BEFORE THE SQUIRES.

MANY OFFENDERS CAPTURED BY THE OFFICERS OF COLUMBIA.

Cider Thieves Have a Hearing And Are Allowed to Pay Costs and Depart.

The P. R. R. Relief Statement.

COLUMBIA, May 20.—The statement of the Pennsylvania railroad relief department for April has been issued, which shows the following benefits paid to employes in Columbia: Accident, 21 men, $218; sickness, 28 men, $261.20; total paid, $479.20.

Walter Redman, a well-known young man of town, was arrested this morning by Officer Schill, for stealing a silver watch and between $8 and $9 from Thomas McCrea, a stove moulder. Redman was drunk when the theft was committed, which was done last night at the Viligant engine house. He acknowledged the theft, and the money and watch were found on him. Squire Solly committed him to jail for court.

Everhart Weaver sued Jack Shirk before Squire Solly for misrepresentation in the sale of a horse. The hearing came off on Saturday and Shirk furnished bail for court.

Officer Wittick arrested Joseph Byers, Ephraim Hause, John Inners and Enos C. Bookman, living in the county, near Maytown, for stealing a barrel containing 20 gallons of cider, from Nissley's mill. The men took the cider to Hiestand's tobacco shed and emptied it. A hearing took place this afternoon and the case was settled by the men paying for the cider.

Terry McGoun was sued by a man named Thornton for drunkenness and carrying concealed deadly weapons. A hearing will be held this evening before Squire Evans.

David Grove, living near Maytown, was before Squire Evans this morning for drunkenness. He went to his mother's house where he broke a number of articles. He was held under bail for good behavior.

Joseph Hauck, a three-months-old son of Simon Hauck, living on Manor street, died on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from measles. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, from Holy Trinity Catholic church.

A small audience was in the opera house on Saturday night to see the "Van Nest degree" by the York Knights of the Mystic Chain.

W. B. Given, esq., and H. M. North, esq., went to Philadelphia this morning to attend supreme court.

The grand concert for the benefit of St. John's Lutheran church will be given in the opera house on Tuesday evening.

A meeting in the interest of the prohibition amendment will be held in the opera house this evening. An address will be delivered by Bishop E. B. Kephart, of Iowa.

The funeral of Charles Poff, of Harrisburg, was held on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The order of Railway Conductors and Chiequesalunga Tribe of Red Men attended the funeral in a body.

A three-year-old son of Jacob Waltman, living on Manor street, fell in the yard this morning, cutting a severe gash in his head. Dr. Markel attended the injury.

S. B. Clepper and W. J. Strickler will go to Antietam on Wednesday to locate a camp for the Lark club.

THE CIGARMAKERS' UNION.

Organizer Charles F. Seib Gives Some Interesting Figures Concerning It.

This morning a reporter of the INTELLIGENCER ran across Charles F. Seib, of Chicago, organizer for the Cigarmakers' International Union, who will speak in Roberts' hall this evening to members of the local union, with a view to strengthening the organization in this city.

Mr. Seib gave the reporter some interesting figures in regard to the International Union, which was organized in 1864. In 1877 it had but seventeen local Unions with a membership of 1,000. At present there are 279 locals with 20,000 members. The international president estimates the gain in wages to members of the union in the past four years to be $150,000 per month; or $1,800,000 yer year, and by preventing reductions in wages about $500,000 per year.

On account of the stringent laws of the Union in regard to strikes and lockouts, over 200 strikes have been prevented in the past ten years.

In case of a lockout the union pays $4 a week benefit and $5 in case of sickness. In case of death the benefit is $50 for one year, $300 for five years and $550 for ten years.

In ten years the union has paid out the following: Strike benefits, $421,291.30; sick benefits, $269,265.63; death benefits, $47,563; traveling benefits, $263,404.20.

John Sullivan Sent to Jail.

John Sullivan was heard by Alderman A. F. Donnelly this afternoon on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and committed to jail for 30 days. His sister, from whom he stole a gold watch last week, did not appear to press the case. Through a misunderstanding David G. Hirsh, who purchased the watch, did not appear for a hearing and the alderman reserved his decision as to the case.

Writ of Replevin Issued.

B. F. Davis, attorney for the Singer Sewing Machine company, to-day issued a writ of replevin for two machines in the possession of Daniel E. Sensenig, of New Holland. The sheriff went to that village to-day to serve the writ.

Visiting Gunners.

On Friday next the Columbia Gun club will come to Lancaster and have a shoot with the club of this city. It will take place early in the afternoon in order that the gunners can attend the ball game between the Lancaster club and Cuban Giants at 4 o'clock.

Illegal Fishing.

A number of men are now violating the law by fishing with stir nets in the Conestoga, taking from the stream fish of all kinds. Last Thursday night a party of ten men, who had four nets, were fishing at the old city waterworks, and on several other evenings crowds were out. Steps will likely be taken to prevent this.

Barbary Coast Deserted.

Barbary coast is deserted to-day. Nearly all the lawyers have gone to Philadelphia to attend the sessions of the supreme court. They will be absent the greater part of the week, and until they return legal news will be dull.

Annual Inspection.

The fire committee of councils has selected to-morrow afternoon for the annual inspection of the fire department apparatus.

