Agricultural Notice.

Those intending to compete for premiums on grain of whatever kind, are hereby notified to leave specimens of their respective crops with Thos. Fuller of Montrose, on or before the third Wednesday of January next at 12 o'clock, (noon,) after which time none will be admitted to competition. They will also give statistics of their crops in writing, stating the number of bushels and the weight per bushel, with the certificate of those who assisted in measuring the ground and crop; also the kind of ground, whether sod or otherwise, the quantity of manure or plaster, &c., used, and how applied, together with the general treatment of the soil and crop. Each proprietor will not sign his statement, but will leave his name with Mr. Fuller in confidence, only to be known by the judges after they have made their decision.

The Judges, S. A. Newton, P. Wells, and Sam'l. Taggart, will meet at Mr. Fuller's Store the third Wednesday of January next, at 12 o'clock, to examine the specimens of grain and make their decision.

Poetry and Pictures.

"Lives of great men oft remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Pictures which will last some time!

"PICTURES which perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's stormy main,
Some forlorn and wayworn brother,
Seeing, can go and get some more just like them!"

The above was sent us by a friend, and, being right to the point, we give our readers the benefit of it, hoping that they will heed the wise suggestion and "go and get some more just like 'em."

Our stock of cases, lockets, keys, pins, &c., is varied and complete, and we are anxious to set them all with "natural" pictures, and get the rare for so doing.

Our motto is, "good work and fair prices."
