CENTRAL AMERICAN states are at war with each other.

IT is a little late for the South to talk about boycotting the North. They tryed that once with guns.

PRESIDENT HARRISON and Major General Schofield, visited Mt. Gretna, and reviewed the Pennsylvania National Guard last Thursday.

CLOAKMAKERS in New York went in to an extensive strike. The most of them are foreigners and their places are being rapidly filled by American girls.

FROM the Philadelphia Inquirer: Rev. John Eberle of Pottstown has only eaten one meal daily for thirty years. He is hale, hearty and vigorous, his abstemious regimen having cured him of disease.

THE seal is a little thing to fight over, but if the United States obtained the ownership of Behring Sea with the purchase of Alaska, what right has England to attempt to ignore the rights obtained by purchase.

THE Democratic State ticket poses as a Good Lord and Good Devil ticket. Mr. Pattison poses as a model reformer. Mr. Black is a practical smoker taker, and Mr. Barclay shows his hand to the sports by winning $75,000 in a lottery prize.

WHEN Cleveland was in the Presidential chair he cast his influence in favor of gold coin as the single money standard. Financial safety lies in the continuance of Republican rule, and the complete adoption of both silver and gold coin as the standard of money.

IN the Democracy in their wild denunciations of corporations could uproot corporations and throw the people back to farming, farm products would become so plenty that the products of the farms would go down a half further in prices, below what they are now. The Republican party do not propose to uproot corporations. They only want to regulate them by law.

THE question of seal fishing in Behring Sea, is one for settlement between the United States and England. England complaines that United States war ships have seized British seal fishers outside of the three mile limit from land. The question is, does the United States own Behring Sea. If she does, she can keep England from seal fishing in its waters?

THE Democracy are making a great ado over the probable fact that the government will not pay expenses the present year, because of the increase of pensions. The Democrats did not make a fuss when United States bonds under James Buchanan could not find buyers at 12 and 15 per cent. discount. Now five hundred million bonds could be sold in a week at 6 and 7 per cent.

THAT the descendents of the early New England stock know how to take care of what they get, as well as their ancestors knew how to take care of their possessions is evidenced in the preservation of a blanket, which is spoken of as follows by a Boston paper: "Dexter Wright Hewitt, three times the great-grandson of General Israel Putman, of Revolutionary fame was christened last Sunday at New Haven, Conn. The child was wrapped in the blanket that enveloped his brave ancestor in the early part of the seventeenth century on like occasion."

"TRUTH is stranger than fiction." —A woman from Germany came to Easton, Pa., with several children and claimed an Easton man named W. F. Drumbore as her husband and alleged that he ran away from her in Germany in 1870. She had photographs of her husband that looked like Drumbore. The whole family laid claim to the Easton man, and if he had ever been in Germany he might have had some trouble, but as he was Easton born and had never been to the Fatherland the German woman and her family had to give him up as a case of mistaken identity.

THE Democratic party the past two generations has been against tariff laws. The leaders it put into prominent office were free traders, and if they had had their way, the country would now be almost exclusively an agricultural country, with revenues of government raised by a direct tax, instead of a tax that is laid on such articles that foreigners desire to sell in this country. The Republican party has aided the establishment of manufacturies. The manufacturing establishment created a demand for work men, and thousands of people left the farms to engage in other work and that created a greater demand for all kinds of farm produce, and in that way the prices of produce has been kept up. If the people were all farmers, who would there be to buy the products of the farms? The Republican party has ever been the farmer's best friend, and it is the organization through which to correct the crudities that exist in the new order of things that have grown up with manufacturing and corporate business. How can the blind lead the blind? How can the democratic free trade leaders and anti-corporation leaders make the corrections? They may tear down but they cannot make such corrections as the changed times require. The safety lies in the perpetuation of republican rule.

Campmeeting Horse Thief.