Have Returned Home.

Mrs. M. A. McCormick, of West King street, and her son, Dr. D. R. McCormick, have arrived home after an extended visit through Western Pennsylania.

Gave Bail For a Hearing.

David Weller has been prosecuted before Alderman Barr for committing an assault and battery on Mrs. Brobst. Weller gave bail for a hearing.

Made an Assignment.

Rudolph K. Frey, merchant of Creswell, Manor township, made an assignment to-day for the benefit of creditors. His assignee is Franklin E. Mayer, of the same township.

Went to Colorado.

Luke Lederman, of this city, left last night for Denver, Colorado, on a business trip.

A Romance of the War.

In the death of Charles Fiske, at Wichita, Kan., on Saturday an interesting bit of Enoch Arden-like romance was revealed. Thirty-five years ago, at Buffalo, N. Y., he fell in love with his cousin, Harriet Fiske, but she rejected his suit and married Albert Stage. A few years of happy married life ensued, and then Stage went to the war and was heard of no more. Fiske, having accumulated wealth in Colorado, again renewed his suit, and with more success, for Mrs. Stage, thinking her husband dead, married her cousin. They came to Wichita and lived very happily until the son of Albert Stage, learning the mystery of his father's life, determined to solve it.

After several years' seach he found his father alive in Florida. A correspondence was opened which resulted in the return of Stage and his marriage a second time to his wife. After this separation Fiske went abroad, but returned a year afterwards broken in health and purse. His former wife found him and took him home, where he received the tenderest care and warmest sympathy from both his wife and her first husband until his death Saturday evening.

A Whole Train Passed Over Him.

George W. Cook, an Erie switchman, weighing nearly 250 pounds, was on Saturday knocked down by a shifting freight train at Newburg, N. Y. The entire train of eleven cars passed over him. Cook says he knew he must lie flat as possible to escape the brake-beams, but twice or three times he was struck by the beams that were lower than others. He sustained several deep gashes in his head. His nose was cut and his clothing stripped from the body. He was dragged about fifty feet from the place of the accident. Cook says that he was rolled over on his face once or twice, but did not lose his presence of mind throughout the whole time. His body lay lengthwise of the track. The physician says he will be able to be out again in a few weeks.

A Pastor Starves Himself to Death.

Rev. J. W. Harris, a Congregational minister, died at his home in Salem, Oregon, on Friday evening, having abstained from food four weeks. When first taken ill he declared that God had ordained he should die, and he would not attempt to frustrate heaven's decree by trying to sustain a life whose sands were run. On all other subjects his mind remained remarkably clear until the time of his death, but he positively refused food, and his physicians assert that his death, if not absolutely caused, was hastened by starvation. He was born in Cornwall, England, April 25, 1811; came to America when twelve years old, educated himself at Beloit, Wis., and began work in the ministry in 1860.

A Slight Fire.

There was almost a serious fire at the house of Mrs. Mary L. Miller at No. 116 East Chestnut street, on Sunday morning. It seems that a lot of hot ashes were thrown into a box, which stood in a summer kitchen. The box took fire and so did the side of the building. The blaze ascended to the roof. When it was discovered there was some excitement, and it was extinguished by Lewis Haldy, a neighbor, and Prof. Kershner, who boards in the family. The damage was not great.

Quarrel Between Russians.

Henry Sorton and his daughter have been complained against by Plena Plothnick for committing a felonious assault and battery on her. She says Sorton and his daughter chased her and threw stones at her. Bail was entered for a hearing. All the parties are Russians.

Honoring Their Pastor.

In honor of the birthday of Rev. E. Meister, of St. Stephen's Lutheran church, a large representation of the congregation called upon their beloved pastor on Saturday evening, and tendered their congratulations as well as their donations.

David Rittenhouse Porter.

David Rittenhouse Porter was released from jail on Saturday morning and after enjoying a few hours and drinking several "hummers" he was again an inmate of the station house. Alderman Barr sent him to his old quarters in the county jail for ten days.

EIGHTY-FIVE CENTS will buy a quarter of the Best Pillsbury Flour at CLARKE'S. Big Reductions in Dried Fruit, Etc.

BOUND TO REACH EVERYBODY.—IN order to still further popularize the already very popular
PILLSBURY FLOUR,
And to place it within the reach of everybody, I have resolved to make
A Sweeping Reduction in Price
Instead of selling at the old rates, Pillsbury's Best will now be sold as follows, at retail:
PER BARREL, $6.80, INSTEAD OF $8.
PER QUARTER, 85c., INSTEAD OF $1
As to its merits, they are sufficiently understood. It has simply been a matter of price; and, in order to place it within the reach of everybody, the price will be the same as other first-class grades of Flour, although it is acknowledged by all who have used it to be superior to all other brands, no odds what name they bear.

LEVAN & SONS.
Suggested By the Hot Wave!
Would you the secret like to learn?
Learn how to keep right cool?
Learn how to 'scape the heated term,
Without a term in school?
The lesson's easy: have a care
About your drink and food,
Avoid bad bread, avoid that snare,
See that your flour's good!
And this can be accomplished by using that Favorite of the Household—
LEVAN'S FLOUR!
