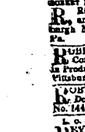
Reversible Filtering Cock,



FOR PURIFYING WATER,
Which renders impure water pure by removing all substances not soluble in water. The cocoa nut fibre in N. York is the cheapest and pure to the eye, yet when it passes an hour through this filtering cock, shows a large deposit of impure substances, worms, &c. This is the case more or less with all hydrant water.
The Reversible Filterer is neat and durable, and is attended with the inconvenience incident to other Filterers, as it is cleansed without being detached from the water pipe, by merely turning the key or handle from one side to the other. By this easy process, the course of water is changed, and all accumulations of impure substances are driven off almost instantly. The Filterer, it also possesses the advantage of being a stop cock, and as such in many cases will be very convenient and economical.
It can be attached where there is any pressure high or low to a cask, tank, tub, &c. with ease. To be had of the sole Agent,

MEDICAL.

RUBE FAGENT.—Horses while running at large in the fields are very apt to injure themselves in many ways. They are often disabled so as to be useless for a long time. If immediate use should be made of Dr. Johnson's & Co's Botanic Liniment, and the bruised part well saturated, and the remedy rubbed in, it would give relief and cure in pain. No farmer should be without this celebrated medicine, as it is alike healing to man or beast. Prepared and sold by

MORGAN'S WORM KILLER—Another proof of the triumphant success of Morgan's Vermifuge.
PITTSBURGH, May 19, 1849.
Mr. John D. Morgan—Hearing that you were in use to the suffering community, in regard to the article of Morgan's Vermifuge, you are perfectly welcome to it. I had two children afflicted with worms, which became alarmed, and very justly so, when I tried your renowned Vermifuge, and astonishing to tell, one of them was delivered of 37 worms, and the other, not long, of the most frightful kind, resembling more the appearance of eels. The other child was delivered of about 24. The children are now doing finely. You may well be proud of your Worm Killer.

YOUR COUGH MAY BE CURED.
ALLEGHENY CITY, (3d Ward.)
April 20, 1849.
Mr. R. E. Sellers: Being afflicted for some time with a cough, which was so severe as to unhinge my every daily employment. Frequently producing a fever, and leaving me exhausted, as to be compelled to sit down and rest. Hearing of the good effects produced by your Cough Syrup, I purchased one bottle, and I am happy to say it produced the desired effect in my case. After using it one night, the cough was abated, and I was able to sleep well. I now feel as well as ever.
This pleasant and popular Cough Syrup is prepared and sold by R. E. SELLERS, 57 Wood street, and also by Druggists generally in the two cities and vicinity. my11

SAVED HER LIFE—Sellers' Vermifuge is the cure.
(LEXINGTON, Va., Jan. 20, 1849

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. Rose's Celebrated Remedies.
DR JACOB S. ROSE, the discoverer and sole proprietor of these most popular and celebrated Medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated instrument for inflating the Lungs, in effecting a cure of Chronic diseases, is a native of Philadelphia, graduate from Doctor Physic, and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years since has been engaged in the study and practice of disease, and the application of remedies thereto.
Through the use of his inflating tube, in connection with his Prophylactic Syrup and other of these remedies he has gained an unparalleled eminence in curing those dreadful and fatal maladies, Pulmonary Consumption, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Fevers of all kinds, Chronic Erysipelas, and all those chronic diseases which are the diseases of every form of disease vanishes under the use of his remedies, to which humanity is heir—not by the use of some compounds which are in fashion, but with Physiological Law, but by the use of his remedies, adapted to and prescribed for each peculiar form of disease.
Dr. Rose's Tonic Alterative Pills, when used are invariably acknowledged to be superior to any other, as a purgative or liver tonic, inasmuch as they leave the bowels perfectly free from costiveness; as also his Golden Pills is admitted by the faculty to be superior to any other pill adapted to female diseases, but being satisfied that a rare trial is sufficient to establish what has been said in the recommendation of these pills.
The afflicted are invited to call upon the agent, and procure (gratis) one of the Doctor's pamphlets, giving a detailed account of a cure remedy and its application.

Jaynes' Expectorant.
SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 24, 1841.
DR. D. JAYNES: DEAR SIR—I feel bound as you and the afflicted public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on my wife. She has been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic fever and its concomitant diseases, and seemed only doomed to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1848, when, being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving out a few days or weeks longer than the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed by that Being who does all things in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a bottle to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for ten years previous.
Respectfully yours, &c. JAS. W. ESTILL.
