AMERICAN YOUNG MEN.

American history presents many remarkable instances of young men taking prominent and commanding stations at an age which would be thought very young in other countries. We subjoin a few striking examples from the list of those who have passed off the stage of human action:

At the age of twenty-nine Mr. Jefferson was an influential member of the Legislature of Virginia, at thirty he was a member of the Virginia Convention, at thirty-two a member of the Continental Congress, and at thirty-four he wrote the Declaration of Independence.

Alexander Hamilton was only twenty years of age when he was appointed Lieutenant Colonel in the army of the Revolution and aid-de-camp to Washington. At twenty-five he was a member of the Continental Congress, at thirty he was one of the ablest members of the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States, at thirty-two he was Secretary of the Treasury, and organized that branch of the Government upon so complete and comprehensive a plan that no change has since been made upon it.

John Jay, at the age of twenty-nine, was a member of the Continental Congress, and wrote an address to the people of Great Britain which was justly regarded as one of the most eloquent productions of the times. At thirty-two he prepared the Constitution of the State of New York, and in the same year was appointed Chief Justice of the State.

Washington was twenty-seven years of age when he covered the retreat of the British troops at Braddock's defeat, and the same year was honored by an appointment as Commander-in-chief of the Virginia forces.

Joseph Warren was only twenty-nine years of age when he delivered the memorial address on the 5th of March, which aroused the spirit of patriotism and liberty in Massachusetts. He fell gloriously fighting in the cause of Freedom at Bunker Hill.

Fisher Ames at the age of twenty-seven excited public attention by the ability he displayed in the discussion of questions of public interest. At the age of thirty his masterly speeches in defence of the Constitution of the United States exerted great influence, so much so that the youthful orator of thirty-one was elected to Congress from the Suffolk (Mass.) district over the Revolutionary hero, Samuel Adams.

Joseph Story entered public life at the age of twenty-six years. He was elected to Congress from the Essex district when he was thirty years old. He was Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives at the age of thirty-two, and the same year was appointed by President Madison a Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.

DeWitt Clinton entered public life at the age of twenty-eight. Henry Clay at twenty-six years of age. The most youthful signer of the Declaration of Independence was William Hooper, of North Carolina, whose age was but twenty-four years. Of the other signers of the Declaration Thomas Heywood, of South Carolina, was thirty years old; Eldridge Gerry, Benjamin Rush, James Wilson and Matthew Thornton were thirty-two years of age; Arthur Middleton and Thomas Stone were thirty-three years of age.

A NEGRO'S PRAYER.

The following grotesque yet solemn prayer is a verbatim report by a writer in the Educational Monthly, taken in the winter of 1862-63, at a Methodist meeting held by plantation negroes in a settlement near camp.

O Lord God of dis glorious universe, wilt dou look down in de omnipresence of dye eye upon dese, dy sodiard children, bowed upon the knokle bone dis night. Take a solemn peep upon us, and let a heap o' light in. Dou knowest what dese, poor darkies need. Dere be Sam, dere be Jerry, and here be Pompey. We are in dere sins, dat's what I reckon. Help them to git up and git from de wilderness of sin, and git into the clearing of salvation. Take a solemn peep also upon de darkies in de other cabin, who fiddle and whirl upon de bombastic toe, while dy servants fulminates words to dee. May dey rise above de authratory things of dis world, and fly like Massa Linksman's balloon heavenward. (Professor Lowe's balloon was anchored near by.) Ruler of all humans on dis earth, wilt though bress de Generals in de fields dis night, if it be circumspection in dye eye. Bress de Colonels in field dis night, if it be circumspection in dy discreet eye, and also bress de Union soldiers, who carry de musket and chew de cartridge fitin' for de Union and de Stars and de Stripes. Dey fight in a scientific cause and be de bestest of men; but, good Lord, may dey swear less and pray more. And finally, bress dy humble servant now supplicating dee in behalf of dese benighted darkies. It behooves dee to dig deep and sound to de berry bottom of his heart. May dere be nary bluimage between myself and my Savior. In de language of de mighty Washington, dis world is all a fleetin' show. To-day we are alive and hoppin' around like grasshoppers, to-morrow de sickle of death cuts us down, and spreads us out like grass in hay time. On every side dou knowest, O Lord, is de evidence of de dislocation and destruction ob de human family. Dere be discussions on doctrines: Fleeshion, Beforeordination, perfection, and such like, confuse de intellects of both black and white. But, good Lord dou knowest dese are vain allusions, splittin' and dividin' dy creatures into sexes without mercy. Whoever will, can go to glory. Many dere will be with slick countenances, white collars and fine clothes who will find de gates shut against dem, while de blind old woman, hobblin on crutliches, she go straight in. Amen.

REFORM AT A DISCOUNT.—Reform is a grand word, but like Liberty, it has been much abused. The Democratic party in this State is very anxious, in words, for State Reform, and is particularly anxious, on paper, to effect a purification of the State Treasury; but in action it belies its words. It prates about reform and demands economy in our State offices; and then presents as its candidate for State Treasurer, a man with unclean hands, and with a record which no real friend of reform need envy. It preaches Reform and practices the reverse by nominating a man so odious that the President of their Convention was driven into an effort to run away from him. When men like Hendrick B. Wright refuse to muster under Pioleet, it is time for all other Democratic friends of decency and honesty to get out of the ranks.—Pittsburg Commercial.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously, but that a patient of his had taken them without effect. On being informed that several imitations were sold, he inquired and found his patient had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of protecting physicians, druggists, and themselves, and preventing OIL OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute.

PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure Oil in the best and cheapest form. DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists and Perfumers in the United States combined and this is the sole reason why the pure Oil is sold cheaper in their capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast supersedding every other remedy, sixty Capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other medicine can this result be had.

DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the problem, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor oil and many other nauseous medicines can be taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO'S SOFT CAPSULES. No Taste no Smell.

These were the only capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.

Send for circular to 35 Worcester street, New York.

Sold at all Drug Stores Here.
