The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1844.

☞ See fourth page.

FARM FOR THE POOR.—We would call the attention of owners of improved farms, to the advertisement of the Commissioners appointed by the city of Allegheny, to receive proposals for a farm, and to erect suitable buildings for the lodging and maintaining of the poor of the city.

☞ A press of advertisements for some days past has encroached on the portion of our paper usually occupied by reading matter. Those who take no interest in advertisements must excuse us for a few days; the favors of our business friends cannot be postponed, but in a short time we will be able to give more reading matter than our limits have permitted for some weeks past.

☞ It will be seen by a letter from a Harrisburgh correspondent that the bill for the sale of the main line of the public works, and the tax bill passed the House of Representatives.

CLAY "BUSTED."—The young men's Clay Club of this city has received a plaster bust of the whig candidate, from their brother coons of Philadelphia. It does not bear the slightest resemblance to the original, and we do not think it was ever intended for a likeness.—But that is not of any importance; the young coons call it a "bust of Clay," and if they are satisfied, it's nobody else's business.

DECAPITATION OF A VICE CONSUL.—In a letter received by a gentleman of Philadelphia, dated February 20th, 1844, from the United States Consul, at Tangier, Morocco, it is stated, that the Emperor of Morocco, a few days previous to the date given above, "had taken it into his head to decapitate a vice consul, or consular agent, then holding a commission from the Spanish Consul, by which the sacred rights of an official foreign agent were violated."

FATHER MATTHEW.—This distinguished apostle of temperance will visit the United States in June. He will be hailed with joy by every philanthropist in the country, and his mission will no doubt result in much good to the glorious cause in which he has become so distinguished.

THE DUEL BETWEEN PIERCE BUTLER AND JAMES SCHOTT, JR.

It took place not on the North Carolina line, but at Bladensburg, at 5 o'clock on Monday morning.—Harrison Gray Otis, Jr., of Boston, was the second of Mr. Schott, and his surgeon was Dr. Geo. Lellan of this city. Mr Allston of S C., was the second of Mr Butler. As the challenged party, the latter decided that the combatants should stand back, walk some paces, turn and fire. As Mr Schott was somewhat lame, his friends protested against such terms. The opponents were inflexible, and so the rules were submitted to. Two shots were exchanged without effect, both parties behaving coolly, though proving themselves poor marksmen. "Poor Schott!" said one of the witnesses involuntarily, but he meant both the belligerents. Finally Mr Schott's friend refused to let his principal fight any longer under such disadvantageous circumstances, as he was too lame to turn round with celerity, and the other party would not give way. Mr Schott was yesterday with John M. Clayton of Delaware, and Mr Butler was at Baltimore, and is now probably at home. The cause of this duel, we fully explained some days ago.—Phil. Times.

NARROW ESCAPE.

A land slide took place on Monday last, in the rear of Mr. Watts' cigar store, in Brooklyn, (N. Y.) where some excavations are going on for the erection of new buildings; the earth in its descent caught one of the laborers, an Irishman, and completely buried him up to the chin; a mob that had been collected near, by the capers of a runaway horse, made a simultaneous rush to the scene, and discovered the head only of a son of Erin peering above the soil, the remaining portion of his body being buried by the earth which had caved in. The mob took the affair very quietly and cracked jokes with those who were digging him out. He said among other jokes that he thought he was as good a Native American as the best, since he had been dug out of Yankee soil.

SUDDEN DEATH OF TWO DISTINGUISHED CITIZENS OF WATERTOWN.

The Black River Journal announces the almost simultaneous deaths of the Honorable Egbert Ten Eyck and the Honorable Micah Sterling, two of the most estimable and universally esteemed citizens of Watertown. Mr. Sterling was attacked with scarlet fever, which causing inflamation upon the lungs, terminated fatally. Mr. S. though a native of Connecticut, has resided for more than thirty years in Jefferson County. Few men were more extensively known, or more universally respected. Judge Ten Eyck was a native of this county. He too was much respected at home and abroad.—Alb. Evc. Jour.

GREAT LOSS BY FIRE.

The "Globe Factory" of Martin & Cassity, about two miles above Florence, Ala., was burnt to the ground on the night of the 4th inst. The Globe Factory was the most extensive manufacturing establishment in the South. The Florence Courier says:—It supplied a large portion of our country with the best of cotton fabrics, and afforded employment for nearly 150 persons, who had no other orbetter dependencies for their subsistence. The property destroyed was estimated at about $30,000, upon which an insurance of $10,000 had been secured. It is believed that the fire was occasioned by an incendiary.

BUZBY & BROTHER,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.
This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.
To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.
Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh, to any part of the west, free of commissions.

UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE
For the transportation of Merchandize to and from

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.
Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.

THE PAINTER'S SOLILOQUY.

My Brush I think I will extend
To every one in trade,
They'll look upon me as their friend,
Because I offer aid.

Besides I'll give them something new,
And that I'm sure is fair;
Tell them to paint a handsome blue
If they want to sell their ware.

Then let the Printer have the news,
He'll spread it anon,
Hear what he says respecting Shoes
Cain's just been getting on.

He has every size and color too,
The Price I soon will tell:
I'm sure it would astonish you,
To see how fast they sell.

For thirty-seven cents they go,
And by the thousand too;
They always sell so very low,
At the store that's painted blue.

Cain's fancy shoes are very neat—
He make's them to the measure,
And when his work is on your feet
You'll realize much pleasure.

The Store's on Fifth and Market corner,
North-Western, I maintain,
It once was kept by Jimmy Verner,
But now by HARRY CAIN.
