MATINEE MUSICAL CLUB

Final Concert of the Season Will Be Given on April 13.

The season of the Matinee Musical Club, in so far as concerts on Tuesday afternoons is concerned, is nearing the end. But one more concert is scheduled, and it will be held April 13, under the direction of Mary Walker Nichols. She will have a program devoted to songs of Shakespeare. At the concert last Tuesday there was a large attendance and the hall at the Roosevelt was crowded. Mrs. William B. Mount was in charge, and one of the features was the playing of piano duets by her and Mrs. L. Howard Weatherly. Edna Hoppe Rosenthal delighted with songs, and the scenes from "Carmen," offered by Mrs. John Dunn, Jr., and William Dowdell, were admirably presented, in costume. Piano solos, contributed by Lavinia Gertrude King, Mrs. Joseph H. Stopp, Mrs. Weatherly, Elizabeth Gest and Marie Belt, were well received. Beatrice Flint Collin and Anna Laura Johnson were among the singers. Mrs. Edward F. Linch and Mrs. Edward Butterworth were accompanists.
