CONSTITUTION.

(CONCLUDED).

SEC. 13. The moneys held as necessary reserve shall be limited by law to the amount required for current expenses, and shall be secured by security as may be provided by law. Monthly statements shall be published showing the amount of such moneys, where the same are deposited, and how secured.

SEC. 14. The making of profit out of the public moneys, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer of the State or member or officer of the General Assembly, shall be a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as may be provided by law, but part of such punishment shall be a disqualification to hold office for a period of not less than five years.

ARTICLE X.

EDUCATION.

Section 1. The General Assembly shall provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public schools, wherein all the children of this Commonwealth, above the age of six years, may be educated, and shall appropriate at least one million dollars each year for that purpose.

SEC. 2. No money raised for the support of the public schools of the Commonwealth shall be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school.

SEC. 3. Women twenty-one years of age and upwards shall be eligible to any office of control or management under the school laws of this State.

ARTICLE XI.

MILITIA.

Section 1. The freemen of this Commonwealth shall be armed, organized and disciplined for its defense when and in such manner as may be directed by law. The General Assembly shall provide for maintaining the militia by appropriations from the Treasury of the Commonwealth, and may exempt from military service persons having conscientious scruples against bearing arms.

ARTICLE XII.

PUBLIC OFFICERS.

Section 1. All officers whose selection is not provided for in this constitution shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law.

SEC. 2. No member of Congress from this State, nor any person holding or exercising any office or appointment of trust or profit under the U. States, shall at the same time hold or exercise any office in this State to which a salary, fees, or perquisites shall be attached. The General Assembly may by law declare what offices are incompatible.

SEC. 3. Any person who shall fight a duel or send a challenge for that purpose, or be aider or abettor in fighting a duel, shall be deprived of the right of holding any office of honor or profit in this State, and may be otherwise punished as shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XIII.

NEW COUNTIES.

Section 1. No new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to less than four hundred square miles, or to less than twenty thousand inhabitants, nor shall any county be formed of less area or containing a less population, nor shall any line the seat pass within ten miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided.

ARTICLE XIV.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Section 1. County officers shall consist of sheriffs, coroners, prothonotaries, registers of wills, recorders of deeds, commissioners, treasurers, surveyors, auditors, or guardians, clerks of the courts, district attorneys, and such others as may from time to time be established by law; and no sheriff or treasurer shall be eligible for the term next succeeding the one for which he may be elected.

SEC. 2. County officers shall be elected at the general elections, and shall hold their offices for the term of three years beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

SEC. 3. No person shall be appointed to any office within any county who shall have not been a citizen and an inhabitant therein one year next before his appointment, if the county shall have been so long erected, but if it shall not have been so long erected, then within the limits of the county or counties out of which it shall have been taken.

SEC. 4. Prothonotaries, clerks of the courts, recorders of deeds, registers of wills, county surveyors, and sheriffs shall keep their offices in the county town of the county in which they respectively shall be officers.

SEC. 5. The compensation of county officers shall be regulated by law; and all county officers who are or may be salaried shall pay all fees which they may be authorized to receive into the treasury of the county or State, as may be directed by law. In counties containing over one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants all county officers shall be paid by salary, and the salary of any such officer and his clerks, hereafore paid by fees, shall not exceed the aggregate amount of fees earned during the year and collected by or for him.

SEC. 6. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the strict accountability of all county, township and borough officers, as well for the fees which may be collected by them as for all public or township moneys which may be paid to them.

SEC. 7. Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county where such officers are chosen, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and every third year thereafter; and in the election of such officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; a casual vacancy in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of a person of the proper county, who shall have voted for the original incumbent, or auditor whose place is to be filled.

ARTICLE XV.

CITIES AND CITY CHARTERS.

Section 1. Cities may be chartered, whenever a majority of the electors of any town or borough have to a population of at least ten thousand shall vote at a general election in favor of the same.