From the Chambersburg Repository:—A horse and buggy belonging to Isaac Hartzook, son of John Hartzook who lives three miles from town, was stolen at campmeeting at Conococheague Island on Saturday night. The team had been hitched to the fence near the house and was missed about 9.00 o'clock. The animal was a black mare weighing about 1200 pounds, with white star in head, heavy mane, a little sore in the wither. She was hitched in a new falling top Markwood buggy, with a set of silver mounted harness. The mare has a young colt at home.

Great Seashore Vacation Trips via Pennsylvania Railroad.

These trips include in the tickets the most desirable resorts on the Jersey coast, and the long return limit of ten days fills the exact period of the average midsummer holiday. A Freak of Lightning.

A correspondent of the Huntington News gives the following account of the striking of J. G. Alison's barn, near Allensville, on Tuesday: The lightning struck the gable of the west end of the barn, the fluid passing down on the inside and also on the outside of the stone work (the barn being a stone structure), shattering the wall somewhat as well as the windows, and into the ground. The hay in the mow ignited, and the roof of the wagon-shed on the outside soon caught fire from the flames blazing out through a window. Mr. Allison, his sons, Harry and Willie, and Clair Grove, were in the barn at the time unloading wheat, and Mr. Allison's two little girls had just taken some water to the barn for the men to drink, were in the barn floor. None of the persons were hurt, but Willie had his hair slightly singed. Three of the horses which were hitched to the wagon were thrown to their knees, and the other one was knocked down flat and all badly frightened. The first effort made by those present was to get the horses out safely, which was difficult to do owing to their being so badly frightened. A horse standing in the stable but a few feet from where the electric fluid passed into the ground seemed entirely unconscious of it. By this time, which was very short, however, the fire in the hay mow was burning considerably, but the hay being just sweating the fire did not get much headway. A determined effort to conquer the flames was made and it proved successful. A number of neighbors came very soon and succeeded in smothering and quenching the flames. The barn is a large one, and contained besides hay, &c., about 500 dozen sheaves of wheat. It was surely a miraculous accomplishment to subdue the flames and save the barn.

A farmer near St. Louis has a nest of owls in his barn and they keep it free from rats and mice. The birds lay up provisions at night for the next day. The farmer marked the bodies of the mice he found by cutting off one foot with a pair of scissors. At night all the marked mice would be gone and the next morning there would be a fresh supply.

ASSEMBLY.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—Announce that WM. Hertzler of Port Royal is a candidate for the nomination of Assemblyman from Juniata Mr. Hertzler is the present member, and his record commends itself to such a degree that it seems like a mistake not to return him to the State Legislature.

PORT ROYAL.

PROTHONOTARY.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—At the request of many friends, I ask you—Please announce my name as a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, subject to the usages of the Republican party in Juniata county. If I receive the nomination and am elected I will try to please the people whom I could serve in the duties of the office.

OLIVER C. DIFFENDERFER.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN: Please announce the name of Uriah Shuman of Delaware township as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. Mr. Shuman ranks among the best citizens in the county. He is able and honest. He has always been in the front for the advancement of his party principles, and never behind when the good of the people in local affairs are at stake. He is the kind of a man to nominate at the primary election, and the kind of a man the people will gladly vote for and elect to the office in November.

DELAWARE.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—Please announce to the Republican voters of Juniata county the name of Wm. B. McCahan of Milford township as a candidate for County Commissioner. Mr. McCahan has hosts of friends. He is a farmer, a good citizen, was a soldier, is a competent man, and is a typical American, who will fill the office with credit to himself and fidelity to the public generally.

MILFORD.

MR. EDITOR:—At the request of numerous friends and citizens of Juniata, I present myself to the consideration of the Republicans for renomination for the office of County Commissioner, subject to Republican usages. My past administration of the office is a guaranty of what my future action will be, if favored by a re-nomination and re-election.

