A Supplement to an Ordinance,

ENTITLED "An Ordinance providing for the Selection and appointment of certain officers of the Corporation," passed the 15th day of February A. D. 1849.

PREAMBLE—Whereas, The necessary improvement of the Water Works, will cause numerous additional duties to develope upon the Superintendant, rendering it impossible for him to attend to the collection of the water taxes, during its progress, Sec 1. Be it therefore ordained and enacted by the citizens of Lancaster, in Select and Common Councils, assembled: That the Select and Common Councils shall elect a Collector of the Water Taxes, independent of the superintendant of the Water Works—and Collector of the Water Rents; and that such Collector of Water Taxes be elected on the second Tuesday of February, A. D. 1850, and annually thereafter, when such Collector's services may be required.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, that the Superintendant of the Water Works, and the Collecter of the Water Rents shall be entitled to receive for all his services an annual salary of $400: payable quarterly, during such time that a Collector of Water Taxes may be chosen and continued in service

Sec. 3. Be it further ordained that so much of the said ordinance as is hereby altered or supplied, is hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law at the city of Lancaster, on the 8th day of February, A. D. 1850.

Valuable Farm at Public Sale.

WILL be offered at public sale, at Duke's Hotel, in the borough of Shippensburg, Cumberland county, on THURSDAY, 7th day of March 1850, a tract of land containing of limestone land, situated in Franklin county, on the road leading to Roxbury, adjoining lands of Rev. Alex. Sharp, Henderson Skiles, D. Forney, J. Wolf, McPherson, and David Spencer. The land is without improvements, but in a high state of cultivation. There are about 50 Acres of heavy timber, and a large quantity of LOCUST TIMBER, growing on the place, the soil being perfectly congenial to the growth of Locust.

Purchasers wishing to see the farm, can call on Daniel Humer, living on Rev. A. Sharp's farm, adjoining lands, or on the subscriber living four miles south of Carlisle, on the Baltimore turnpike. A good and indisputable title will be given. The farm will be offered in one, or in two separate tracts to suit purchasers. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock. A. M. on said day, when attendance will be given and terms made known by Lancaster Savings' Institution.

NOTICE.—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Lancaster Savings' Institution held on the 18th day of October last, it was among other things,

Resolved, That Ten Thousand dollars of the Capital Stock of the Lancaster Savings' Institution, in addition to that already paid in, be and the same is hereby required to be paid, by the stockholders (being ten dollars on each share of stock) in four equal quarterly instalments, as follows, viz:

One fourth thereof on first day of April, 1850.
" do " " " " July "
" do " " " " Oct. "
" do " " " " Jan. 1851.

and that the times of declaring the semi-annual dividends, be changed from the first Thursdays in May and November, to the first Thursdays in July and January of each year.

At the same time it was also further

Resolved, That, from and after the first day of November, 1849, the rates of interest to be paid on moneys deposited, be as follows, viz:

On sums deposited for 3 mo. 4 per ct. per annum.
Sums deposited for 6 and 9 mo. 4½ per ct. do
Sums deposited for 12 mo. 5 per ct. do and that the interest be paid semi-annually on the 12 month deposits.

The capital stock of the Lancaster Savings Institution is fixed by the Act of Incorporation at $50,000, of which sum $20,000 has been already paid in, and the additional instalment now ordered to be paid, will increase that amount to $30,000 by the first day of January, 1851.

This Institution presents inducements to depositors of money, which are not to be found in any other Institution in the State, and enables persons having no immediate use for their monies, to draw an amount of interest therefore equal to the ordinary rates paid in the county and upon most undoubted security.

By order of the Board of Trustees.
