KOSSUTH, according to reports, is preparing for revolutionary attempt in Europe as soon as the prospect may arrive. We may then look for a revival of the Kossuth hats and revolutionary fashions. But we have no doubt the Philadelphia public, no matter what may be the changes in dress, will still continue to provide themselves with clothing from ROCKHILL & WILSON'S cheap and elegant clothing store, No. 111 Chesnut street, corner of Franklin Place. dec 22, 1v-49

The Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—Stocks and receipts continue very light, and with a moderate export demand, which is principally to go east, the Flour market is firmer at the close, and the stock on sale very much reduced; some 5a6000 bbls have been disposed of in small lots principally to go out of the market, at $11 for standard brands, $11,25 for extra, and $11,50 per bbl for extra family, including fancy brands at high rates. The sales for home consumption have also been small, at $11,25, within the above range of prices. Rye Flour continues in steady demand, and 14a1500 bbls have been taken at $7,37½ per bbl. Corn Meal is scarce, and about 3000 bbls found buyers at $5 for Pennsylvania Meal, including 600 bbls Brandywine on terms not public. The inspections for the week are 9,014 bbls Flour, 3783 bbls Corn Meal, and 1348 bbls Rye Flour.

GRAIN.—There has been rather more Wheat offering this week, and with a moderate demand for milling, prices have ruled about stationary, sales reaching some 24,000a25,000 bushels, including inferior to fair Western, at 240a250c, good to strictly prime Pennsylvania reds at 260a265c, and white at $265a 70c, as to quality; the closing sales were at 260c for good reds, and 265a268c for white. Rye has been freely taken on arrival, at a further advance, and 8000a9000 bushels Pennsylvania were disposed of at 160c. Corn has been very active, at a slight decline on last week's quotations, and 55,000a60,000 bushels have been taken, at 109a11 1c, mostly at the former price, afloat, at which rate the market closes with more buyers than sellers; included in the sales were some lots of white at 106a107c. Oats are better, and 18,000a20,000 bushels have been sold at 68a70c, mostly good Pennsylvania at the latter price

BALTIMORE, May 31.

CATTLE MARKET.—The offerings of Beef Cattle today were 600 head, and prices fell off 50 cents per cwt; 300 head were driven eastward, and 270 head sold at prices ranging from $7,20 to $7,75 net. The hog market is firm; sales at $7,50a$8 per cwt.

New Mennonite Hymn Book.—Murray & Stork have just received direct from the Publishers, a large supply of the new edition of the Mennonite Hymn Book. This edition contains sixteen pages of German Hymns more than former editions. Price 40 cents.

MURRAY & STORK.

Our Book Table.—Is it Possible to make the best of both worlds? By the Rev. T. Binney, 18mo. "We wish that all apprentices, and young men entering on business, could be induced to procure and study this book. The happy results of future years would be the reward of attending to its counsels."

Emblems Divine and Moral. By Francis Quarles. 16mo. Illustrated. "The quaint, suggestive and beautiful emblems of Quarels, are reproduced in a handsome volume, full of wisdom and sanctified wit, and impressive with the most spiritual and earnest views of Divine truth."

Infidelity; Its Aspect, Causes and Agencies. By the Rev. Thomas Pearson. The fine edition of the on large type. 8vo. "We have no hesitation, without knowing anything of the author except from this work, in assigning to him a place among the most philosophical and discriminating minds of the age."

The Eternal Day. By the Rev. Horatius Bonar. 18mo. "This book is written and published for the joy and strength of those who are looking forward to an eternal day in heaven. The discussion is scriptural and full of unction and power. Many a weary pilgrim will read it with intense interest, and receive a new impulse in his journey toward that better land."

The Right of the Bible in the Common Schools. By George R. Cheever, D. D. 16mo. "We wish that this book might circulate so widely that it should enter beneath every roof, and be read by every individual who has any interest in the purity and the prosperity of our common schools—and Who has not? Dr. Cheever's argument is unanswerable. It effectually disposes of all the sophistry with which this subject has been invested by designing ecclesiastics and demagogues. His logic is the plain common sense that commends itself to the judgment of plain and honest men."

Daniel; A Model for Young Men. By the Rev. W. A. Scott, D. D. 8vo. "The topic is one of deepest interest, and probably no character in the sacred Scriptures is more admirably suited to be held up as a model to young men, than that of the Prophet Daniel. The style of the work is fresh, vigorous and bold, and reveals an original mind accustomed to do its own thinking. Altogether the volume is one of no ordinary interest and value, and we trust may lead many a young man to imitate the lofty principle, the incorruptible integrity, and the unwavering piety of the youthful prophet."

The above excellent Books, together with a large and elegant assortment of a similar character are always to be found on the shelves of the CHEAP BOOK STORE.

Also, a general assortment of Miscellaneous Books, Fine Stationery, Sunday school Books, Common school Books, and English and German Family Bibles at almost any price.

☞ Remember the Cheap Book Store, Kramph's Buildings, North Queen Street.