SEC. 2. No debt shall be contracted or liability incurred by any municipal commission, except in pursuance of an appropriation previously made in the regular municipal government.

SEC. 3. Every city shall create a sinking fund, which shall be adequate and pledged for the payment of its debt.

ARTICLE XVI.

CORPORATIONS.

SEC. 1. All corporate charters, or grants of special privileges or franchises, under which a bona fide organization shall not have taken place and business shall not be commenced in good faith at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall thereafter have no validity.

SEC. 2. The General Assembly shall not remit the liability of the stockholders of any corporation now existing, either in whole or in part, or pass any other special or special laws for the benefit of such corporation, except to diminish the extent that such corporation shall thereafter hold its charter subject to the provisions of this constitution.

SEC. 3. The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall never be so construed as to deprive the General Assembly from taking the property and franchises of incorporated companies, subjecting them to publicness, the same as the property of individuals, and the exercise of the right reserved to the state shall never be abridged or so construed as to permit corporations to consolidate the stock, property or franchises of parallel or competing lines, or to impair the equal rights of individuals or the general welfare of the State.

SEC. 4. In the election of directors or managers of a corporation every member or shareholder may give to one candidate or divide his votes for one candidate or distribute them upon two or more candidates, as he may prefer.

SEC. 5. No foreign corporation shall do any business in this State without having one or more known places of business, and an authorized agent or agents in the same upon whom process may be served.

SEC. 6. No corporation shall engage in any business other than that expressly authorized in its charter, nor shall it take or hold any real estate except such as may be required for its immediate accommodation in the business for which it is incorporated.

SEC. 7. No corporation shall issue stocks or bonds except for money, labor done, or money or property actually received, and all dividends or increase of stock or profits thereon shall be held to be the stock and profit of the holders of the original stock, and the issue of stock by any such corporation for the purpose of evading the provisions of this section shall be void; the stock of any such corporation shall be issued only for the value received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void; the stock of any such corporation shall be issued only for the value received, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void; the stock and bonds of any such corporation issued for more than the value received shall be deemed and held to be fully paid and not subject to be assessed or further call for money thereon; the property and franchises of all corporations shall be taxed as the property of individuals; the exercise of the right of eminent domain by any such corporation, or any stockholder therein, for the purpose of constructing any road, canal, or other work, shall not be construed to authorize such corporation to take the property or franchises of a competing line; no officer of any such corporation shall be a director in any other corporation of the same class.

SEC. 8. The rolling stock and other property of every railroad company shall be deemed and taken to be personal property.

SEC. 9. No corporation shall issue any bond or other paper, except a certificate of stock, payable to bearer, nor shall any such corporation hereafter borrow money except by a vote of its stockholders, at a meeting to be held after sixty days' notice given in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 10. The liabilities of stockholders in banking corporations and companies for the benefit of creditors shall not be released or impaired by any change in the form or character of such company.

SEC. 11. Any company or association doing a banking business shall make such disclosures of its condition as may be required by law.

SEC. 12. The property of all banking companies and of all other corporations, except such as may be specially exempted by law, shall be taxed to the same extent as the property of individuals.

SEC. 13. No corporation shall be created by special law, but the General Assembly shall have power to alter, revoke, or annul any charter of incorporation now existing and revocable at the adoption of this constitution, or any that may be hereafter created, whenever in their opinion it has become injurious to the citizens of this Commonwealth, in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators. No law hereafter enacted shall create, renew, or extend the charter of more than one corporation.

SEC. 14. No corporate body to possess banking and discounting privileges shall be created or organized in pursuance of any law without three months' previous public notice of the place of the intended location, of the intention to apply for such privileges, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, nor shall a charter for such privileges be granted for a longer period than twenty years.

