the Building and Finds the Man With a Bullet in His Head—A Woman and a Colored Girl in the House.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 8.—At 1:30 o'clock this morning Police Lieutenant Snyder heard a pistol shot in the residence of Albert Davis, on Frankstown avenue, East End. On entering the house Snyder discovered the body of Davis lying at the foot of the stairs dead, with a bullet hole in his head. In one of the rooms the officer found a woman named Carrie Palmer and a little colored girl named Nellie White, in their night clothes.

Whiskey and a number of empty beer bottles were found on a table.

Carrie Palmer refused to give the officers any information.

The officers are confident, however, that she committed the murder.

Nellie White had been asleep and was awakened by the shot in time to see Davis fall down the stairs, but knew nothing of the circumstances leading to the tragedy.

A BRAKEMAN SEVERELY INJURED.

His Right Hand Caught and Mashed While Coupling—Three Fingers Amputated.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 8.

Jacob Durboron, brakeman on engine No. 461, east of the Pennsylvania railroad, had his right hand badly mashed last night in the west yard at this place. His hand was caught between the coupling of the engine and train. Dr. Craig was summoned and amputated three fingers, and the man went to his home in Harrisburg.

A congregational meeting was held in Trinity Reformed church last evening, and the following officers elected: Elder, Geo. Zeilhoff; deacon, Frank L. Ackerman; trustee, Henry Beck.

On Thursday evening George H. Adams will appear in the opera house, in the specialty speaking pantomime, "He, She, Him and Her." Mr. Adams was formerly one of the best clowns on the stage, and was known as "Grimaldi." Last year he made his appearance in a speaking part in "Ezra." He has made a tremendous hit in his new play, and has just finished engagements in New York and Brooklyn. Tom Hanlon, the charming singing soubrette, is in his support, with a score of other pretty girls.

Letters Granted by the Register.

The following letters were granted by the register of wills for the week ending Tuesday, January 8:

A SPECIAL MEETING.

Lancaster Classis of the Reformed Church Meets to Receive Ministers.

A special meeting of Lancaster classis of the Reformed church was held in the lecture room of the First Reformed church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The following were in attendance: Revs. Theo. Appel, D. D., A. B. Shenkle, J. M. Titzel, D. D., A. C. Whitmer, J. P. Stein, D. W. Gerhard, J. S. Stahr, Ph. D., J. H. Pannebecker, W. F. Lichliter, W. J. Johnson, J. W. Meminger, M. H. Sangree, J. F. Mackley, M. D. Eiderr, Christian Gast, A. M. Schmidt, S. L. Dellinger.

President J. M. Titzel, D. D., presided, and Rev. D. W. Gerhard, stated clerk, as secretary.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. M. H. Sangree.

Rev. J. F. Mackley, M. D., was received from Clarion classis, synod of Pittsburg, and the call to him from the Maytown charge, consisting of Maytown and Conestoga Centre, found in order. The following committee was appointed to install him: Revs. T. G. Apple, D. D., J. H. Pannebecker, A. B. Shenkle.

Rev. M. H. Sangree, was received from the Gettysburg classis.

It was resolved, That this classis express its appreciation of the fact that Rev. Sangree has accepted the call of the board of missions, at Steelton, and is now on the ground, and wish him God speed.

That the congregation be reorganized according to the judgment of the missionary, and that any further action be postponed until the next regular meeting of classis.

Horse Sales.

Auctioneer B. F. Rowe sold for ex-Sheriff Davis, of Boone county, Indiana, a number of horses at the Swan hotel of Horace Myers, Strasburg, on Monday. The animals brought good prices.

Samuel Hess sold yesterday at public sale for Daniel Logan, at his sale and exchange stable, this city, eighteen head of Illinois horses, at an average price of $199.99 per head.

The County Tax Rate.

The county commissioners on Monday afternoon fixed the tax rate at two and a half mills, the same as last year. The assessors' books returned indicate a depreciation of property taxables for county purposes in Lancaster county of $2,000,000 since the last triennial assessment. The commissioners expect to get along the coming year at the tax rate fixed, notwithstanding there will be a large decrease in receipts.

Pedestrians Going to Frisco.

Manager Frank Hall, the pedestrian trainer, with E. C. Moore, who pushed Littlewood so closely in the late New York contest, Monroe Howard and Bobby Vint, will be passengers on Western Express from here at 11:10 to night. They are on their way to San Francisco to take part in the long walking match, commencing February 18th. Albert, Noremac, Herty and other "pedestrians" will go next week. H. A. Gross of this city, arranged for the transportation of all of the men.

Two Drunken Travelers.

Joan Warren and John Heinnicker, who say that they live in Cumberland county, and were taking a drive to Norristown, left their team in the Eighth ward yesterday, while they took in the sights. They secured paint and brush, and painted up the town in the brightest vermilion. Both were arrested at the Pennsylvania railroad station for being drunk and disorderly. This morning at Alderman Deen's one had money and the other had none. One had been very liberal and spent all of his money for rum. It was intimated that they were not of the same feeling, or they would have had no money to pay the costs this morning. They were allowed to go after fixing things.

Last year the Baldwin locomotive works, Philadelphia, built 737 locomotives.