FRANCIS HOWER.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—Dear Sir: The county government which is lodged in the board of County Commissioners, is of more importance in times of peace to the people of the county than the general government and therefore the board of county commissioners should be composed of honest and capable men, who will discharge the affairs of office for the general good. With this object in view I would name Joseph Sieber of Fayette township as a citizen abundantly qualified to fill the important office of county commissioner. His nomination at the primary election will give the people generally an opportunity to elect a good man to the important office in November.

JUNIATA.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLIAN: Please announce the name of W. Harry Moore, of Walker Twp., as a candidate for nomination for County Commissioner, subject to Republican usages. Mr. Moore's record as a Soldier and Citizen is without blemish and he possesses all the qualifications necessary to make a good and efficient officer having received within a few votes of a majority three years ago, after not being able to canvass the county on account of sickness in his family, fully attests his claim for the office.

MIFFLINTOWN.

May 12, 1890.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to Republican rules. If nominated and elected I pledge myself to an efficient and economical administration of county affairs in the interest of the tax-payers.

JOHN S. MUSSER.

Walker township, June 24, 1890.

COUNTY TREASURER.

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN—Dear Sir:—James J. McMullin of Tuscarora township has numerous friends, who desire to have him announced as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer at the Republican Primary Election, subject, to the rules that govern the party, feeling satisfied that if he becomes the standard bearer for that office, he will prove a tower of strength before the people in old Tuscarora and the upper end, and throughout the entire county at the November election. He is a man of straight forward address and good business qualifications and common sense views of financial affairs.

TUSCARORA.

EDITOR OF THE JUNIATA SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN—Dear Sir—In conformity with the rules of the Republican party for primary nomination that all candidates for office must be publicly announced, I present the name of Luke Davis of Walker township as a most suitable man for the office of County Treasurer. Mr. Davis lives in the heaviest tax-paying township in the county, a township that has not been honored with a nomination for county office in years. He has been a heavy tax-payer all his life, an economical citizen, a tiller of the soil, a soldier in the Union army almost three years, a member of the National Guard five years, a good citizen every way, who will prove himself an efficient county officer, if the people will do themselves justice in electing him.

WALKER.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—No man in this community has the public confidence to a greater degree for honesty of purpose and financial integrity than Frederick Espenschade, and for that reason he is one of the fittest men in the county for official position, therefore I present him as a candidate for the primary nomination for the office of County Treasurer. He has not been an office-seeker and for that reason will be acceptable to a large majority of people. His extensive acquaintance which has been acquired throughout the county by diligent attention to business will make him invincible before the people in November.

MIFFLINTOWN.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN:—Dear Sir: John F. Ehrenzeller of Fayette township, may not be known personally to every man in the county, but wherever he is known his name when mentioned in connection with the nomination for the office of County Treasurer, inspires confidence. He is a man of the people and resides in the banner district of the county. The eyes of all Juniata are turned upon Fayette at election time. Considering the personal qualities of Mr. Ehrenzeller and the district in which he lives his nomination at the primary would be most timely and his election assured in November.

FAYETTE.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN.

EDITOR SENTINEL AND REPUBLICAN. Dear Sir:—Please announce Calvin B. Horning of Mifflintown as a candidate for chairman of the Republican County Committee. Mr. Horning is an able organizer and will make an efficient chairman.

MIFFLINTOWN.

At the earnest request of Republicans from all parts of the county, I offer myself for re-election as Chairman of the County Committee. If elected my course in that office during the past year will be a pledge for my future conduct.

CARL F. ESPENSCHADE.

Mifflintown, June 24, 1890.

COUNTY AUDITOR.

Please announce B. S. Graybill, of Walker, as a candidate for County Auditor, subject to Republican usages.

WALKER.

July 1, 1890.

W. P. Graham of Spruce Hill made a good auditor and is worthy of re-election. Let us continue him in the office.

Rubber Shoes unless worn uncomfortably tight, will often slip off the feet. To remedy this evil the offer a shoe with the inside of the heel lined with rubber. This clings to the shoe and prevents the Rubber from slipping off.