SEC. 15. No association or corporation organized for trade, manufacture, or any mechanical, chemical or mining purpose, and no railroad, telegraph, telephone or express company, shall be created by special law, but shall be formed only under general laws. The General Assembly shall have power to repeal any charter of any such association or company now existing under special law, when it shall be made to appear that the charter was obtained by misrepresentation, or that the company has violated its charter or abused its powers to the injury of the people, or that the company has become insolvent, or has suspended specie payment for the space of one year, or has violated any law of this State, in such a manner as to have forfeited its charter, or that the company has become a nuisance or dangerous to the health of the people of this State, in such a manner that a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge the same to be a nuisance or dangerous to the health of the people of this State, in such a manner that a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge the same to be a nuisance or dangerous to the health of the people of this State.

SEC. 16. The property of all corporations for educational, charitable, or other purposes, except such as may be required for the use of such institutions, shall be taxed for the support of the common schools in the district where the institution is located, for a period of not less than ten years, when and to such extent as the General Assembly shall direct.

SEC. 17. No law hereafter enacted shall create, renew, or extend the charter of more than one corporation.

SEC. 18. No corporate body to possess banking and discounting privileges shall be created or organized in pursuance of any law without three months' previous public notice of the place of the intended location, of the intention to apply for such privileges, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, nor shall a charter for such privileges be granted for a longer period than twenty years.

SEC. 19. No association or corporation organized for trade, manufacture, or any mechanical, chemical or mining purpose, and no railroad, telegraph, telephone or express company, shall be created by special law, but shall be formed only under general laws. The General Assembly shall have power to repeal any charter of any such association or company now existing under special law, when it shall be made to appear that the charter was obtained by misrepresentation, or that the company has violated its charter or abused its powers to the injury of the people, or that the company has become insolvent, or has suspended specie payment for the space of one year, or has violated any law of this State, in such a manner as to have forfeited its charter, or that the company has become a nuisance or dangerous to the health of the people of this State, in such a manner that a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge the same to be a nuisance or dangerous to the health of the people of this State.

SEC. 20. No railroad, canal or other corporation, or the lessees, purchasers, or managers of any railroad or canal corporation, shall consolidate the stock, property, or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the works or franchises of, or in any way control any other railroad or canal corporation owning or having under its control a parallel or competing line, nor shall any officer of such railroad or canal corporation act as an officer of any other railroad or canal corporation owning or having the control of a parallel or competing line, and the question whether railroads or canals are parallel or competing lines, shall, when demanded by the party complainant, be decided by a jury as in other civil issues.

SEC. 21. No incorporated company doing the business of a common carrier, shall directly or indirectly, prosecute or engage in mining or manufacturing articles for transportation over its works, nor shall such company, directly or indirectly, engage in any other business than that of common carriers, or hold or acquire lands, freehold or leasehold, directly or indirectly, except such as shall be necessary for carrying on its business; but any mining or manufacturing company may carry the products of its mines and manufactories on its railroad or canal not exceeding fifty miles in length.

SEC. 22. No president, director, officer, agent, or employee of any railroad or canal company shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in the furnishing of material or supplies to such company, or in the business of transportation as a common carrier of freight or passengers over the works owned, leased, controlled or worked by such company.

SEC. 23. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation shall be made between transportation companies and individuals, or in favor of either, by abatement, drawback, or otherwise, and no railroad or canal company, or any lessee, manager, or employee thereof, shall make any preferences in furnishing cars or motive power.

SEC. 24. No railroad, railway or other transportation company shall grant free passes or passes at a discount, to any persons except officers or employees of the company.

SEC. 25. No street passenger railway shall be constructed within the limits of any city, borough or township without the consent of its local authorities.

SEC. 26. No railroad, canal or other transportation company, in existence at the time of the adoption of this article, shall have the benefit of any future legislation by general or special laws, except on condition of complete acceptance of all the provisions of this article.

SEC. 27. The existing powers and duties of the Auditor General in regard to railroads, canals, and other transportation companies, except as to their accounts, are hereby transferred to the Secretary of Internal Affairs, who shall have a general supervision over them, subject to such regulations and alterations as shall be provided by law; and in addition to the annual reports now required to be made, said Secretary may require special reports at any time upon any subject relating to the business of said companies from any officer or officers thereof.

