INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE.

U. S. PORTABLE BOAT LINE.

For the Transportation of Merchandise to and from Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston. Through in the shortest time.

THE United States Portable Boat Line, is composed of Boats built in four sections, each section capable of containing seven tons, and susceptible of being separate or detached and transferred from Canal to Rail Road; thus, as it were, forming a complete train of Cars, or presenting the novel appearance of a Boat sailing on land and thereby avoiding the great delay occasioned by reshipping at the several junctions and terminations of Canals and Rail Roads, the expense of transhipment and the damage the goods sustain by frequent handling; and rendering it impossible to separate lots of goods on the way—owing to the peculiar construction of the Boat having four separate apartments in which goods are stored, renders them less liable to damage goods by water or otherwise than by any other mode of transportation.

The system of Transportation, as recommended by the Canal Commissioners and lately adopted by the State, refers particularly to this class of Boats, The Boats of this Line are owned by responsible captains that run them, and is the only Line now in operation free from monopolies or combination.

Goods consigned to the undersigned agents will be received free of commission and shipped without delay at the lowest rates. All charges paid and every instruction promptly attended to. C. A. M'NULTY & Co. Agts.

THORN'S TEA-BERRY TOOTH WASH—A New Fashionable Remedy.—The extreme beauty of the Teeth, their indispensable use, and the frequency of their decay, hasted to many inventions for their preservation; yet how to preserve them in a state of health in pristine beauty, to the latest periods of existence, was entirely unknown until the discovery of the above invaluable preparation. It forms a pure liquid composed of vegetable ingredients, and is possessed of the most delicious odor. It eradicates tartar from the teeth, removes spots of incipient decay, polishes and preserves the enamel, to which it gives a pearl-like whiteness, and, from its distilling properties, possesses the virtue of giving sweetness to the breath.

As an Anti-Scorbutic, the Gums also share in its transcendent powers; Scurvey is eradicated from them, a healthy action and redness is induced, which differs to the unbiased of the medical practitioner indubitable evidence of their healthful state. It has been examined and used by several of the first physicians of this city, who have no hesitation in recommending it as an excellent wash for the Teeth, Gums, etc.

Among the recommendations to the above are the following:

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the most, as it is one of the most pleasant Tooth Washes now in use.
Pittsburgh Sep. 15, 1842 DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

I take pleasure in stating, having used one of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentifrices in use. Being in a liquid form, it combines most well with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable. J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extreme pleasant dentifrice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving them free from possible numbers from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in [illegible] it to the public, believing it to be the best [illegible]

TO THE PUBLIC, and particularly to my friends and patrons of this city. Having retired from the practice of Medicine, I may be permitted to say, that it has fallen to the lot of but few persons to have enjoyed so liberal or large a share of obstetrical practice as my own has been for the last 30 or 40 years.

The experience of that long period of active life, and the fact of my having been twice, since 1830, associated with Dr. R. A. Wilson, in the practice of medicine, (in both a period of five years,) enables me to judge fully of the merits of his pills.

Convenient, efficient, and yet so safe, did I esteem these pills, that for the last five years in my practice for the cure of chronic diseases, of whatever name, and those of females in particular, I have used more of them than all other medicines.

Like every other medicine, this must fail in some instances, but in my hands there has been less disappointment and more satisfaction in the administration of this one remedy than of all others; its good effects sometimes quite astonishing me.

If my patient required a safe aperient medicine either before or after parturition, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.

If a dyspeptic acid condition of the stomach, combined with costiveness or inactivity of the liver constituted the disease of my patient, the pills were just the thing I wanted.

If I treated a case requiring an anodyne cathartic, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.

If palpitation, headache, flushed countenance, or other difficulties, indicating a disturbance of the circulatory and secretory systems, annoyed my patient at the turn of life, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.

Thus, without respect to the name, a disease might happen to wear at the time I have had it under treatment, particular indications or symptoms arising, were always met promptly and most happily met by the Wilson's pills.

That so great a number of diseases, and sometimes apparently opposite ones, in which I have used these pills, should be cured more readily by them than by any other remedy, may at first seem strange and contradictory, but why it is so is as clear to my mind as that a great many persons should become thirsty from so many different causes, and yet all require that common and greatest of all blessings, water to quench their thirst.

In conclusion, it is due the reputation of the medicine and the public, to say decidedly and unconditionally, that the Wilson's pills are the only combination I have ever met with in my long course of practice, that really possesses anything curative or specific for sick headache.
Yours &c., DR. MILO ADAMS

The above Pills designed particularly for the sick Hard Ache, Dyspepsia, Constipation of the Bowels &c., prepared by the proprietor Dr. R. A. Wilson, and for sale, wholesale and retail, at his dwelling in Penn street, below Market.
