The Ice Men Worried.

The ice men of this city are becoming greatly worried over the continued pleasant weather, and they are commencing to fear that their prospects for an ice crop are very poor. They eagerly read the weather probabilities each morning and evening, but they have almost given up in despair. The dealers all have some ice left over from last year, but not sufficient by any means. The other day in a prominent hotel a number of ice dealers were seated around a table with their heads close together. They seemed to be in earnest conversation when some one yelled "Are you fixing the price for next year?" Every head was up in a minute and it was then found that the men were examining a goose bone in order to see when the cold weather would set in.

The Patriarchs Militant.

This evening a meeting of the Patriarchs Militant association will be held in Odd Fellows hall, when final arrangements will be made for the institution of the canton on Tuesday, January 29th, on which occasion Past Chief Patriarchs Nicholson, Van Artsdale, Withrow and Dean will be present.

The Lancaster Trust Company.

In the advertising columns of the INTELLIGENCER on Tuesday was a notice that application would be made to the governor of Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, January 30th, for a charter for the Lancaster Trust company. Similar institutions are in Philadelphia, Reading and other cities in the state. The parties named as stockholders in the proposed company are Samuel M. Myers, John D. Skiles, John I. Hartman, J. Gust Zook and J. Hay Brown. The numerous lines of business to be transacted will be found in the advertisement.

Lost the Heel of His Shoe.

On Tuesday a young man went into Wiant's grocery store, at Water and West King streets, and bought a small bill of groceries. When they were ready for delivery the young man, who was a stranger to Mr. Wiant, picked up the packages, told Mr. Wiant to charge it and ran out of the store. His shoe caught at the sill and the heel was torn off, but he never stopped to get it. It is of no use to the grocer and he will give it to the young man if he calls for it.

The family of A. Stonesetter, No. 445 West Orange street, are reported by the police as being in destitute circumstances. Mr. S. is an old man and a cripple and his wife is also too far advanced in years to work. Any contributions left at the station house will be sent to the family.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH THE LANCASTER BUSINESS COLLEGE?
Well, if you mean the largest enrollment of pupils for the first week of January since its organization, it is an indication that it is meeting with its reward and that IT'S all right.
The L. B. U. does not hold out such inducements as "Full Course for $——," which has been characterized by a somewhat caustic writer, as a "BAIT FOR BULL HEADS," and while that is a rough way of putting it, it is true that the dull boy is the only one to profit by this arrangement. The bright young fellow must pay for the excessive cost of this instruction for the dull one.
DO YOU UNDERSTAND?
Our patrons are our leading citizens and business men, and to them we would refer all applicants as to standing of this institution.
Pay a visit to the college and spend a day there, and then judge as to the merits of the school. Address,
H. C. WEIDLER, Principal.

A GOOD RULE.
"I always buy home manufactured goods if they are equal to those made elsewhere," remarked a prominent business man of Lancaster. That's a good rule, and, as
LEVAN & SONS' FLOUR
IS AS GOOD AS ANY OTHER, AND A GOOD DEAL BETTER THAN SOME OTHERS.
Lancaster people are right in standing by it, as most of them do.
Ask your grocer for it. There isn't a section of the city or county where it cannot be had.