SEC. 28. The General Assembly shall enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XVIII.

FUTURE AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 1. Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each House, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same to be published three months before the next general election in at least two newspapers in every county in which such newspapers shall be published; and if, in the General Assembly next afterwards chosen, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house, the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall cause the same again to be published in the manner aforesaid, and such proposed amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State in such manner, and at such time, at least three months after being so agreed to by the two houses, as the General Assembly shall prescribe; and if such amendment or amendments shall be approved by a majority of those voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the constitution; but no amendment or amendments shall be submitted oftener than once in five years; when two or more amendments shall be submitted they shall be voted upon separately.

SCHEDULE.

That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that:

SECTION 1. This constitution shall take effect on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, for all purposes not otherwise provided for therein.

SEC. 2. All laws in force in this Commonwealth at the time of the adoption of this constitution not inconsistent therewith, and all rights, actions, prosecutions, and contracts, shall continue as if this constitution had not been adopted.

SEC. 3. At the general election in the years one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five Senators shall be elected in all districts where there shall be vacancies. Those elected in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four shall serve for two years, and those elected in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five shall serve for one year. Senators now elected, and those whose terms are unexpired, shall represent the districts in which they reside until the end of the terms for which they were elected.

SEC. 4. At the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, Senators shall be elected from the even numbered districts to serve for two years, and from odd numbered districts to serve for four years.

SEC. 5. The first election of Governor under this constitution shall be at the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, when a Governor shall be elected for three years; and the term of the Governor elected in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight and of the Governors thereafter elected shall be for four years, according to the provisions of this constitution.

SEC. 6. At the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four a Lieutenant Governor shall be elected according to the provisions of this constitution.

SEC. 7. The Secretary of Internal Affairs shall be elected at the first general election after the adoption of this constitution; and when the said office shall be duly elected and qualified, the office of Surveyor General shall be abolished, and the Surveyor General in office at the time of the adoption of this constitution shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which he was elected.

SEC. 8. When the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be duly qualified, the office of Superintendent of Common Schools shall cease.

SEC. 9. Nothing contained in this constitution shall be construed to render any person now holding any State office for a first official term ineligible for re-election at the end of such term.

SEC. 10. The Judges of the Supreme Court in office when this constitution shall take effect shall continue until their commissions severally expire. Two judges in addition to the number now composing the said court shall be elected at the first general election after the adoption of this constitution.

SEC. 11. All courts of record and all existing courts which are not specified in this constitution shall continue in existence until the first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

OFFICE OF
SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH,
HARRISBURG, Nov. 13, 1873.

I certify that the foregoing is a correct copy of the new Constitution, proposed to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for their approval or rejection, as the same appears of record in this office.

M. S. QUAY,
Secretary of Commonwealth.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR SUBMITTING THE AMENDED CONSTITUTION OF PENNSYLVANIA TO A VOTE OF THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS THEREOF, AS PASSED SECOND READING.

Be it ordained by the Constitutional Convention of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as follows:

1. That the amended Constitution prepared by this Convention, be submitted to the qualified electors of the Commonwealth for their adoption or rejection, at an election to be held on the third Tuesday of December next; except as hereinafter ordered and directed, the said election shall be held and conducted by the regular election officers in the several election districts throughout the Commonwealth, under all the regulations and provisions of existing laws relating to general elections; and the sheriffs of the several counties shall give at least twenty days notice of said election by proclamation.

2. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall, at least twenty days before the said election, furnish to the Commissioners of each county, a sufficient number of properly prepared circulars of instructions. The Commissioners of the several counties shall cause to be printed at least three times as many ballots of affirmative votes as there are voters in each county—and the same number of negative votes; and the said Commissioners shall, at least five days before said election, cause to be fairly distributed to the several election districts in their respective counties, the said ballots, tally-lists, returns, circulars of instruction, and such other books and papers as may be necessary. The ballots shall be printed or written in the following form: On the outside the words "New Constitution" in the inside for all persons giving affirmative votes the words "For the New Constitution," and for all persons giving negative votes the words "Against the New Constitution."

