DANGEROUS COUNTERFEITS.—The Baltimore American states that counterfeit $5 notes of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore are in circulation. The plate is a close imitation of the genuine note, and as the letterine is in the same bold style as the original, and it is very likely to deceive the incautious. The engraving of the counterfeit is badly done, and the vignettes are unlike the original; but the general appearance of the note is calculated to deceive. The counterfeit is entered C. under the figure 5, on the left hand side. Counterfeits are in circulation in N. Jersey, altered from the old broken State Bank of Trenton to represent the issues of the Camden Bank, Morris County Bank, and others. It is said that in tearing down the inner parts of the old state Bank building, about one year ago, unsigned notes to the amount of over one hundred thousand dollars were discovered in the vault, and carefully distributed to whoever would take them. The rogues have now got hold of them. The alterations are done very ingeniously.

Commercial Record.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 18, 1849.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—With very light receipts and a reduced stock, the market for Flour is firmer; the demand for export, however, being of a limited character, sales only reach 7000 brls. at $4 87½ $4 93¾ for sound and re-inspected old stock; $5 for mixed brands fresh ground, and $5 12½ $5 25, the latter for purest straight brands from new wheat, including 500 brls. Brandywine at $5 25, and extra brands at $5 50 per brl. For city use sales have been to a limited extent within the above range of quotations. Rye Flour has been unusually scarce at an advance, and small lots were quickly taken on arrival, at $3 12½ $3 25 per brl—mostly at the latter price. Corn Meal.—With a good demand—the market being nearly bare—has advanced, and about 1000 brls. were picked up, including Brandywine at $3 25, and Pennsylvania at $3 12½, which is now held higher.

GRAIN.—Wheat.—There is a good demand for Wheat, and about 15,000 bushels found buyers at 104 a 110 cents for inferior to prime reds, and 112 a 115 cents for fair and prime white. Rye is scarce, and prices are tending up. Small sales of Penn'a are reported at 61 a 62 cents. Corn comes forward slowly and is in good demand at an advance. Some 18 a 20,000 bushels sold at 63 a 65 cents for Penn'a and Southern yellow, part in store, closing scarce at our highest figures. Oats are in good demand, and several cargoes sold at 25 a 26 cents for common Virginian, 28 a 30 cents for Delaware, and 32 a 34 for Penn'a.

SPIRITS.—N. E. Rum.—Brls. sold at 28½ cents, and are now held at 29 cents. Whiskey has been in good demand, with free sales of brls. at 24½ cts., and to day at 25 cents. Hhds. are brisk at 24½ cts.

BALTIMORE, AUGUST 18, 1849.

FLOUR.—Howard Street Flour.—On Monday sales of 400 brls. new at $5 25, also 600 brls. 'Harper's Ferry' brand at the same rate. Tuesday sales of 400 brl. were made at $5 25. Wednesday sales of 600 brls. were made at $5 25, and 200 brls. 'Harper's Ferry' brand at the same rate. Yesterday sales of 500 brls. new were made at $5 25, and 100 brls. new at $5 18¾. To day sales of 1000 brls. were made at $5 25. City Mills Flour.—The sales of the week have been between 3000 or 4000 brls., of which 1000 brls. were sold at $5 18¾ cash, and the balance at $5 25, on time, with interest added. There is no stock on hand, and the scarcity of water will not allow the mills to do full work. The demand is fair, and the article is sold as fast as it can be made. Susquehanna Flour.—We note a sale this week of 150 brls. Susquehanna Flour, from old wheat, at $5 12½. Corn Meal.—We note sales of about 3000 brls. Baltimore at $3 25.

GRAIN.—Wheat.—The sales of good to prime reds were made at 100 a 106 cents, choice lots bringing, occasionally, 107 cents. Sales also of white wheat at 106 a 110 cents, and family flour white at 110 a 115 cents. Corn.—On Monday there were sales of white at 60 cents, and of yellow at 62 a 63 cents. On Wednesday sales of white were made at 56 a 58 cts, and of yellow at 60 cents. To day prices have further receded, and we note sales of white at 55 a 56 cents, and of yellow at 58 a 59 cents. Rye.—We quote Maryland Rye at 53 a 54 cents. Oats.—Sales of good to prime lots throughout the week at 28 a 30 cents. Cloverseed.—There is no thing new to note. Flaxseed.—We quote as last week, 115 a 116 cents per bushel.

WHISKEY.—The market opened on Monday at 24½ cents for hhds. and 25 cents for brls. To day some holders ask higher for brls. but we have not heard of sales.

Influenza and Consumption.

It is, indeed, a melancholy truth, that thousands fall victims to consumption every year from no other cause than neglected colds; yet we find hundreds, nay, thousands, who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks, without thinking of the danger. At first, you have what you consider a slight cough or cold; you allow business, pleasure, or carelessness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast, you become hoarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood; a difficulty of breathing ensues, and then you find your own foolish neglect has brought on this complaint. If, then, you value your life or health, be warned in time, and don't trifle with your cold, or trust to any quack nostrum to cure you; but immediately procure a bottle of that famous remedy, DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which is well known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify, whose lives have been saved by it.

For influenza it is the very best medicine in the world.

The subjoined letter from the Rev. Henry Jewell, a clergyman of the Universalist denomination, is worthy of the highest consideration. Mr. Jewell was formerly settled in South Reading—the place of my manufactures. Those of my friends who know his reputation as a clergyman, and his integrity as a man, will join with me in the opinion, that his testimony may be relied on by those who have not yet made use of my valuable medicines:

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON: Dear Sir—I have used the Bitters sometimes in the dry and sometimes in the prepared form, for about ten years, with eminent success. And, Sir, I cannot refrain from saying, at this late period, that I feel myself under peculiar obligations to your father, for the benefit I received when in very delicate state of health, nine or ten years ago, in taking his Bitters and other medicines, similar, I presume, to those you manufacture. I could state many instances where individuals have experienced vast benefits from your medicines. I used a bottle of your Pectoral Balsam last winter, with good success. I wish you prosperity in your work of benevolence, for he who heals the maladies that flesh is heir to, or eases the pains of the suffering, performs a benevolent act, and shall not lose his reward. I cannot find it in my heart to withhold this free testimonial to the virtues of your medicines. I give it unsolicited—free—fearless, independent, and you are at liberty to do whatever with it you may desire. I do not send it so much to benefit you as I do to gratify my own personal feelings. My prayer is, that your valuable life may long be spared to wipe away the sorrows of the afflicted. Yours in esteem,

HENRY JEWELL.

YOUTH, AGE, STYLE, TASTE, BEAUTY, and FASHION.—The seasons of life should be arranged like those of the year. In the spring of youth, when all is lovely and gay, then as the green covering is spread on all the face of smiling nature in brightness and beauty, so let the dress partake of the season. Fine taste as well as fashion decrees the necessity of nicely adapted garments; to age, circumstances, and season. The man whose head is silvered over with age, who feels not the blood of youth dancing in his veins, should not run into extremes of dress—nor yet should he permit his Clothing to be so far behind the times as to render him ridiculous. There is a becoming Fashion—fashionable dress suitable for the age and season of life, as well as for the season of the year. You can be suited in handsome style, in CLOTHING that is well and fashionably made, of good materials, that will fit well, and become the figure and season, at the LANCASTER HALL OF FASHION of JOS. GORMLEY, North Queen Street, 2 doors south of Orange. [July 10-24
