MEDICAL.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. Rose's Celebrated Remedies.
DR. JACOB S. ROSE, the discoverer and sole proprietor of these most popular and celebrated medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated instrument for inflating the lungs, in effecting a cure of Chronic diseases, was a student of that eminent physician, Doctor Physic, and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years since has been engaged in the investigation of disease and the application of remedies thereto.
Through the use of his inflating tube, in connection with his Prophylactic Syrup and other of his remedies, he has gained an unparalleled eminence in curing those dreadful and fatal maladies, Tuberculous Consumption, Cancers, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Fevers of all kinds, Chronic Erysipelas, and all those obstinate diseases peculiar to females. In deed every form of disease vanishes under the use of his remedies, in which he has made use of but one compound only; for [illegible] with Physiological Law, but by the use of his remedies [illegible] and preserved.
Dr. Rose's Tonic Alterative Pills, which are invariably acknowledged to be superior to all others, as a purgative or liver pill, inasmuch as they leave the bowels perfectly free from costiveness, also his Golden Pills is admitted by the faculty to possess peculiar properties adapted to female diseases, but being satisfied that a fair trial is sufficient to establish what has been said in the minds of the most skeptical.
The afflicted are invited to call upon the agent, and procure (gratis) one of the Doctor's pamphlets, giving a detailed account of each remedy and its application.

COUGH, PAIN IN THE SIDE AND CHEST CURED.—Having for some time been distressed with a severe pain in the side and chest, accompanied with a dry cough, I was induced, upon the urge of several citizens, to try Dr Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and must say that medicine was produced by a [illegible] My distress was [illegible] I could swallow my food. Indeed, I am satisfied the disease must have terminated in Consumption or some fatal disease, had it not been cured by this judicious medicine. To all who are so afflicted or may be, I would advise the use of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. JAMES GOWAN, 126 Bowery.
This medicine facilitates expectoration, reduces fever, restores strength, and may be considered as a superior preparation for the cure and prevention of all diseases in the Chest and Lungs, and should be resorted to even after these diseases have resisted the usual remedies. In the practice of the most eminent and respectable physicians, in [illegible] has acquired an enviable reputation for its virtues, and its equal to that of the abundant nostrums of the day, as was the character and probity of its inventor to that of quacks and empirics.
CONSUMPTION CURED.—My son having a violent cold, used to cough violently, raising quantities of thick putrid matter, and finally he could not turn over in bed from weakness. He manifested every symptom of confirmed consumption. For six years he had been subject to the asthma. His physicians, Messrs Vermonte & Anderson, said he was incurable and must soon die. Yet I was determined to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and strange as it may appear, this medicine has fully restored his health.

Jaynes' Expectorant.
SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 24, 1841.
DR. D. JAYNES: Dear Sir—I feel bound to you and the afflicted public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic fever and its concomitant diseases, and seemed only doomed to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1839, when, being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days or weeks at farthest—when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed by that Being who does all things in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed and was enabled by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for ten years previous.
Respectfully yours &c. Jas. W. Ferrin.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO'S Preparation of Cough Balsam has a great advantage over most other Cough preparations, as the person [illegible] to be used without incurring [illegible] Balsam consists in the specifics [illegible] We have known some of the most desperate coughs, some of which had been running on for a considerable length of time, yield almost immediately to its power.
In such weather as we have had during the past winter, every one is liable to take cold, unless great precautions are used.
Wet feet and undue exposure to the inclemencies of the weather often lays the foundation of a hacking cough, which needs a quick remedy to prevent serious results.
We have numerous certificates of cures which it has performed, many of which are from persons in this city and the neighborhood, and which they are sufficient reference without saying another word in its favor.

MISCELLANEOUS.

COAD'S
Patent Galvanic Battery and Patent Insulated Poles for Medical and other purposes.
THIS is the most extraordinary remedy that has ever been presented to this country or Europe for medical purposes, the [illegible] ever known to man, by which the magnetic fluid can be conveyed to the human [illegible] part of the body, [illegible] a definite gentle stream, without shocks or pain with perfect safety—and often with the happiest effects.
This important apparatus is now highly approved of by many of the most eminent physicians of this country and Europe, to whom the afflicted and others whom it may concern can be referred. Reference will also be given to many respectable citizens, who have been cured by means of this most valuable apparatus of some of the most inveterate nervous disorders which could not be removed by any other known means.
Among various others, it has been proved to be admirably adapted to the cure of the following diseases, viz: nervous headache and other diseases of the brain. It is with this apparatus alone that the operator can convey the magnetic fluid with ease and safety to the eye, to restore sight, or cure amaurosis, to the ear to restore hearing; to the tongue and other organs, to restore speech; and to the various parts of the body, for the cure of chronic rheumatism, asthma, neuralgia, or the dolouroux, paralysis, or palsy, gout, chorea or St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, weakness from sprains, some diseases peculiar to females, contraction of the limbs, lockjaw, etc. etc.
Rights for sale of [illegible] counties of Western Pa., and privileges, with the instrument, may be purchased, and also tested for the cure of diseases.

Reversible Filtering Cock,
FOR PURIFYING WATER,
Which renders turbid water pure by removing all substances not soluble in water. The croton water in N. York, although clear and pure to the eye, yet when it passes an hour through this filtering cock, shows a large deposit of impure substances, worms, &c. This is the case more or less with all hydrant water.
The Reversible Filterer is neat and durable, and is not attended with the inconvenience incident to other Filterers, as it is cleansed without being detached from the water pipe, by merely turning the key or handle from one side to the other. By this easy process, the course of water is changed, and all accumulations to impure substances are driven off almost instantly, without unscrewing the Filterer. It also possesses the advantage of being a stop cock, and as such in many cases will be very convenient and economical.
It can be attached where there is any pressure high or low to a cask, [illegible] &c. with ease. To be had of the sole Agent, W. W. WILSON, oct17 corner of Fourth and Market sts.