3. If it shall appear that a majority of the votes polled are for the new Constitution, then it shall be the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; but if it shall appear that a majority of the votes polled were against the new Constitution, then it shall be rejected and be null and void.

4. Five Commissioners of Election, viz: Edwin H. Fitler, Edward Browning, John P. Verree, Henry S. Hagert, and John O. James, are hereby appointed by this Convention, who shall have direction of the election upon this amended Constitution in the city of Philadelphia. The said Commissioners shall be duly sworn or affirmed to perform their duties with impartiality and fidelity. They shall also have power to fill vacancies in their own number. It shall be the duty of said Commissioners, or a majority of them, and they shall have authority to make a registration of voters for the several election divisions of said city, and to furnish the lists so made to the election officers of each precinct or division; to distribute the tickets for said city provided for by this ordinance to be used at the election; to appoint a judge and two inspectors for each election division, by whom the election therein shall be held and conducted, and to give all necessary instructions to the election officers regarding their duties in holding the election and making returns thereof. No person shall serve as an election officer who would be disqualified under Section 15, Article 8, of the new Constitution. The general return of the election in the said city shall be opened, computed and certified before the said Commissioners, and with their approval—which approval shall be endorsed upon the return.—They shall make report, directed to the President of the Convention, of their official action under this ordinance and concerning the conduct of the said election within the said city.

The Judges and Inspectors aforesaid shall conduct the election in all respects conformably to the general election laws of this Commonwealth; and with like powers and duties to those of ordinary election officers. Each Inspector shall appoint one clerk to assist the Board in the performance of its duties, and all the election officers shall be duly sworn or affirmed according to law, and shall possess all the qualifications required by law of election officers of this Commonwealth. At said election any duly qualified elector who shall be unregistered, shall be permitted to vote upon making proof of his right to the election officers, according to the general election laws of this Commonwealth. Return Inspectors and their clerks and an hourly count of the votes shall be dispensed with, but overseers of election may be selected for any precinct by said Election Commissioners, whose duties and powers shall be the same as those of overseers of election in said city under existing election laws applicable thereto. Returns of the election shall be made in said city as in the case of an election for Governor, but a triplicate general return for said city shall be made out and forwarded to the President of this Convention at Harrisburg, as is hereinafter provided in case of county returns.

5. In each of the Counties of the Commonwealth, (except Philadelphia,) the returns of the election shall be made as in the case of an election for Governor, but the return judges in each county shall make out a triplicate county return and transmit the same, within five days after the election, directed to the President of this Convention, at Harrisburg.

Done in Convention this third day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WOOL CARDING,

MANUFACTURING, &C.

After a recess of four years, and heavy expenditure in improving Mills and Water Power, we again resume our old business of

MANUFACTURING, WOOL CARDING, CLOTH DRESSING, &C.

Appreciating the hard times, we have thought best not to "let down," but to push Home Industry as the best means of restoring plenty.

For the accommodation of the nearly extinct race of Spinners, we shall make Rolls. For those who prefer, we will make Yarn.—

STOCKING YARN, FLANNEL, &C.

In conjunction with Local Option we propose to aid the frugality of the country by making a few thousand yards of Stout Cloth, that will enable a every man to keep his breeches on.

Those who can, should call and we will show them one of the snugest and most complete

WOOLEN FACTORIES

In the United States.

Our machinery is now in good order, as our water power is never-failing he public may be in no fear of disappointment, and we warrant all work to be done properly.

THE MILD POWER CURES!

HUMPHREYS'

HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS

Have proved, from the most ample experience, an entire success. Simple, prompt, efficient and reliable. They are the only medicine perfectly adapted to popular use—so simple that mistakes cannot be made in using them; so harmless as to be free from danger; and so efficient as to be always reliable. They have the highest commendation from all, and will always render
